Solemnity of Saints Peter and Paul

Today we celebrate the Solemnity of Saints Peter and Paul. They were martyred in Rome where they were preaching about the teachings of Jesus. "The Feast of the Holy Apostles Peter and Paul is at the same time a grateful memorial of the great witnesses of Jesus Christ and a solemn confession for the Church: one, holy, catholic and apostolic. It is first and foremost a feast of catholicity." (Pope Benedict XVI, June 29, 2005).

St. Augustine of Hippo wrote the following in a sermon: "Both apostles share the same feast day, for these two were one; and even though they suffered on different days, they were as one. Peter went first, and Paul followed. And so we celebrate this day made holy for us by the apostles' blood. Let us embrace what they believed, their life, their labors, their sufferings, their preaching, and their confession of faith."
