MARCH
25 2018

Christ became obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross.

Because of this, God greatly exalted him
and bestowed on him the name which is above every name.

Christ Renews His Parish Retreat
Weekend

Women's Weekend: April 7 - 8,
2018

Christ Renews

What is CRHP?

Christ Renews His Parish (CRHP) is a process designed to bring members of a parish together in Christ. It emphasizes continued growth in your Christian life and in your daily contact with others. The weekend offers an excellent opportunity to move away from regular activities and commitments to be spiritually and personally enriched in a friendly, relaxing, yet highly stimulating environment.

About the Weekend

Overview

The weekend is an opportunity to hear presentations of personal stories and discuss how Catholics function in our modern, complex, and fast-paced society. The renewal weekend provides an opportunity for individual and spiritual growth through prayer and personal reflection. You'll share conversation and thoughts (as much or as little as you desire) with others in the parish who are challenged as you are with the many demands of everyday life. Each CRHP weekend is conducted at the parish by a team of parishioners who attended a previous weekend. The weekend begins at 7:00am on Saturday and ends at 4:45pm on Sunday.

Sleeping Arrangements

Sleeping accommodations are in the classroom building. You are asked to bring your own air mattress or cot, sleeping bag and pillow, or other bedding. You will also need to bring your own towel, soap and other toiletries.

Meals

The St. Michael community provides meals. There are also regular breaks for coffee, soft drinks, and snacks. If there are special dietary needs please let us know. We will do our best to accommodate.

Cost

Nothing! However, donations are Welcomed to help defray the cost of the weekend.

MINISTRY TO THE HOMEBOUND

This beautiful ministry to the special ones who cannot attend Mass with us, is an act of the corporal works of mercy. We need ministers to be trained in this ministry. Please send your request to deaconsid@stmichaelmckinney.org or call 972-542-4667 ext 101

TRUE SELF/FALSE SELF

Merton's whole spirituality, in one way or another, pivots on the question of ultimate human identity. Merton's message is that we are one with God. Our own deepest self is one with the "Risen and Deathless Christ in Whom all are fulfilled in One." [1]

Along the journey to God, the self that begins is not the self that arrives. At the outset, our self is who we thought ourselves to be. This self dies along the way until in the end "no one" is left. This "no one" is our true self. It is the self that stands prior to all that is this or that. It is the self in God, the self bigger than death yet born of death. It is the self God forever loves.

Merton doesn't question the reality and importance of the empirical self we call our personality. We must deeply respect our whole person, including the day-by-day realities of life and the self that is formed by them. What Merton does say, however, is that when the relative identity of the ego is taken to be my deepest and only identity, when I am thought to be nothing but the sum total of all my relationships, when I cling to this self and make it the center around which and for which I live, I then make my empirical identity into the false self. My own self then becomes the obstacle to realizing my true self.

The true self is our whole self before God, the self we were created to become, our self in Christ. It is the self that breathes, that stands and sits. It is the self that is. The true self, being simple like God, can be realized only in the mode of simple, contemplative awareness.

The whole of the spiritual life finds its fulfillment in bringing our entire life into a transforming, loving communion with the ineffable God. Such a communion is beyond what words can say, but a prayerful, respectful pursuit of Merton's understanding of the true self can bring us to the brink of the insight into our own ultimate identity as radically one with God in Christ. This insight, which is itself a gift, will provide us with the unifying vision that is expressed not only in Merton but in all the great mystical traditions.
