INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Today, Jesus tells us the cost of true discipleship — and it turns out, it's everything. We must reject the world in order to love God. What attachments are holding us back from the relationship we could have — we should have — with our Lord?

Pastor's Note – Cost of Discipleship

In today's Gospel, Jesus is setting a high standard for who can be his disciple. A disciple hates their family, carries their own cross, and renounces all possessions. To be a disciple of Jesus, you must prefer him above all relationships, all possessions, and be willing to struggle to follow him. With these requirements, it is a wonder that He has any disciples.

Being a Christian was never meant to be an easy thing. You can't accidentally be a disciple of Jesus; you must want to do it. That is why Jesus used the parable about the person building a tower; first, you must see if you have enough to finish before you start. A disciple must decide if they have the desire and ability to follow Jesus to the end.

I think the key to understanding Jesus' requirements is in our desires. We must desire to follow Jesus above everything else. A disciple will still have families and relationships, but these should not get in the way of our relationship with him. It does not mean that we won't have possessions, but rather that we are willing to give them up to follow Jesus. A disciple must be willing to let go of anything that is keeping us from following him.

Peace,
Fr. Larry

The Boy from Milan

This Week on Formed

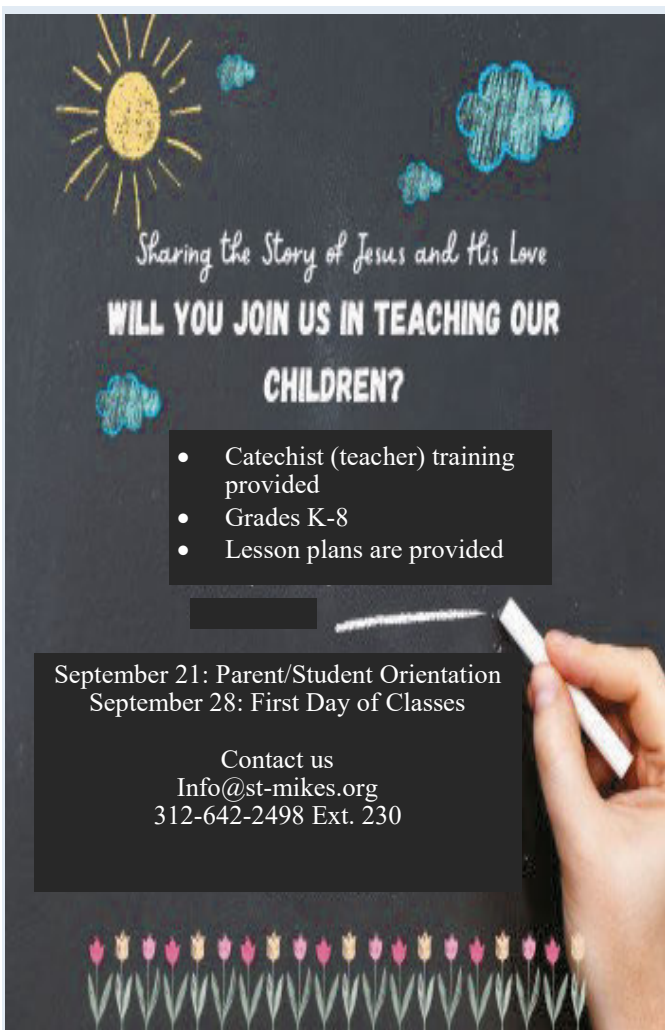

You may have heard of him, the sneaker-wearing, computer-loving "gamer saint" of our time. But beyond the headlines and hashtags, the real story of Carlo is something deeper, something the world desperately needs to hear. Known for his deep love of God, devotion to the Eucharist, and quiet acts of charity, Carlo's life was a testament to everyday holiness.

Carlo Acutis: God's Influencer

"God's Influencer" is a beautifully animated film that brings to life the inspiring story of Carlo Acutis, a modern teenager who used his passion for technology to share the Catholic faith with the world.

Calling All Teachers & Former Teachers!

We're looking for passionate educators (current or retired!) to adopt a classroom at the church's parish center and help transform our Sunday School spaces into inviting, engaging, and kid-friendly environments.

If you love decorating, organizing, and creating a warm, welcoming atmosphere for children to learn about God, this is a great opportunity to put your gifts to work!

What's Involved:

- Choose a classroom to "adopt"
- Help set it up like a real classroom—colorful, structured, and full of life!

Use your teacher's touch to make it a space where kids are excited to come and learn. Whether you've taught in schools or just have a heart for children's ministry, we'd love to have your help.

Interested? Reach out to  Emily Betz / ebet@st-mikes.org or sign up with a priest after Mass!

Let's build spaces where our kids can grow in faith, feel at home, and look forward to every Sunday.

INVITATION TO EXPLORE THE CATHOLIC FAITH

Join OCIA
(Order of Christian Initiation of Adults)
Saint Michael in Old Town

www.st-mikes.org

info@st-mikes.org

Discover Catholicism

Are you interested in learning more about the Catholic faith? Do you feel called to explore a deeper relationship with God within the Catholic Church? The Order of Christian Initiation of Adults (OCIA) is a welcoming process for adults who wish to inquire about Catholicism, prepare for the sacraments, or become full members of the Catholic Church.

What is OCIA?

OCIA is a journey of faith, prayer, and community. It is designed for:

- Adults who have never been baptized
- Christians baptized in another tradition who wish to become Catholic
- Baptized Catholics who have not received First Communion or Confirmation

Through OCIA, participants learn about Catholic beliefs, traditions, and practices, and are supported by a community of faith as they discern their spiritual path.

What to Expect

- Weekly Sessions: Gather with others to explore Scripture, Church teachings, and the meaning of the sacraments.
- Personal Reflection: Opportunities for prayer, discussion, and personal growth.
- Community Support: Sponsors and parish members accompany you on your journey.
- Sacramental Preparation: Guidance and preparation for Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist.

Who Can Join?

OCIA is open to all adults who are curious about Catholicism, regardless of background or previous religious experience. There is no obligation to join the Church—OCIA is a process of exploration and discernment.

How to Get Started

- Contact the parish office or OCIA coordinator to express your interest.
- Attend an initial inquiry session to learn more about the process.
- Meet others who are on a similar journey of faith.

Who Can Join?

If you feel drawn to explore Catholicism or are seeking a spiritual home, consider joining OCIA. All are welcome to inquire, learn, and grow in faith.

How to Get Started

- Do I have to commit to becoming Catholic to join OCIA? No. OCIA is a process of inquiry and discernment. Participation does not require a commitment to join the Church.
- How long does OCIA take? The process typically follows the liturgical year, culminating at Easter, but the timeline can be adapted to individual needs.
- Can I bring a friend or family member? Yes. Support from loved ones is encouraged.
