The Church Welcomes The Newly Baptized

William Paul Coleman
Son of Benjamin and Kathryn Coleman

The Parish wishes to congratulate the parents and godparents. We as a parish family pledge our support and prayers as they grow with us in living out the Christian message.

What is a Mass Intention? Remembering Loved Ones

Have you noticed that every Mass said here at St. Michael is offered for a special intention? The entire congregation prays for that intention during the petitions (Prayers of the Faithful) when we say, "For those whom have died, and for the intention of this Mass: (name of who the intention is for)."

Masses are often offered for family, friends, and relatives that have died. Praying for the dead is a Spiritual Work of Mercy. Offering a Mass for someone who has died is an especially comforting gesture to the family. Mass can also be offered to commemorate joyful occasions and to give thanks to God for blessings received.

The suggested offering for a Mass is $10 per intention. However, any amount that you would like to offer is acceptable. You may request a Mass intention by visiting the parish office during office hours or by calling 312-642-2498.

MISSION STATEMENT

St. Michael Parish, anchored in faith, rejoicing in hope, and burning with charity, nurtures a personal connection with God, and our surrounding community. Through our ministry, we seek to provide a sanctuary where all are welcome within our historic and inspiring church.

A Note From Fr. Michael's Desk

All Saints & All Souls: A Communion of Love That Has No End

This weekend, the Church invites us to hold joy and tenderness together. On All Saints Day, we celebrate every soul who has let God's love shine through them; the heroes of faith whose stories inspire us, and the quiet saints whose names may never appear in any book, but are written in Heaven. Holiness, after all, isn't perfection; it is love made visible. It's saying YES to God in the ordinary; in your family, your friendships, your work, your service here at St. Michael's and beyond.

Then on All Souls' Day, we remember those who have gone before us. Our parents, grandparents, friends, mentors, and all who rest in the great mercy of God. We light candles, whisper prayers, and remember that love doesn't end at the grave. Our faith tells us that the bond of love we share in Christ is stronger than death.

Together, these two feasts remind us of the great truth of our faith: that we belong to one another. St. Paul's letter to the Romans tells us, "For if we live, we live for the Lord, and if we die, we die for the Lord; so then, whether we live or die, we are the Lord's." The saints, souls, and all of us are still on a journey together.

Heaven and earth are not far apart; they meet every time we gather at the altar, every time we love as Christ loves us.

November 2, 2025
The Commemoration of
All the Faithful Departed
John 6:37-40

I lost my wallet this year. It was such an annoyance to replace everything in it. A friend, moved by sympathy, gave me a beautiful new one. One month later I lost that one, too, with all my newly replaced cards. No matter what I did, I couldn't find what I had lost. I resigned myself to never seeing either of my wallets again.

Fortunately, the Lord Jesus is not like me in this regard. In today's Gospel (John 6:37-40), he says, "This is the will of the one who sent me, that I should not lose anything of what he gave me." Jesus, unlike me, is ever vigilant with what the Father has given him. He searches for every lost soul — as the shepherd leaves the ninety-nine to pursue the one lost sheep, or the woman rejoices upon recovering a lost coin — and even descends to the depths of loss on the cross and into the realm of the dead to recover that which seems forever lost.

On All Souls' Day, as we remember our faithful departed, these words kindle a hope beyond hope in our hearts. Even the dead are not lost to Jesus, though they may seem so to us. Nothing entrusted to him by the Father is ever truly lost. So, we may hope that every soul, no matter how wandering or forgotten in life, is secure in his loving care and destined to be raised on the last day. Of what the Father gives him, he loses nothing.

Prayer for the Dead, Explained!

It may seem strange to pray for someone who is already dead and who, according to our earthly reckoning of time, has already undergone judgment. But God is not subject to the constrictions of time as we understand them. Our prayers for the dead are, like our prayers for the living, an expression of charity and the unity that exists between all members of the Body of Christ.

Prayer for the dead is a practice which not only predates Catholicism but predates Jesus Christ, as we see in the Second Book of Maccabees (2 Maccabees 12:42-45).

“By virtue of the ‘communion of saints,’ the Church commends the dead to God’s mercy and offers her prayers, especially the holy sacrifice of the Eucharist, on their behalf,” says the Catechism of the Catholic Church (CCC 1055).

The most common Catholic prayer for the dead is as follows: “Eternal rest grant unto them, o Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May the souls of the faithful departed rest in peace.”

National Vocation Awareness Week November 2-8

Through baptism, we are all called to a life of holiness. Each of us has a vocation. Each year the Church celebrates and honors men and women in religious communities with the World Day for Consecrated Life, and in a special way in this Year of Consecrated Life called for by Pope Francis. On this day, we give thanks for the women and men who have committed their lives to living and working in and through a religious community. They do so much good in the world. As the Holy Father has said, "the consecrated life appears to us just as it really is: a gift of God!"

For more information on vocations, please visit vocations@archchicago.org

Let us pray:
Good and gracious God who calls every man and woman to live a life of holiness, we give you praise for those men and women we call brothers or sisters. Grant them the wisdom to know and love you and to share that love with others. Grant more vocations to the Church through consecration to religious life. We ask all this in the name of Christ, your Son and our Lord. Amen.

Turkey Drive Underway!

The Human Concerns & Needs Commission annual Turkey & Hunger Relief Drive continues! This year, we hope that you will Sponsor a Family (or perhaps more than one).

We plan to deliver 200 $25 gift cards to the two Catholic food pantries, St. Malachy+Precious Blood on West Washington, and St. Agatha Pantry on West Douglas. Families should be able to get whatever protein they need for Thanksgiving, plus some of the side dishes that make us give thanks at Thanksgiving.

You can help make this happen by:

- ♦ Donating cash via the Mass collections (marked “Turkey Drive”) or use the QR code below.
- ♦ Purchasing $25 cards at Walmart, Target, or Jewel and dropping them in the collection basket at Mass.
- ♦ Using Raise-Right (article nearby in bulletin) to purchase gift cards (St. Michael’s receives a %age in cash on every gift card you buy – at a $.29 cost to you, no matter how many cards!).

None of our parish projects could happen without you; St. Michael’s has done a lot to help the people in our community, and we plan to continue. Our ongoing thanks are also extended to the Knights of Columbus, who have supported our Turkey Drive for more than a decade. Thank you!

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

To live with Christ, we must die with him. But what does this mean? What does this look like in the ordinary life of a Christian? We must ask God for the wisdom to see our own crosses, so that we may carry them into the newness of life.
