The Spirit drove Jesus out into the desert,
and he remained in the desert for forty days, tempted by Satan.
He was among wild beasts, and the angels ministered to him.

BISHOPS ANNUAL APPEAL

We believe God is present throughout the Dallas Metroplex and miracles are happening every day, so it's only fitting that this year's theme for The Bishop's Annual Appeal is "Be the Miracle."

Bound by a common mission, our Diocese demonstrates loves for one another by helping to transform lives through our various diocesan ministries and programs supported each year by The Bishop's Annual Appeal.

- By contributing to the Appeal, you are helping raise necessary funds for Catholic education, social service ministries through Catholic Charities, pastoral ministries and the formation of priests and deacons.
- The Bishop's Appeal impacts the lives of thousands of people each year, and here are just a few examples of how your generosity helps the Catholic Diocese of Dallas:
- Assists in preparing a new generation of diocesan priests to serve us in our spiritual journey. Today, more than 70 seminarians are enrolled at Holy Trinity and Redemptoris Mater seminaries and the proceeds raised ensures all men who are considering a life of priestly ministry have a place to encourage their discernment.
- Supports youth ministry initiatives like The 635 and the Dallas Catholic Youth Conference.
- Helps more than 30,000 individuals across the Metroplex by providing meals for families in need, serving low-income senior citizens and helping the unemployed with career coaching.
- As you can see, a contribution to the Bishop's Appeal is an investment in the future of our Catholic faith community.

PERSONAS DE LA ALIANZA

La palabra que sobresale en las lecturas de hoy es la palabra "alianza". La fidelidad y la bondad de Dios nos sirven como ejemplo de cómo debemos vivir. En Génesis aparece el relato de Noé y de la alianza de Dios no sólo con las personas sino con la naturaleza. Las aguas purificadoras del diluvio nunca más descargarán su poder destructivo en toda la tierra otra vez. La señal, el recordatorio para Dios y la naturaleza, es el arco iris en el cielo.

El salmo nos recuerda esta compasión de Dios y le implora a Dios que se acuerde de nosotros, no por nuestra bondad, sino por la bondad de Dios y su fidelidad a la promesa. Dios nos muestra cómo ser buenos, no por decreto, sino dándonos el ejemplo.

LECTURAS DE HOY

Primera lectura — Dios estableció una alianza con Noé y sus hijos y les prometió que nunca más habría un diluvio devastador (Génesis 9:8-15).

Salmo — Tus sendas, Señor, son misericordia y lealtad, para los que guardan tu alianza (Salmo 25 [24]).

Segunda lectura — Aquella agua representaba el bautismo que ahora nos salva (1 Pedro 3:18-22).

Evangelio — Después de los cuarenta días en el desierto, Jesús viene a Galilea proclamando el Evangelio de Dios (Marcos 1:12-15).

Safe Environment

All volunteers are required to complete these 5 steps prior to service:

Complete Diocesan Online screening form
Read sign and return to the office the following documents:

- Diocese Safe Environment Program Policy (February 2011)
- Diocese Policy of Sexual Misconduct (December 2010)
- Diocese Social Media Policy (August 2016)
- Complete and submit a Ministry Volunteer Form to the parish office
- Complete and submit a Parish Registration Form to the parish office.
- Schedule an Interview with the Safety Officer.

Normally, in order to be eligible to volunteer within the parish, you must be a registered parishioner for a minimum of 6 months. Please contact the Safety Officer should you have any questions at 972-542-4667 ext. 102

GOOD QUESTION

Winston Churchill loved to tell the story of the little boy who fell off a pier into deep ocean water. An older sailor, heedless of the danger to himself dove into the stormy water, struggled with the boy, and finally, exhausted brought the boy to safety. Two days later the boy's mother came with him to the same pier, seeking the sailor who rescued her son. Finding him, she asked, "You dove into the ocean to bring my boy out?"

"I did," he replied.

The mother quickly demanded, "Then where's his hat?"

RCIA Questions

What are the Scrutinies?

These Rites are celebrated to help deliver the elect from the power of sin and Satan, to protect them against temptation, and to give them strength in Christ, who is the Way, the Truth, and the Life (RCIA 141). The Rites of Scrutiny are meant to uncover, and then heal, all that is weak, defective, or sinful in the elects' hearts and to bring out through repentance all that is upright, strong, and good. Three Scrutinies are celebrated in the parish community on the Sundays of Lent, after the homily. The Scripture readings for the Scrutinies ordinarily come from Cycle A of the Lectionary: the Gospel story of the Samaritan woman at the well for the 1st Scrutiny, the Gospel story of the healing of the man born blind for the 2nd Scrutiny, and the Gospel story of the raising of Lazarus for the 3rd Scrutiny. The celebrations of the Scrutinies also remind the whole parish community of the need to reflect on their own sins and the need for God's help.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — God's covenant with Noah when he was delivered from the flood (Genesis 9:8-15).

Psalms — Your ways, O Lord, are love and truth to those who keep your covenant (Psalm 25).

Second Reading — The water of the flood prefigured baptism, which saves you now (1 Peter 3:18-22).

Gospel — This is the time of fulfillment. The kingdom of God is at hand (Mark 1:12-15).

First Sunday of Lent Clear Conscience

Usually, the first reading has something in common with the gospel. Today's however, has more in common with the second reading from St. Peter. They both talk about Noah and the ark, where the few good people were saved by going through the water. Peter compares that to the waters of Baptism, in which we are saved by God. He also has an interesting image of Jesus "preaching to the spirits in prison." It refers to the fallen angels whose disobedience led the rest of the population to turn away from God. Just as God washed away the evil of the world in the waters of the flood, so the waters of Baptism made us into a new people who have clear consciences, both because God has forgiven our sins and because we promise to follow only Him.

That leads to the Gospel, where Jesus is tempted by Satan. But unlike the people of Noah's time, Jesus does not fall to the temptations. Instead, he comes out of the desert, proclaiming that the Kingdom of God is near. He tells us to repent and believe in the good news.

That means we have a choice to make: Do we accept this kingdom and repent, or do we ignore our baptism and do what we want? We may say that we are willing to repent, but do we do anything about it? Do we still have a clear conscience when we think of how much time we spend getting to know Jesus? Ever pray or read the bible outside of church? Do we spend near as much on the poor, as we do for movies, hobbies, video games, or drinks? Do we ever tell anyone about the kingdom and what Jesus has done for us?

Next time you see a rainbow, think about the covenant that God made with Noah. Just as God's promises get better and better till the coming of Jesus, we are challenged to be more and more like Him. Are you satisfied with just a promise that God won't destroy us all in a flood? Or are you ready to live the New Covenant that Jesus promises to those who will follow him?

First Sunday of Lent

Today we begin the season of Lent. Like Advent, it is a season of preparation. During Advent, we prepared for a joyous celebration of the birth of Jesus. During Lent we prepare for our celebration of renewal in Holy Week when we recall Jesus' agonizing, lonely death and unexpected (to his disciples) resurrection. The reading from Genesis today reminds us of what it is like to lose almost everything and then to have it restored to us. Peter takes the flood that destroyed the earth and its creatures and transforms it into the baptism by water that saves each one of us. Mark tells us that even Jesus was given forty days to prepare, not in a flood but in a desert, for what was to be asked of him. So we begin this Sunday by being reminded of the importance of preparation and that it takes many forms. Whatever form our preparation takes, we must begin.

THOUGHTFUL

Alexander the Great once came upon Diogenes, the philosopher, looking intently at a heap of human bones. Alexander asked him, "What are you looking for?" Diogenes answered: "Something I cannot find." "And what is that?" asked Alexander. The philosopher replied, "The difference between your father's bones and those of his slaves."

A THOUGHT

A few years back a book entitled I'm OK., You're OK, was a best seller. A priest gave a sermon using the theme from the book. After the sermon he asked a visiting priest waiting in the sacristy what he thought of the sermon. The visiting priest said, "I couldn't help imagining Jesus as he hung from the cross looking down and saying to his mother and St John: "If I'm OK and you're OK then what am I doing up here?"

NO ESTAMOS SOLOS

Empezamos la Cuaresma con fuertes contrastes entre la vida y la muerte, el bien y el mal, el agua y el desierto. La respuesta de Dios es igualmente fuerte. La alianza de Dios es con cada uno y con todo. Nada está fuera del alcance del amor de Dios. La alianza de Dios no tiene límites. Hoy empezamos nuestro camino de preparación, pero no estamos solos. Sin embargo, elegimos usar este tiempo para prepararnos para la muerte y resurrección que están por venir, estamos acompañados por el mismo Espíritu que lo forzó a Noé a construir el Arca para preservar la vida en la Tierra. Estamos acompañados por el mismo Espíritu que llevó a Jesús al desierto para enfrentar la tentación. Es ese Espíritu que hace posible nuestro camino por la Cuaresma. ¿Quién podría enfrentar solo ese diluvio de tentación? Nadie, ni siquiera Jesús, así como escucharemos durante la Semana Santa, enfrenta solo la muerte.
