A Message from Our Pastor, Fr. Ted Dudzinski

Christ Comes to Make His Dream for Our Lives Come True

It was so gratifying to see so many of you attending our Patronal Feast Day, The Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary on Monday, our Holy Day of Obligation. Being open to God's dreams for us is best exemplified in Mary. Immaculately conceived she said yes to God's invitations throughout her life. This is unlike Eve, who at some point said, NO to God's invitation for her to love Him completely. When we fail to respond to God's dreams for us, which are found in Sacred Scripture, Tradition, and His bride, Holy Mother Church, we fall short of the glory (dream) God has in store for us.

Today the color of our vestments has changed. The priest doesn't wear purple or midnight blue, but rose. It is a visual symbol that Christmas is closer. Just as the dark night sky begins to glow with a pale, rose-colored light as the sun starts to rise, so the color of our vestments goes from dark to light. In our hearts the color should be changing, too.

For the first weeks of Advent, we have meditated on our need for God, our sinfulness, our helplessness in achieving the meaning and fulfillment that we long for. Today we switch gears. Without forgetting about our need for a Savior, we focus our attention more on that Savior himself. Christ came on the first Christmas in order to make his dream for this fallen world come true. Pope Benedict XVI reminds us of the need for the Hope of our Savior.

It becomes evident that man has need of a hope that goes further. It becomes clear that only something infinite will suffice for him, something that will always be more than he can ever attain... we need the greater and lesser hopes that keep us going day by day. But these are not enough without the great hope, which must surpass everything else. This great hope can only be God, who encompasses the whole of reality and who can bestow upon us what we, by ourselves, cannot attain.
(Pope Benedict XVI Spe salvi, #30-31)

And Jesus wants to come again into our hearts this Christmas for the same reason, to make His dream for our lives come true. When Jesus came to earth, He met the blind and gave them sight; the poor and gave them hope; the lame and gave them strength.

He has begun the same work in us and is eager to continue it. We are blinded by ignorance and selfishness, and He offers us light in the teachings of His Church and the Sacrament of Reconciliation. We are poor in virtue, and He fills us with the gifts of the Holy Spirit. We are lame, unable to pray as we should, to bear witness as we should, to love as we should, and He heals and strengthens us by nourishing us with His very self in the Eucharist.

Jesus has a dream for each one of our lives, and He is coming to make that dream come true. As we continue with our Advent Homily Series based on Sacred Silence, it is a great time to reflect on how Our Lord wants to speak into the silence of our hearts and minds from the depths of His infinite love, the Holy Mass.

This week, let us start by loving Jesus in the sacred silence of the Mass and our personal lives.

Fr. Ted Dudzinski

A Message from Fr. Joshua and Rachel Witt

Dear Saint Mary and Saint Ann Pastorate Family,

Happy Gaudete Sunday, the Third Sunday of Advent! Our Advent season is moving quickly by, and before you know it, Christmas will be here. How has Advent been for you and your families so far? I hope you have been able to go deeper this year as you reflect, pray, and grow closer to God. That's what this time is for: we all need to be ready for our Lord's Second Coming; we all need to prepare to celebrate His First Coming; and we all need to be prepared for what falls between those two—Jesus' "Intermediate" Coming! Saint Bernard teaches that this "Coming" of Christ includes His presence among us right now. The Third Person of the Most Holy Trinity, the Holy Spirit, makes Jesus present today through the Seven Sacraments and through the members of the Body of Christ, the Church—each of us! Remember His reassuring words from the end of Saint Matthew's Gospel, "...I am with you always, until the end of the age." Thank you, Jesus!

Friends, we do not know when He will return in His Second Coming, so please remain vigilant and steadfast in your spiritual lives. I am glad that our Pastorate is holding Wednesday Vesper services with Eucharistic Adoration throughout this month, so we can spend some quality time with Him. Also, the upcoming Advent Penance Service on December 17th will be another opportunity to draw closer to Jesus through His gift of mercy, forgiveness, and grace. If it has been a while since you last went to confession, please don't worry, because our Lord loves you all so much that He died for our sins. Trust in His Divine Mercy and open your hearts to renewal, refreshment, and a fresh start. With each confession, we can NUNC COEPI, BEGIN AGAIN, as Venerable Bruno Lanteri said many years ago.

Please be assured of my prayers for you all during these final days of Advent as we approach Christmas. Pray for me as well! I am definitely picking up from the military members here that they miss their loved ones very much! I miss you all as well! And, happy belated Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary, Patron Saint of our Diocese of Lafayette-in-Indiana and our Cathedral. Also, happy belated Feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe! For your homework, make sure you have memorized the Act of Contrition. It is a good prayer that sadly gets forgotten, so let's take it upon ourselves to learn it again, just like we expect of our Second Graders. Here is my favorite version, but please memorize the one you prefer: O my Savior, I am truly sorry for having offended You because You are infinitely good and sin displeases You. I detest all the sins of my life, and I desire to atone for them. Through the merits of Your Precious Blood, wash from my soul all stain of sin, so that, cleansed in body and soul, I may worthily approach the Most Holy Sacrament of the Altar. Amen.

God bless you,
Fr. Joshua M. Janko

A NOTE FROM THE DIRECTOR OF EVANGELIZATION

One question I have been asked is what exactly does the 'Director of Evangelization' do. The short answer is to love God and His people.. I'm talking about YOU! From a job description standpoint, it is:
To work with our pastor and clergy to foster spiritual growth and deepen the faith of our parishioners, and enable our pastorate to fulfill the great commission to 'Go and make disciples of all nations.'

This includes things you may expect in a parish, like overseeing youth and adult formation, sacrament preparation and other "programs" and ministries. All of that is true! But evangelization is much more than a single program, book or bible study. We are journeying together to discover what God is calling each of us to do as individuals and a church. That could take as many different forms as there are people! Over the coming months, I look forward to getting to know you and serving and seeking Him with you. You can reach me by email to rwitt@parish.dol-in.org and office phone is 765.742.4440. I hope if you see me around you will say hello!

A Message from Chris Alter

A Note from Chris Alter, Director of Operations

General Notes and Updates:

Just a quick note with regards to Snow and Ice; the facilities in our Pastorate are being cared for by a new support contractor Juan's Lawncare. Juan and his team have already been very busy with snow removal tasks around the Pastorate. They will do their very best to stay ahead of the storms as they happen. Just a reminder, however, that at all of our doors you should be able to find a snow shovel and deicer product. Please feel free to use those if you encounter a situation that would require its use. Please use caution when in and around the buildings during events as sometimes you may encounter slick conditions.

As you may have noticed our statues of Saint Mary and Saint Ann have been removed from the churches. They have been received by the restoration service, and they hope to have them back home in May in time for May Crowning.

Tax statements will be made available, when ready, in the gathering spaces of St. Mary and St. Ann after all Masses once they are ready. This will help save the Pastorate significant money on postage expenses. If you are unable to pick them up after the Masses on the two weekends that they will be made available, the Pastorate office will then mail them out. If you have moved or have any other information to update with regards to your contact information, please contact the parish office.

Chris

MUSIC AND LITURGY

A Message from Dr. Wendy Yuon

People Look East

Last week I went to the grocery store to shop for ingredients for dinner. Yet the moment I stepped inside, my simple errand dissolved into a swirl of Christmas flowers, holiday bouquets, wreaths, candies, gift boxes—every corner overflowing with signs of the season. Suddenly, my mind leapt ahead: How many Christmas cards should I write? Whom should I include? Which cookie recipes should I try this year?

Look here. Look there. Look East.

Eleanor Farjeon (1881–1965), the poet who penned this beloved Advent hymn, begins with that very imperative: a call not to holiday busyness, but to attention. To turning the eyes and the heart toward the coming of Christ.

A devout Catholic, she published the hymn as “Carol of Advent” in The Oxford Book of Carols in 1928. Farjeon’s text draws from ancient Christian practice. Early Christians often prayed facing east, the direction of rising light, anticipating the return of the Messiah. Farjeon reminds us that Advent is a season of anticipation and expectant hope.

In “People, Look East,” Farjeon uses vivid imagery.

- Verse 1 invites us to prepare our homes—and our hearts—for a guest.
- Verse 2 turns to the quiet patience of seeds growing into a rose.
- Verse 3 evokes the fledgling bird learning to fly, a tender image of readiness.
- Verse 4 lifts our gaze to the stars shining as guides.

Each image is both ordinary and luminous, grounded in daily life yet pointing beyond it. Together they lead us to the climactic promise of verse 5:

“People, look east and sing today: Love, the Lord is on the way.”

Sung to the traditional French carol tune BESANÇON, the hymn sparkles with joy. Its lively triple meter gives it a gentle dance-like motion, as though the whole creation is swaying in welcome. It is a melody that not only proclaims hope but embodies it—light, rhythmic.

At this time of year, when distractions crowd everywhere and to-do lists grow long, Farjeon’s words invite us to pause, and look toward the center of the season. Advent is not about hurrying to Christmas, but about cultivating hope, wonder, and readiness.

Look East. Love, the Lord, is on the way.
