LIVE THE LITURGY VIVIR LA LITURGIA

“Father, they are your gift to me.” This is what Christ says of his disciples. It is what he says of us. “I wish that where I am, they also may be with me.” Do we have the courage to be where Christ is? Can we be the gift?

“Padre, ellos son tu regalo para mí”. Esto es lo que Cristo dice de sus discípulos. Es lo que dice de nosotros. “Deseo que donde yo estoy, ellos también estén conmigo”. ¿Tenemos el valor de estar donde está Cristo? ¿Podemos ser el regalo?

Pope Francis on Sunday's Gospel El Papa Francisco acerca el Evangelio de este domingo

Before departing from his friends, Jesus, referring to the event of his death and Resurrection, said to them: “You are witnesses of these things” (v. 48). In other words the disciples, the Apostles, were witnesses of the death and Resurrection of Christ, on that day, also of the Ascension of Christ. In fact, after seeing their Lord ascend into heaven, the disciples returned to the city as witnesses joyfully proclaiming to all the new life which comes from the Crucified and Risen One, in whose name “repentance and forgiveness of sins should be preached to all nations” (cf. v. 47). This is the witness born not only with words but with everyday life — the witness that every Sunday should flow from our churches so as to enter during the week into homes, offices, schools, meeting and recreational places, hospitals, prisons, homes for the elderly, in places crowded with immigrants, in the peripheries of the city.... We must bear this witness every week: Christ is with us: Jesus rose to heaven, he is with us: Christ lives!

Antes de separarse de sus amigos, Jesús, refiriéndose al evento de su muerte y resurrección, les había dicho: «Vosotros sois testigos de estas cosas» (v. 48). Es decir, los discípulos son testigos de la muerte y de la resurrección de Cristo, ese día, también de la Ascensión de Cristo. Y, en efecto, después de haber visto a su Señor subir al cielo, los discípulos regresaron a la ciudad como testigos que con gozo anuncian a todos la vida nueva que viene del Crucificado resucitado, en cuyo nombre «se predicarán a todos los pueblos la conversión y el perdón de los pecados» (v. 47). Este es el testimonio —hecho no sólo de palabras sino también con la vida cotidiana, el testimonio que cada domingo debería salir de nuestras iglesias para entrar durante la semana en las casas, en las oficinas, en la escuela, en los lugares de encuentro y de diversión, en los hospitales, en las cárceles, en las casas para ancianos, en los lugares llenos de inmigrantes, en las periferias de la ciudad... Este testimonio nosotros debemos llevarlo cada semana: ¡Cristo está con nosotros; Jesús subió al cielo, está con nosotros; Cristo está vivo!

What is Lectio Divina, and how is it connected to St. Benedict, honored on July 11?

¿Qué es la Lectio Divina y cómo se relaciona con San Benito, a quien honramos el 11 de julio?

Lectio Divina—Latin for “divine reading” is an ancient method of prayerful Scripture reading that developed within the Benedictine monastic tradition. St. Benedict, whose feast day is July 11, encouraged his monks to live a balanced life of prayer, work, and reflection on the Word of God.

From this rhythm of life, the practice of Lectio Divina was born. It involves reading a Scripture passage slowly and thoughtfully, listening for a word or phrase that stands out, reflecting on its meaning in your life, and responding to how God may be calling you to act.

There are many variations, but it typically follows four stages: reading (lectio), meditation (meditatio), prayer (oratio), and contemplation (contemplatio). Practicing Lectio Divina helps deepen your relationship with God by allowing Scripture to speak personally to your heart.

Lectio Divina, que significa “lectura divina”, es un método antiguo de lectura orante de la Escritura que surgió dentro de la tradición monástica benedictina. San Benito, cuyo día celebramos el 11 de julio, enseñaba a sus monjes a vivir en equilibrio entre la oración, el trabajo y la meditación de la Palabra de Dios.

De esa vida comunitaria nació la Lectio Divina: un proceso para leer lentamente un pasaje bíblico, identificar una palabra o frase que resuene, reflexionar sobre su significado en tu vida, y responder a lo que Dios te pide.

Aunque existen variaciones, suele seguir cuatro pasos: lectura (lectio), meditación (meditatio), oración (oratio) y contemplación (contemplatio). Esta práctica te ayuda a profundizar tu relación con Dios y a vivir la Palabra de manera más personal.
