LIVE THE LITURGY VIVIR LA LITURGIA

Today, Jesus tells us the cost of true discipleship, and it turns out, it's everything. We must reject the world in order to love God. What attachments are holding us back from the relationship we could have, we should have, with our Lord?

Hoy, Jesús nos dice el costo del verdadero discipulado, y resulta que lo es todo. Debemos rechazar el mundo para amar a Dios. ¿Qué apegos nos están impidiendo la relación que podríamos tener, deberíamos tener, con nuestro Señor?

Church Fathers & Saints on This Weekend's Gospel Padres de la Iglesia y Santos acerca el Evangelio de Este Fin de Semana

St. Cyril of Alexandria explains that following Christ requires total commitment:

"He lays down for us the way of salvation: not to love relatives or even our own life more than Christ. For He must hold the highest place in our hearts, since He is Life itself. To prefer anything above Him is to lose what is truly life."

San Cirilo de Alejandría explica que seguir a Cristo exige un compromiso total:

"Él nos señala el camino de la salvación: no amar a los parientes ni siquiera nuestra propia vida más que a Cristo. Porque Él debe tener el primer lugar en nuestros corazones, ya que Él es la Vida misma. Preferir cualquier cosa antes que a Él es perder lo que verdaderamente es la vida."

St. John Chrysostom reflects on taking up the cross:

"To carry the cross is to endure all things—affliction, trial, persecution—for the love of Christ. This is not a command to seek suffering, but to accept it with faith when it comes. By this we become true disciples."

San Juan Crisóstomo reflexiona sobre cargar la cruz:

"Cargar la cruz es soportar todas las cosas—aflicción, prueba, persecución—por amor a Cristo. No es un mandato de buscar el sufrimiento, sino de aceptarlo con fe cuando llegue. Así nos convertimos en verdaderos discípulos."

Together, the Fathers remind us that discipleship has a cost: it means placing Christ above all things, and carrying the cross with Him. But the reward is life with God, which surpasses all earthly possessions.

En conjunto, los Padres nos recuerdan que el discipulado tiene un costo: significa poner a Cristo por encima de todo y cargar la cruz con Él. Pero la recompensa es la vida con Dios, que supera todos los bienes terrenales.

Why do we change Mass parts?

¿Por qué cambiamos las partes de la Misa?

The Mass parts refer to the Mass Ordinary, the texts that remain the same at every Mass: Kyrie, Gloria, Sanctus (Holy, Holy), Memorial Acclamation, Great Amen, and Agnus Dei. The Our Father and Creed are also part of the Mass Ordinary, though less often sung. There are many musical settings, each giving a distinct character.

The Church year has six Liturgical Seasons—Advent, Christmas, Lent, the Sacred Paschal Triduum, Easter, and Ordinary Time—each with its own character and themes. Christmas and Easter are festive, while Advent and Lent are more solemn: Advent with anticipation, Lent with penance.

We change Mass parts to reflect the seasons and let each setting support the spirit of the time. At St. Michael, we use Missa de Angelis during Christmas and Eastertide, preceded by a simpler chant in English or Latin during Advent and Lent. In Ordinary Time, we use Peter Latona's Mass of the Immaculate Conception with the Gloria from A New Mass for Congregations by Carroll Thomas Andrews.

Beginning September 7th at 7:30 a.m. and 11:30 a.m.

Masses, the Gloria will be sung in Latin. A teaching video has been prepared for parishioners' convenience; simply scan the QR code or visit the Music Ministry website.

Las partes de la Misa se refieren al Ordinario de la Misa, los textos que permanecen iguales en cada celebración: Kyrie, Gloria, Sanctus (Santo, Santo), Aclamación Memorial, Gran Amén y Cordero de Dios. El Padre Nuestro y el Credo también forman parte del Ordinario, aunque se cantan con menos frecuencia. Existen muchos arreglos musicales, cada uno con un carácter distinto.

El año litúrgico tiene seis tiempos: Adviento, Navidad, Cuaresma, Triduo Pascual, Pascua y Tiempo Ordinario, cada uno con su propio carácter y temas. Navidad y Pascua son festivos, mientras que Adviento y Cuaresma son más solemnes: Adviento con anticipación, Cuaresma con penitencia.

Cambiamos las partes de la Misa para reflejar las estaciones litúrgicas y permitir que cada arreglo exprese el espíritu propio de ese tiempo. En San Miguel, usamos la Missa de Angelis en Navidad y Tiempo Pascual, precedida por un canto más sencillo en inglés o en latín durante Adviento y Cuaresma. En Tiempo Ordinario, usamos la Misa de la Inmaculada Concepción de Peter Latona con el Gloria de A New Mass for Congregations de Carroll Thomas Andrews.

A partir del 7 de septiembre en las Misas de 7:30 a.m. y 11:30 a.m., el Gloria se cantará en latín. Se ha preparado un video didáctico para la conveniencia de los feligreses; simplemente escanee el código QR o visite la página del Ministerio de Música

What Happens if a Host is Dropped?

¿Qué sucede si a alguien se le cae una Hostia Consagrada?

When a host is dropped or the Precious Blood is spilled, we can take guidance from the U.S. Bishops' statement Norms for the Distribution for Holy Communion Under Both Kinds: All ministers of Holy Communion should show the greatest reverence for the Most Holy Eucharist by their demeanor, their attire, and the manner in which they handle the consecrated bread or wine. Should there be any mishap — as when, for example, the consecrated wine is spilled from the chalice — then the affected "area . . . should be washed with water, and this water should be then poured into the sacrarium."

According to no. 280 of the General Instruction of the Roman Missal, the general rule is that a dropped host is picked up by the minister distributing Communion and reverently consumed. The minister should be careful to make sure that no other particles from the host remain on the ground. As we see in the instruction from the bishops, the Precious Blood would be absorbed (customarily with a purificator) and the area attentively and reverently washed with water which would then be disposed of properly.

Cuando se deja caer una hostia o se derrama la Preciosa Sangre, podemos guiarnos por las Normas para la Distribución de la Sagrada Comunión de los Obispos de los Estados Unidos bajo Ambos Tipos: Todos los ministros de la Santa Comunión deben mostrar la mayor reverencia por la Santísima Eucaristía con su comportamiento, su vestimenta y la manera en que manejan el pan o el vino consagrado. En caso de que ocurra algún percance, como cuando, por ejemplo, el vino consagrado se derrama del cáliz, entonces el "área afectada . . . debe lavarse con agua, y esta agua debe ser vertida en el sagrario".

Según el n. 280 de la Instrucción General del Misal Romano, la regla general es que una hostia caída es recogida por el ministro que distribuye la Comunión y consumida con reverencia. El ministro debe tener cuidado de asegurarse de que no queden otras partículas de la hostia en el suelo. Como vemos en la instrucción de los obispos, la Preciosa Sangre sería absorbida (usualmente con un purificador) y el área sería lavada cuidadosa y reverentemente con agua que luego sería desechada adecuadamente.

"Before I
formed you in the womb
I knew you."
