Saint of the Week

Saint John of Damascus
(675 - 750)

Raised in a prominent Christian family serving under Muslim leaders, John's father ensured his son received an excellent education from the Sicilian monk named Cosmas. Trained in theology, philosophy, law, and the sciences, Saint John succeeded his father in office, living as a devout Christian in court before renouncing public life to become a monk at a monastery near Jerusalem.

In the monastery, Saint John devoted himself to study, prayer, and writing. When Emperor Leo III condemned the veneration of icons, Saint John became one of its fiercest defenders, composing treatises that upheld the ancient Christian practice of honoring sacred images. He did not live to see the end of iconoclasm, but the church did uphold his position and reinstated the holy images at the Second Council of Nicaea in 787.

“...if He said, ‘Let there be light’, and it happened; why should He not be capable of making bread His Body and wine and water His Blood?...” (Saint John Damascene)

A Message from Our Pastor, Fr. Ted Dudzinski

My dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

Another Advent is upon us. Why? Why does the Church lead us along the same path every year, repeating the same seasons, even the same readings? Is it for lack of creativity and imagination? No, the Church is always young, and never runs out of creativity. In every generation she gives the world new saints, new religious orders, new artists. The Church is ever ancient, and yet ever new. The Church is a wise, loving mother who knows her children well, sincerely respects them, and is always leading them forward, never backward. The Church may often be demanding, but when she is, it is for our benefit, not our destruction.

So what is the reason for another Advent? The word "advent" comes from the Latin "ad-venire", meaning to come to, to come towards. This season spotlights the three comings of Christ: the first, 2000 years ago; the last, sometime in the future; and the present - Christ's constant coming into our lives through His grace, His providence, and His sacraments. This is why our Penitential Rite will be different during Advent and our Intercession response will be, Come, Lord Jesus!

We live in the final age of human history, the age which will end in Christ's second coming, the destruction of the cosmos as we know it, and the creation of a new heavens and earth - the full establishment of Christ's Kingdom, as today's readings described. We are already citizens of that Kingdom because Jesus is the Kingdom of God among us, we are members of His Church and God dwells in us!

The Church gives us the season of Advent in order to remind us of this, and to give us a chance to check up on the quality of our citizenship. Considering the three comings of Christ, and that we are called to live in the present with Jesus, to know our past and prepare for our future, I ask you to consider helping us grow with Jesus in the following ways this Advent.

1. As a faith family by actively engaging in our pastorate and community. We need you! As I have just finished watching Pope Leo XIV dialogue with our Youth in Indianapolis at the National gathering of Youth, he invited our youth to develop a personal relationship with Jesus, through prayer, the Mass, Adoration of Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament and the Sacrament of Reconciliation!!! We have been made for this time in salvation history. Let us cooperate with God's grace!
2. Please consider helping us financially to maintain our beautiful places of worship, our campuses and cemetery. Please consider a year end gift and consider weekly/monthly gifts specifically for maintenance beyond regular giving. Every gift counts! Our Director of Operations, Rachel Witt has shared the various ways we are trying to preserve our facilities. As a reminder:
 - a. St. Mary Cathedral Church was renovated and the addition added 25 yrs ago. We are faced with maintenance needs and refreshing certain areas.
 - b. Our beautiful St. Mary Cemetery has ongoing and deferred maintenance needs. We have recently removed several trees and limbs that presented life and safety dangers; parts of our roads and fences were overgrown. We need to care for graves, replace trees, care for our roads and all within the cemetery.
 - c. St. Ann's Worship space was last renovated 45 years ago and shows significant wear (this has been the number one concern that parishioners have brought to my attention). I am grateful that a new roof and tuckpointing has taken place over the past four years. It is time to address the Church interior and buildings through a Master Plan.

We are praying and hoping that we may all enter our Advent season with hearts full of gratitude as we anticipate Christ's return in Glory and His birthday in and through His daily coming into our hearts.

In the peace, love and joy of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe,

Fr. Ted Dudzinski

Welcome! I want to personally and warmly welcome you in the name of our Lord! For over a century now, St. Mary Cathedral and St. Ann Church have been actively worshipping and serving in our community and world! I pray that you will come to know St. Mary Cathedral and St. Ann as your Spiritual Home and Loving Faith Family. We are blessed by your presence and look forward to meeting and getting to know you! We invite you to find a way to become active as we are better together.

God bless! — Father Ted Dudzinski

A Message from Fr. Joshua and Rachel Witt

Dear Saint Mary and Saint Ann Pastorate Family,

Happy First Sunday of Advent!! Guess who? Yes, it's me. Fr. Joshua, one of your priests. How are you doing? How did everything go with Thanksgiving? I hope you all had a nice time with your families and loved ones, sharing in all the blessings God has given you and delicious meals around your dinner tables. Thanksgiving was different for me this year, over here in Kuwait. And, no, I did not eat camel on Thanksgiving. I honestly haven't even seen a camel yet, but perhaps I'll see one soon. I did get the opportunity to be present each day with the other military members who are over here with me, doing important work for the United States of America. Thank you, dear family, for being part of this through your prayers and support, and for knowing that, as I serve, I am representing God, our Church, and each one of you. I am grateful, and this is just one of the things I am giving thanks for this year.

I am also thankful for the opportunity to assist others in growing closer to God and strengthening their Catholic faith. I hold Mass each day, Monday – Thursday at 12:30 pm, Fridays for Embassy Families here in Kuwait at 10:15 am, a Saturday Vigil Mass at 6:00 pm (with a Holy Hour of Eucharistic Adoration one hour before Mass), and a Sunday morning Mass at 9:00 am (with confessions one hour before Mass). We also head to the Green Bean coffee shop on base after Sunday Mass for some coffee, sweets, and time for conversation. During my Masses and times of prayer, I can reflect more deeply on God's word and pray for many people. If any of you have prayer intentions, please email those to me at fr.jianko@dol-in.org. I am happy to keep you and your prayers in mind at Masses and other prayer times. In addition to the Masses and Holy Hours, I have been leading an OCIA class on Monday nights, and one of my Catholic members, Omar, who hopefully will be able to receive the Sacrament of Confirmation on Christmas Day, 12/25/25, when Archbishop Broglio is here for a pastoral visit. If you are ever interested in learning more about the Archdiocese for the Military Services, USA, please visit their website www.milarch.org. Thank you also if you were able to contribute to the Collection for the Archdiocese for the Military Services, USA, a few weeks ago. Finally, on Thursday evenings, I meet with a couple of people for a Bible Study at 6:00 pm. We start with a Rosary at 5:45 pm, and then we dive into our materials. We are currently working through a seven-week study on Scriptural Apologetics. So far, it has been a nice time of prayer, study, and fellowship.

I just wanted to give you an update on what I've been up to here in my Catholic ministry. I am also keeping busy with military members across four squadrons: the Civil Engineering Squadron (including the firefighters), the Contracting Squadron (money spenders), the Force Support Squadron (gyms, cafeteria, recreation facility, lodging office, and education office), and the Communications Squadron (lots of areas these folks support – computers, phones, cable, email, etc.). I am keeping busy! Please also pray for my Chapel co-workers (teammates) deployed here with me: Clayton (from California), James (Utah), Scot (California), Danielle (Michigan), Ruth (New York), Zachary (California), and Carmyn (Washington, D.C.).

Your brother in Christ and one of your parish priests,
Fr. Joshua

A note from the Director of Operations

Just a few operational updates...

You have likely noticed that the demolition is underway on the buildings near the St. Mary campus. It will continue the week after Thanksgiving. This has given us time to work with representatives from the local historic preservation community to salvage everything that could be reused in other local preservation projects. We are very grateful for their collaboration and partnership!

The new display board is up and running in the gathering space at St. Mary. We hope it is another helpful way to receive information about what is going on in the pastorate. If you have ideas for information you would like to see, contact Joni in the office.

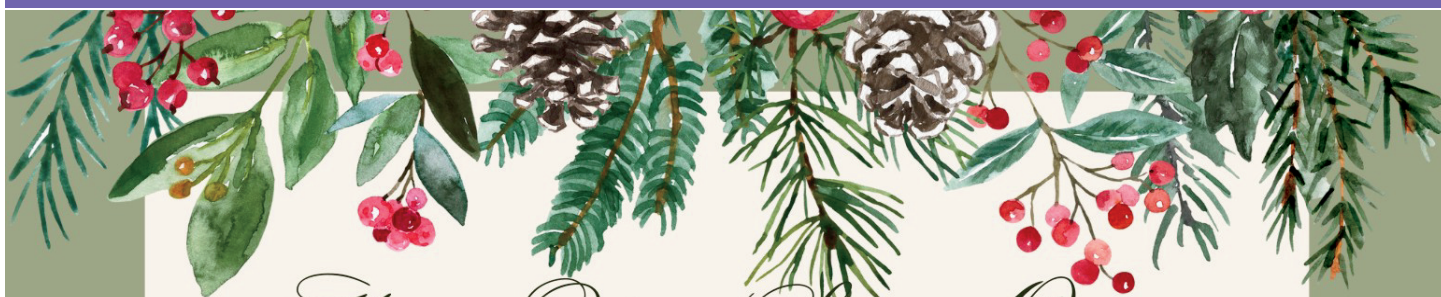

Please take note of the changed reporting format for Gifts of Treasure in the bulletin.

This is part of our efforts to improve transparency on financial matters. This may also lead you to have questions. Your questions will help us refine how we report, so please ask them! Contact Rachel in the pastorate office, and as always please continue to pray for us!

It's hard to imagine but as we near the close of the year, we have started to think about tax statements. To help us be good stewards and reduce the cost of postage, staff will be offering pick up of individual statements after Masses at both St. Mary's and St. Ann's. This means we need to process them very quickly after the first of the year.

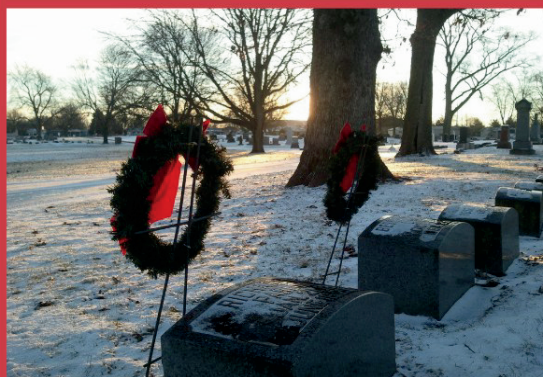

You can help us now by contacting the office and updating your contact information if you have moved in the past year!

MUSIC AND LITURGY

A Message from Dr. Wendy Yuen

O Come, O Come, Emmanuel

Advent always begins quietly—with deep purple, candlelight, and contemplative, chant-like melodies such as O Come, O Come, Emmanuel. This hymn invites us into a world that is very different from the one we live in today. Ours is a culture of instant answers, one-day shipping, rapid notifications. Advent proposes something countercultural: waiting. Holy, hopeful, deliberate waiting.

Each verse calls Christ by a different name—titles rooted in Scripture.

- Emmanuel — “God-with-us.” God who chooses to dwell among His people.
- Wisdom from on High. Christ is the One who shows us how to live in God’s way.
- Lord of Might. This title recalls the God who gave the Law on Sinai.
- Root of Jesse. a biblical metaphor for the Messiah, who is a descendant of Jesse, the father of King David. A reminder that Jesus Christ, who would bring new life and establish a kingdom.
- Key of David. The One who opens doors no one can shut.
- Dayspring. Christ to come and bring his light.
- Desire of Nations. The One who unites what is divided, healing our world’s fragmentation and our own divided hearts.

Each verse is a prayer in itself—a longing for Christ to enter the very places where we are still waiting for healing, forgiveness, peace.

And so Advent challenges us. The Church gives us four weeks to remind us that God forms us through waiting. Delayed gratification isn’t merely a psychological exercise; it is spiritual training. It creates space for us to wait, to long for what truly matters.

When we sing O Come, O Come, Emmanuel, we practice this holy longing. We learn to desire God more than immediate comfort. In a world that urges us to skip straight to Christmas, Advent invites us to slow down, breathe, meditate, and remember that the deepest joys are worth waiting for. Christ will come. Christ always comes. And in the singing, in the prayer, in the longing, in the waiting, our hearts are made ready to receive Him.

Jubilee Christmas

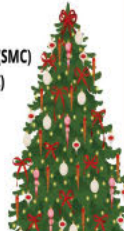

Saturday, December 13, 2025
St. Mary Cathedral and St. Ann Church
9:00 AM - 12:00 PM

3 weeks until Jubilee Christmas! This year St. Mary’s will be hosting 40 families and St. Ann Church will be hosting 10 families. If you haven’t taken a gift tag from the Jubilee Christmas tree located in the Gathering Space at St. Mary Cathedral and in the back of church at St. Ann Church, please do so. If you prefer to do so instead, you can donate money through your Jubilee envelopes or online giving, and the shopping can be done for you. Please place unwrapped gift(s), along with the gift tag, in the donation box before December 7th. Thank you for your generosity.

Homemade cookies are also being requested. Look for the sign-up sheet located at both churches.

Heavenly Father, please help us carry out our Jubilee Christmas mission with loving generous hearts.
Bless the families we will host.
