Meet Your New Pastoral Council Members

Bob Gualtieri grew up in New Jersey, by NYC. Graduated Fordham University, Bronx, NY and have an M.S from USC. Retired C-130 pilot with 31 years of service on active duty and with the ANG and AF Reserve. First moved to Niceville in 1985 working at Duke Field. After 12 years, moved away with my job and moved back full time in 2016. Am a 4th Degree member of the Knights of Columbus and past Grand Knight of Christ Our Redeemer council as well as a team leader for one of our Bingo teams. Life member of the American Legion, VFW and Reserve Officer Association. In our parish, I am an usher, EMOHC, serve on the Visitation Ministry and enjoy Tuesday morning Bible classes. My wife is Wen Ching, my children are all grown and I have two grandchildren.

Christine Keating "Chris" is a South Florida Native Floridian and has been a residence of Niceville and Christ our Redeemer member for four years. Chris converted to Catholicism in 2002 from a Methodist and Episcopal Church foundation. At COR she is active in Choir, a Lector, EMOHC, member of CCW, helps coordinate Funeral Receptions and volunteers at NCO. In the community, she is active in the Daughters of American Revolution and PEO which provides educational scholarships. Chris is a widow and has two children; a daughter and family with two daughters in Niceville and a son and two daughters in Asheville, NC. She is a retired educator of 32 years with a background in Exceptional Student Education, Reading, Library Science and Educational Leadership with degrees from Florida State University and Florida Atlantic University. She enjoys frequent participation in learning more about the Catholic Faith and a relationship with Jesus Christ through COR Bible Studies and encountering Jesus in daily Masses. As she notes, "Thanks be to God for my many blessings and the opportunity to serve the COR family by being a member of the Parish Council. God Bless our service in His name!"

Barbara Swanson and her husband, Tom, moved in May 2016 for employment at Eglin AFB. They have been COR parishioners ever since. Barbara converted to Catholicism in her mid-twenties. She enjoys living in Florida for the weather and proximity to her two sons who live in and near Myrtle Beach, SC. Barbara participates in COR as a Donut Brigade and Niceville Catholic Outreach volunteer. She serves as a Lector, Eucharistic Minister and provides Holy Eucharist to the sick and homebound. Recently she organized and led the effort to publish the 2019 Parish COR Family Photo Directory. Having moved several times to different locals for employment, she has been enriched by each new parish. Eucharist Adoration on Tuesdays at COR has certainly offered her a wonderful avenue to grow closer to the Holy Trinity. "We're so blessed to have a church so alive, with a whole host of ministries and now a meeting room capital expansion project, which we truly need. COR feels like home. I hope to fully support Fr. Bob as a member of the Parish Council and am looking forward to working for the good of our parish."
