CCW

The Council of Catholic Women is sponsoring the "Cans for Kids" project for Catholic Charities of Northwest FL. They are collecting canned foods for distribution in Dec. to families on the school food program to assist them during the vacation break. We will collect canned food items from Nov. 22 to Dec. 13. You can deposit your items in the Christmas wrapped box in the Narthex after all Masses. Some suggested food items are SpagettiOs, Chef Boyardee, Raviolis, canned meats and vegetables. Thank you for your generous contributions.

BREAKING BREAD BOOKS

Starting on Nov. 21 and 22, we will start handing out the new Breaking Bread books to families who would like one. We will follow the same procedure as earlier in the year. You will be issued a book, on which you may write your name, and you will bring it to Mass each week. You will be able to reserve your copy starting with your Mass signup for the weekend of Nov.21/22. We will also continue printing worship aids for those who prefer that. Old Breaking Breads from 2019/2020 may be placed in your home recycling can.

VICTIMS OF ABUSE "We are committed to healing the hurting hearts" - Victim Assistance Coordinators are an additional way that the Diocese of Pensacola-Tallahassee has dedicated itself to addressing sexual abuse by clergy or other church personnel. ## Thirty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time

Prv 31:10-13, 19-20, 30-31 | 1 Thes 5:1-6 | Mt 25:14-30

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

I'm bemused by the servant in today's Gospel who basically buries the single talent that was entrusted to him. (A talent was an ancient measuring unit of weight for silver and gold.) Meanwhile, the other two wisely invested the talents entrusted to them, and doubled their money. Building on last week's Gospel which showed those who were prepared to meet the bridegroom were invited into the wedding feast, this parable challenges us to realize that the invitation to the feast is the beginning, not the end. We are not to rest comfortably with what we have been given – the gift of faith – but to invest in the Kingdom, and to build on that gift of faith. For example, we may have a palpable experience of God's presence at a retreat or through Eucharistic adoration. However, if that goes no further than being buried as a memory or feel-good experience, we are no better than the wicked, lazy servant. Faith is a gift intended to be put into practice and shared. When we invest in it through the sacraments, serving others, and reading the Scriptures, our faith will continue to grow.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

So, I'm a bit of a hoarder. I cling to mementoes of days past, whether it's my son's first plastic Playskool vacuum (sold at a garage sale by my husband, but that's another story), a book given to me by a friend, or a treasured letter. I admit I relate to the servant who buried his money for fear he'd lose it. Sometimes I think I cling to memories – relationships and experiences that are important to me – and fail to invest in what makes those memories valuable. A similar dynamic can happen with our faith and our friendship with Jesus. We can go through the motions without giving it much thought. Today's Gospel challenges us to seek opportunities to grow in our faith and “make new memories” with Jesus – to invest in building the kingdom of God, whether that's inviting a friend to Mass, returning to the Eucharist ourselves, or spending more time with Scripture. By putting our faith into action in this way, we cannot only grow in our faith, but invite others to come along with us on the journey.

ENCOUNTER Find a Eucharistic adoration chapel near you and spend some time with Christ. Thank Jesus for the blessings in your life. Bring him your needs. Ask Jesus to give you his grace that you might grow in union with him.

November 2020

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Our diocese will soon take up the national collection for the Catholic Campaign for Human Development (CCHD). Your support for this collection brings change to people across the country and empowers those living in poverty to transform their communities into reflections of the Kingdom of God. In addition to making a national impact, we empower those living in poverty in our own diocese, because 25% of the funds we collect stay here.

For the past year, Justice United Seeking Transformation or JUST, Pensacola has been addressing issues concerning criminal justice reform and the poor condition of the public educational system in the Pensacola area. JUST Pensacola is an organization made up of 20 congregations, of which three are Catholic. A portion of their operating budget comes from a CCHD grant. In the spring, JUST Pensacola members met with state and local officials to address criminal justice reform, especially among juveniles through greater use of civil citations and to improve our schools through improved funding for early childhood learning opportunities. As they approach their second year, JUST Pensacola will continue to work with state and local officials on the areas mentioned and beyond.

A similar organization in the east end of our diocese is on track to seek CCHD funding beginning next year. Capitol Area Justice Ministry will be addressing the Social Justice concerns of the residents in the Tallahassee area.

Your support for this collection makes a difference for people living in poverty across the United States. Please prayerfully consider how you can help CCHD this year. For more information about the collection and the people it supports, visit www.usccb.org/cchd/collection.

Thank you for joining us to work for our brothers and sisters in the margins.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend William A. Wack, CSC
Bishop of Pensacola-Tallahassee
