Today's Gospel Reflection

FIRST READING: Exodus 24:3-8

SECOND READING: Hebrews 9:11-15

GOSPEL: Mark 14:12-16, 22-26

Why are you eating someone's body and drinking his blood? You walk up the aisle and receive what appears to be bread and wine, but which is, according to your beliefs, Christ's Body and Blood. The answer is found in the word "sacrifice."

Think of it this way: send the best of earth to heaven in so that the best of heaven could come down to earth. A uniting of heaven and earth. Often, the people ate the flesh and drank the blood of their offering in order to include themselves as an integral part of this "sacrifice." This desire to be at one with the gods, at one with the gifts and good things, is lodged deep in human culture and human nature.

So the One God, in the fullness of time, gave His people a connection with the real God—for whom they had been longing. He did this through sacrifice. But He reversed the order of things by sending His own self to be sacrificed.

Notice the difference. Send the best of heaven to earth in order that the best of earth can go up to heaven (Christ on the cross). Christ came from heaven but was of the earth, and so He achieved for us the perfect unity of heaven and earth.

On the night before He suffered He gave them sacramental signs of what would be fulfilled the next day: He handed them His body and blood, under the appearance of bread and wine. He told them to consume it. It thus became a re-presentation for all time of the bloody sacrifice on the cross, now in an unbloody form. All we have to do is to take part in it.

So the answer to the question with which we began is that you and I eat His body and drink His blood in order to take part in Christ's sacrifice. It is a sacramental way to join in Christ's sacrificial action: the new and eternal covenant. Our salvation!

ST. JUDE MISSION STATEMENT

We, the community of St. Jude, commit ourselves to Jesus Christ our Savior, His teachings and the Tradition of the Roman Catholic Church. With the guidance of the Holy Spirit, we embrace and nurture our culturally diverse community through worship, evangelization, renewal and service.

St. Jude Catholic Church now accepts electronic donations Give Electronically

Checking/Savings ♦ Credit/Debit Card Participate Today

Electronic Giving is a convenient way to provide consistent financial support to our church. Please contact the church office to learn how you can participate. Or sign up online: visit our parish website at www.stjudehawaii.org and click on the "Online Giving" button on the right panel.

For your convenience, volunteers will be available 15 minutes before and after Mass to process donations on the weekends.

To further enhance our services, we also have the attached barcode. Just scan this barcode-like QR code image with a smartphone's QR decoder, and it will instantly connect you to the mobile version of your web page, providing you a quick and easy access to your web page, without having to type out a long web address in order to locate your link.

LET'S TAKE A MOMENT... By Tere Hunt

Edition #23

Jesus came to earth to save the fallen. Even though this occurred eternities ago, nothing has changed. Jesus came to save the lost and bring them home to the Lord. He is the same as He was. He will still find us and save us when we are in peril. Find comfort in knowing you have a personal savior, and that should make you feel a whole lot better. Experiencing turmoil leads to apprehension because you no longer have any clue what to do or where to go in your life. "So do not fear for I am with you; do not be dismayed, for I am your God. I will strengthen you and help you; I will uphold you with my righteous right hand." Isaiah 41:10 God reassures that you must not be afraid and discouraged for He will give you strength and solace. Even better, He will uplift you when you're broken. Remember, Jesus was human too. He understands our troubles, He went through them Himself. He saw the wickedness of the world with His own eyes. He felt the evil that took over the hearts of men. So God understands what you're feeling. He recognizes your dilemma. For God to help you, cry out to Him and articulate your conflicts. Pray to Him. Ask for His grace, and He will release your heart from anguish. It is one thing to feel confused, but do not turn away from God. Pray for God to find you. Dwell on Him. Frustration renders you to believe that you don't really deserve God's grace, or that the Lord has grown tired of you. There is no truth to that. God is patient and He does not judge you based on your faults. If you are lost, He will find you because He loves you!

Great stewardship sermon, Pastor. I'm going to increase my giving 100% - from $1 to $2!

TAKE THIS: EAT and DRINK!

We are a people who ritualize life's important events. We insist on birthday cakes; we dream about ostentatious weddings; we go over the top on Super Bowl Sunday. If certain rituals are not included in these celebrations, the profound meaning of the event seems compromised.

Today's readings speak of blood rituals. Since life is in the blood (see Leviticus 17:11), the meaning of the ritual is contained in the meaning of the blood. In the reading from Exodus, young bulls are sacrificed at the height of their virility. In this way, not only the life of the bulls, but their future of youthful strength, is offered to God who is the source of life. A visible sign of this offering—sacrificial blood—is sprinkled on the people signifying that, joined to the bulls through this blood, they too are offered to God. Furthermore, the sacrificial blood seals the covenant bond that joins the people of God. All of these elements are new in the Letter to the Hebrews. There is a new sacrificial victim, Christ. There's a new power in the blood—the ability to obtain eternal redemption, a New Covenant that promises an eternal inheritance. The Gospel reading describes how we might participate in this ritual and benefit from its wondrous power. The feast we celebrate today invites us to participate in the ritual it commemorates. Its sacrificial elements are rudimentary nourishments of life, bread and wine. They become the Body and Blood of Christ. All we have to do is draw near with faith, eat, and drink.

—Sr. Dianne Bergant, CSA

Reflection:

- ◆ The word Eucharist means "giving thanks." How grateful are you for the privilege to participate in this wondrous event?

Dear Padre,

Should extraordinary eucharistic ministers receive Communion before or after the congregation? In my home, guests are normally served first.

Fundamentally, we're all guests in the house of God at the gracious invitation of Jesus Christ! When the presider and ministers of Holy Communion gather in the sanctuary to consume, they affirm their belief in the Real Presence of Christ. Then, in service they proceed to distribute the Body and Blood of Christ to the faithful, and in rendering service to one another, the worshiping community forms a unified "body of Christ."

Therefore, according to the Norms for the Distribution and Reception of Holy Communion: "The practice of extraordinary ministers of Holy Communion waiting to receive Holy Communion after the distribution of Holy Communion is not in accord with liturgical law" (NDRHC 39). Essentially, then, these extraordinary ministers cannot give what they haven't already received.

The amount of time for ordinary and extraordinary ministers to receive Holy Communion need not be prolonged unnecessarily before others can partake. Despite logistical challenges, especially for the cantor and choir, the General Instruction of The Roman Missal advises, "While the priest is receiving the sacrament, the Communion chant is begun, its purpose being to express the spiritual union of the communicants by means of the unity of their voices, to show gladness of heart, and to bring out more clearly the 'communitarian' character of the procession to receive the Eucharist." (GIRM 86)

GROWING IN FAITH

Discovering Hope and Joy in the Catholic Faith

— Previous GROWING IN FAITH articles located in stjudehawaii.org —

The Catholic parish is a place of wonder and awe. It is in the arms of our parish that we experience God's love, and share it with others. Each parishioner is important to a parish, especially now. Consider these ideas to make a difference to yours:

TAKE YOUR PLACE. As pandemic restrictions ease around the country, you can once again take a seat at your parish table. You take it when you attend weekend Mass, seek peace from Sacraments such as the Sacrament of Reconciliation and Anointing of the Sick, and participate in parish ministries.

BOOST THE FAITH OF OTHERS. Even the strongest Catholics can sometimes falter in their faith. Look for opportunities to share Gospel values through your actions and words and you will strengthen the faith of those around you.

PRAY FOR YOUR PARISH. This is one of the most important contributions you can make. Join parish intentions to your own in daily prayer. Pray for parish ministries. Offer prayers for your priests and parish staff.

BUILD IT, SERVE IT, OR PAY FOR IT. When there is a need in the parish, don't wait for an invitation. Your parish family depends upon your efforts.

HELP IT GROW. Invite friends, coworkers, or neighbors to join you in worship. Your parish might be the spiritual home they've been searching for.
