The Altar of Remembrance

We invite you to spend time in Our Lady's Altar during the month of November praying with the "cloud of witnesses" represented in photographs of our parish's beloved faithful departed, and to bring photos of your own loved ones to adorn this special place.

Liturgy Notes

Tonight's readings come from the Lectionary for Masses for the Dead. The prayers and scriptures of this solemnity contain many layers. For some of us, grief is recent and tender, and the memory of a loved one may be at the very center of our hearts. For others, the words of Wisdom or Romans may speak to a longing to be shaped beyond our fragile "feet of clay," into the fullness of our baptismal promise. Wherever you find yourself on the journey - in sorrow, in remembrance, or in hope - know that our God holds you close in His boundless love.

We invite you to engage all of your senses this evening: notice the symbols around our space that speak to the juxtaposition of life, death, and resurrection: redwood saplings emerging from the sanctuary floor, vibrant flowers in full bloom, and charred manzanita branches salvaged from wildfire. Each of them express this paradox we experience in our faith and our lives between loss and new creation.

Our Liturgical Environment Committee also encourages you to spend time at the Altar of Remembrance inside Mary's Altar. Here, the images of our beloved faithful departed gather around us as a great cloud of witnesses - companions in the communion of saints - pointing us toward the promise of resurrection and the hope that endures.

Notes from the Conductor

This evening's Requiem comes from the pen of Bob Chilcott, one of the 21st century's most widely performed choral composers. A former chorister and choral scholar at King's College, Cambridge, and later a member of The King's Singers, Chilcott has spent his life creating music that is joyful to sing and deeply communicative. His Requiem, written for soprano and tenor soloists, chorus, and orchestra, draws on texts from both the Missa pro defunctis and the Book of Common Prayer. In it, he brings familiar words of faith and mourning into a world of sound that feels unmistakably human: solemn, radiant, grieving, and hopeful all at once.

I first encountered this work about fifteen years ago while singing with a small volunteer chamber ensemble in New Jersey called PhiloMusica. From the first rehearsal, I was moved by how gently the music seemed to hold space for loss. The opening Introit begins with a quiet, steady pulse, almost like a heartbeat, inviting stillness rather than sorrow. As the piece unfolds, the Pie Jesu rises like a slow unfolding of wings, carrying us through the earliest, most fragile moments of grief. Then, without warning, the Sanctus and Benedictus burst forth in a wave of sound, full of urgency and fire, giving voice to all the harder emotions we often keep tucked away: fear, anger, longing.

And yet, by the time we reach Thou Knowest, Lord, we find ourselves standing on steadier ground. In this simple setting, peace and faith quietly emerge; the storm has passed. The work closes with words that speak for all who have ever searched for light in the dark:

"I believe in the Sun, even when it's not shining.
I believe in Love, even when I feel it not.
I believe in God, even when He is silent."

My hope is that this music, offered in remembrance of our beloved departed, will bring you the same comfort it has brought me. May this Requiem help us find peace in the presence of God's quiet, enduring light.

Patrick Hagen, Director of Parish Music Ministry

Profession of Faith

Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,

and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried;
he descended into hell;
on the third day he rose again from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty;
from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body,
and life everlasting. Amen

Prayer of the Faithful

R: Hear our prayer.

A Prayer for Spiritual Communion

Dear Jesus,

We believe that you are fully present
in the bread that is blessed and broken and the wine that is blessed and poured out in the sacrament of the Eucharist.

Thank you for making us a part of you,
the mystical Body of Christ, the Church.

Renew in us your sacrificial presence, and let us be united with you at this moment, so that,
in all our thoughts, words and actions
we may represent you, and love others as you love us.

Amen.

Agnus Dei

Bob Chilcott

Sidney Ragland, soloist

*Agnus Dei,
qui tollis peccata mundi,
dona eis requiem, sempiternam requiem.*

*O Lamb of God,
that takest away the sins of the world,
grant them rest, eternal rest.*

Communion Procession

Thou Knowest, Lord

Bob Chilcott

Thou knowest, Lord, the secrets of our hearts; shut not thy merciful ears to our prayer, but spare us, Lord most holy, O God most mighty, O holy and merciful Saviour, thou most worthy judge eternal, suffer us not, at our last hour, for any pains of death, to fall from thee.

Lux Aeterna

Bob Chilcott

Celesti'anna Jordan, soloist
Sidney Ragland, soloist

*Lux aeterna luceat eis, Domine:
Cum sanctis tuis in aeternum:
quia pius es.
Requiem aeternam dona eis, Domine,
et lux perpetua luceat eis.
Requiem aeternam.*

*Eternal light shine upon them, O Lord,
with thy saints for ever,
for thou art good.
Grant them eternal rest, O Lord,
and light perpetual shine on them.
Eternal rest.*

Prayer of Commendation and Blessing

Presider: Let us together commend our beloved to God once more.

Assembly: Into your hands, Father of mercies,
we commend our brothers and sisters
in the sure and certain hope that, together with all who have died in Christ,
they will rise with him on the last day.

We give you thanks for the blessings
which you bestowed upon them in this life
they are signs to us of your goodness and of our fellowship with the saints in Christ.

Merciful Lord,
turn toward us and listen to our prayers:
open the gates of paradise to your servants
and help us who remain
to comfort one another with assurances of faith,
until we all meet in Christ
and are with you and with our dearly departed for ever.
We ask this through Christ our Lord.
Amen.

Presider: Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord.

Assembly: And let perpetual light shine upon them.

Presider: May they rest in peace,

Assembly: Amen.

Presider: May their souls and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace.

Assembly: Amen.

Presider: And may almighty God bless you + the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit.

Assembly: Amen.

Presider: Go in peace, glorifying the Lord by your life.

Assembly: Thanks be to God.

Presider: We conclude our worship, and go forth in the hope of the Resurrection.
