Members of Christ Our Redeemer share their reflections on Tuesday evening Eucharistic Adoration

The Reward of Eucharistic Adoration This is a unique "one-on-one" time with Christ in the Eucharist. …a personal time of solitude to concentrate on and to communicate thanksgiving to Him of God's graces, gifts, and protection throughout my life.

The first time I went to Eucharistic Adoration it was an obligation to someone that caused me to go. I enjoyed it but didn't really intend to go again. Then I started thinking about all my blessings and how little time I really give to God. So quilt was a major reason I started attending regularly. I spent quiet time each day with my bible but this hour each Tuesday night is different. I feel such peace and a special closeness to Jesus. It is His house and He is present on the altar. It is quiet and there are no distractions. It is a time to converse with Jesus in my heart. After a month I realized I was attending because I really wanted to. I looked forward to that peaceful time with Jesus. A special time in the midst of a very busy week to spend time with my Lord and Savior.

To me, Adoration is like keeping in touch with my best friend, talking to Him face to face, asking for advice and help and thanking Him for being here for me and for everyone. I'm trying to get to know Him better by trying to listen to Him and to hear His voice in the silence.

In my quest to be a better person, I value the quiet time I spend in meditation with Jesus in the Eucharist.

The Adoration Hour on Tuesday evenings helps me to realize that "all things are right" when I keep God as my focus. IT gives me a sense of security and the energy to tackle life.

Adoration has become a very special part of my spiritual life. The opportunity to spend quiet time in prayer and listening to God is something I look forward to. It is a personal time with God, but at the same time a way of sharing with the community here at Christ Our Redeemer. There is such a feeling with being close to Christ --- a real presence.

What I liked about it is that it is so very simple in presentation. It allows the focus to be on personal prayer time with Our Lord in the Eucharist. Yes, I have taken out snatches of time daily here and there to speak with God, and listen to Him, but is seems there is much more communication that goes on when a longer length of time is set aside, in and environment totally free from the distractions of normal daily living.

What is it about Holy Hour that is so precious? Quiet time with God. A chance to get down on my knees and worship our loving God, in prayer. Prayer that consists of thanksgiving, praise and petitions, contrition…and…Listening… It's a time to sing Samuel's prayer, "Speak Lord, I'm listening… plant your word down deep in me, please, show me the way." And then be quiet. It's a time to be with Jesus, God's Son, and our Redeemer… When life is perplexing and strange and sorrowful, it's a time to ask Him, "What would you do, Jesus?" And then… be quiet.

And . . . →

St Pope John Paul II's Guiding Words

"The Church and the world have a great need of Eucharistic Adoration" (Dominicae Cenae)

"Every member of the Church must be vigilant in seeing that the sacrament of Love shall be at the center of the life of the people of God so that through all the manifestations of worship due Him shall be given back 'love for love' and truly become the life of our souls." (Redeemer of Man)

"Let us be generous with our time in going to meet Jesus and ready to make reparation for the great evils of the world. Let your adoration never cease." (Dominicae Cenae)

"Our communal worship at Mass must go together with our personal worship of Jesus in Eucharistic adoration in order that our love may be complete." (Dominicae Cenae)

"Our essential commitment in life is to preserve and advance constantly in Eucharistic life and Eucharistic piety and to grow spiritually in the climate of the Holy Eucharist." (Redeemer of Man)

Mary, Our Blessed Mother's Guiding Words

On March 15, 1984 Our Blessed Mother, under the title, "The Queen of Peace" expressed her gratitude to the Medjugorje parishioners for their participation in Eucharistic Adoration. She said," Tonight also, dear children, I am grateful to you in a special way for being here. Unceasingly adore the Most Blessed Sacrament of the Altar. I am always present when the faithful are adoring. Special graces are then being received."

We of Christ Our Redeemer are blessed in having had weekly Eucharistic Adoration for the last nearly 18 years. We have also been blessed to have a statue of Our Lady of Medjugorje, the Queen of Peace in our church for nearly 25 years to remind us of her motherly presence with us, and to help us with our spiritual struggles, spiritual healing, and spiritual growth – as individual children and as a parish, and of her great love for all us.

Please seriously consider making a spiritual commitment to spend one hour with Jesus in Eucharistic Adoration between now and Christmas.
