Ordinary Time

Fourteenth Sunday

The Risk of Preaching the Gospel

In spite of the popular enthusiasm he aroused, Jesus knew bitter failures. The Gospel writers did not hide them, because they are an essential aspect of the Lord's mission and the mission of the Church. The Good News is announced at the risk of faith. Those to whom the message is preached have the freedom to receive it or reject it. If the Church is true to her mission, it will inevitably encounter rejection, however the Church's responsibility is not to water down the message but faithfully proclaim it whether it is accepted or refused as Jesus did.

Today's Bulletin is printed in memory of Regina & Willibald Kleihege sponsored by their family.

ST. JOSEPH'S CHURCH REPAIR FUND

We thank the following for their continued donations. Without your help and the help of many others our church building would have been in bad shape:

Carolyn & Danis Whitmire - $500

To make a tax-deductible donation you may go to <https://www.victoriadiocese.org/donate-stjoseph-moulton> and donate online or make a donation directly to St. Joseph's Church.

Thank You: We thank the Moulton parishioners and friends of the parish that have been supporting us with their on-line donations. To make an on-line donation visit us on <https://www.victoriadiocese.org/donate-stjoseph-moulton>

LITURGICAL ORIENTATION

Looking Ahead: The Fifteenth and Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

The Gospels of these two Sundays are dedicated to the mission that Jesus entrusts to the Twelve in the course of his preaching. Before their departure Jesus give them precise instructions concerning their ministry and how they must behave towards the people they preached to. - (15th Sunday)

Upon returning, the disciples report to Jesus what they have done and taught. Jesus wants to lead them to a place by themselves to rest but the crowd catches up with them. Jesus renounces the idea of taking a break and he began to teach them many things. - (16th Sunday) This Sunday concludes the reading of the first part of St. Mark's Gospel.

The next four Sundays, the Seventeenth through the Twenty-first Sunday, the liturgy presents Chapter Six of St. John's Gospel – The Discourse on the Bread of Life.

THE WEEK AHEAD

MONDAY – Parish Office Closed in observance of Independence Day (4th of July).

THURSDAY – KC Bingo, 7:30 p.m., Moulton Oaks Hall

FRIDAY – Parish Office closed on Fridays. For any Pastoral emergency, call the Parish Office at any time.

The Sanctuary Light will be lit this week in memory of Susan Jasek.

REFLECTION

Ezekiel 2:2-5 Psalm 123 2 Corinthians 12:7-10
Mark 6:1-6

The Prophet Is Without Honor

One would think that Jesus' liberating teaching would have been readily accepted by the people who were anxiously awaiting the Messiah. Such was not the case. In fact many struggled with the prophetic dimension of Jesus and ultimately rejected him. It is not uncommon that we heed the voices that sound very much like our own. Frequently prophets are treated without honor. The people the prophet Ezekiel was sent to were hard of face and obstinate of heart. They compounded their offense by rejecting the very one sent to them by God to bring them back to the covenant relationship. The people of Galilee who heard Jesus' words questioned his authenticity because they felt that they knew him so well. They thought that he was no better than they were and, therefore, he had no right to tell them anything.

We so often resent people who can do what we cannot do. True believers recognize and admit their human frailty. In fact, God seems to prefer to act where pride and self-satisfaction do not prevail. These are obstacles to personal transformation. When we open ourselves in humility and honest piety, the power of God can flood our minds and hearts and shine forth from us to all those around us. It would be very clear that it comes from God.

HAPPY INDEPENDENCE DAY JULY 4, 2021

Independence Day Prayer

God, source of all freedom, this day is bright with the memory of those who declared that life and liberty are your gift to every human being.

Help us to continue the good work begun long ago. Make our vision clear and our will strong, that only in human solidarity will we find liberty, and justice only in the honor that belongs to every life on earth. Turn our hearts toward the family of nations to understand the ways of others, to offer friendship, and to find safety only in common good of all. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.
