LENTEN SOUP NIGHT 2021

For 15 years, Pastoral Council, Knights of Columbus, Council of Catholic Women, Music Ministry, Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion and Sacristans, Youth Ministry, and other ministry members hosted Lenten Soup Nights in the parish hall, warmly greeting parishioners with a hearty meal and opportunity for fellowship. Since we are unable to host the 16th Annual Lenten Soup Nights at COR this year due to ongoing health and safety concerns, we hope you will continue the tradition by sharing a Lenten meal with your families. There are many Lenten resources available online, which are useful for growing in faith and fellowship, and you might even develop a treasured family tradition. You are invited to attend Stations of the Cross in the Church each Friday during Lent at 7pm., beginning February 19 and ending March 26.

COUNCIL OF CATHOLIC WOMEN

CCW will be collecting donations after each Mass on Jan. 30/31 and Feb. 6/7 for their "Hugs for the Homeless" project. Members will be outside the church by the bell tower to collect the donations. Thank you for your help for the homeless.

WORLD DAY FOR CONSECRATED LIFE

World Day for Consecrated Life will be celebrated in the Church on February 2, 2021 and in parishes on the weekend of February 6/7, 2021. Please pray for all those who have made commitments in the consecrated life, and be sure to thank them on their special day. May they continue to be inspired by Jesus Christ and respond generously to God's gift of their vocation.

POPE FRANCIS HAS PROCLAIMED THIS YEAR AS THE “YEAR OF ST JOSEPH”

JOIN CHRIST OUR REDEEMER AS WE CONSECRATE OURSELVES AND OUR PARISH TO ST JOSEPH

The consecration begins on February 15th and goes for 33 days until March 19th.

This is a personal consecration that you will do as individuals or with your families. You may also do it with your own personal small group, at your convenience. On March 19th, The feast of St Joseph, Father will say mass and pray with all those attending the prayer of consecration.

What does it mean to consecrate yourself to St. Joseph?

~Well, it basically means that you acknowledge that he is your spiritual father, and you want to be like him. To show it, you entrust yourself entirely into his paternal care so that he can help you acquire his virtues and become holy. Total consecration to St. Joseph means you make a formal act of filial entrustment to your spiritual father so that he can take care of your spiritual well-being and lead you to God. The person who consecrates himself to St. Joseph wants to be as close to his or her spiritual father as possible, to the point of resembling him in virtue and holiness. Saint Joseph, in turn, will give those consecrated to him his undivided attention, protection, and guidance.

How do I consecrate myself to St. Joseph?

~You will need to purchase the book Consecration to St Joseph from the source of your choice, such as Amazon, www.shopmercy.org, or other Catholic sites. Order as soon as possible so you will receive it in time.

You will then follow the formula in the book. The reading and prayers take less than 10 minutes per day. There are guidelines if you want to do it as a group.

If you would like to be a part of a Flocknote group discussion, please go to

ChristOurRedeemer.flocknote.com/ConsecrationtoSt and join the group.

Please contact Michele McCormick with any questions.

Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Dt 18:15-20 | 1 Cor 7:32-35 | Mk 1:21-28

Written by
THE FAITHFUL

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

When was the last time you were “astonished” and “amazed”? Parents might point to the birth of their child. Space enthusiasts might recall Neil Armstrong’s walk on the moon. Perhaps we felt that sense of amazement the first time we saw the Grand Canyon or another natural wonder. For the people of Capernaum, Jesus had that effect. He taught with authority. He commanded an unclean spirit. In our modern society with the constant bombardment of news and social media, it can be easy to become numb to the wonder that surrounds us. Perhaps we think we’ve seen it all. Even Jesus and the words that turned ordinary people into extraordinary disciples of the early Church can be something we take for granted or only think about for 20 minutes on Sunday. Our Gospel challenges us to quiet the noise, and Paul encourages us to seek “adherence to the Lord without distraction.” Let us pray that the Lord rekindles our faith, so that we may hear his words again as if for the first time and engage ourselves anew in living according to his teachings.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

It is very hard to keep exciting news to ourselves. We have an innate desire to share important information and extraordinary events with those whom we love. It could be the call to parents to announce an engagement. Or perhaps telling a friend that you have landed a job or been accepted to college. While these milestones are significant, they pale in comparison to what Jesus has done for us. Through him, we have experienced God’s love, mercy, and redemption, not to mention the direction and means to attain a good life: on earth and with him forever in heaven. Why not share that Good News as well? We don’t have to stand on a street corner to be effective. We can simply let our faith lives enter our conversations, just as our work and other interests do. It could be as simple as, “our priest said something Sunday that really stuck with me,” or “I just finished a remarkable book about Dorothy Day.” As we begin to talk about our faith and listen to others share their insights, we not only grow closer to one another, but can grow in faith together.

WITNESS Today’s psalm struck a chord: “If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts.” Next Sunday, make a conscious effort to listen to the readings and music with an open heart (and ears). If something strikes you, consider sharing that with others – be it around the dinner table, on a walk with friends, or during a video call.
