Today's Gospel Reflection

First Reading: Jeremiah 20:7-9

Second Reading: Romans 12:1-2

Gospel: Matthew 16:21-27

Finding God

Does God want us to be happy? How could anyone answer "no?" How could anyone suppose God is good or loving if it is not true that He wants us to be happy?

And yet look at Christ's line in the Gospel reading. "Deny yourself," Jesus tells his faithful followers; "take up your cross and follow me."

Denying yourself seems the very opposite of going for happiness, and the cross is an instrument of torture. Why would God want these things for His people. Does God want us to be unhappy?

A man divorcing his unaccomplished, middle-aged, dowdy wife to marry a much younger, prettier, successful woman explained his decision to his devastated wife this way. "God wants us to be happy," he told her, "and I can't be happy with you. I will be happy with her."

It seems never to have crossed the mind of this husband that God might have any care for his wife's happiness. The husband's full view of the matter could be put this way: "God wants me to be happy, but God doesn't care at all about you."

This little story, common in its selfishness, shows the sickness of the post-fall human condition, so apt to privilege its own power or pleasure over any greater goods. We can't be happy in this condition, when we are glad enough to crush others to get what we want. What is to be done with us? What will make us happy? What will save us from the evil that infects us and leaves us so willing to afflict others?

This is where Christ's line comes in. The route to the happiness of God does want for us has to go through the cross of Christ. Christ is The Way for us, and the cross is where we meet Him for the road to our true happiness in love and holiness in Him.

—ATTENTION—

MINISTRY HEADS & PASTORAL COUNCIL MEMBERS

Announcements you wish posted in the Bulletin must be submitted to our Pastor, Fr. Khanh, weeks in advance or no later than 5PM TUESDAY afternoon if you wish the announcement posted by that weekend. Requests must be sent via email, NOT BY TEXT. Please indicate the exact information you want published. Staff will not be responsible for finishing incomplete details. Only announcements approved by Fr. Khanh will be posted. Email your request to: khoang@rcchawaii.org with cc's to thunt@rcchawaii.org and nmwheeler@rcchawaii.org. There will be NO exceptions to late entries. Mahalo!

—Important Message On behalf of our Cash Counters—

Aloha Parishioners! When you wish to be properly credited for your cash donations, we ask your kokua and highly encourage you do the following: Please put cash/coins inside envelopes and make sure to write the following outside the envelopes: Name, Address and/or Envelope Number. [Envelopes are available in the back of the church.] It really makes our collection duties very challenging if you claim that you donated cash and "dropped them in the offertory basket" since there is no written documentation. It is impossible for us to trace who actually gave the donations! More importantly, we cannot just issue a receipt or indicate a line item in your tax donation statement since there is virtually nothing for us to reconcile it with. As always, thank you for your understanding and continuous generosity.

Stewardship
a way of life

“What profit would there be for one to gain the whole world and forfeit his life?”

—Matthew 16:26

St. Francis of Assisi said, “Remember, you are what you are in the eyes of God, and nothing else.” We often forget this Stewardship wisdom when we spend all of our time, talent and treasure to gain more of the world’s riches. We need to set our priorities based on God’s values and not the values of the material world.

LET’S TAKE A MOMENT... By Tere Hunt

Edition #33

How do we reconcile the reality of the tragedy that shattered our neighboring island of Maui? Their once idyllic world has been upended, and even with already some three weeks since their holocaust, they are still discovering charred carcasses of abandoned loved ones. How do we hold on to the belief that God who is all-powerful, all-loving, all-knowing, allowed this inconceivable catastrophe to occur. So—was it arson? Or was it human error? No one in their right mind would deliberately admit or can unearth the exact source! It is so easy to just blame an errant fireball from space blew up the bowels of one particular tranquil island. Nevertheless, the aftermath has become considerably hopeful if not brighter. The tremendous expression of leadership that ascended among individuals, families, countries and even foreign nations, diverse and remote from each other swiftly displayed utmost kindness, compassion and charity—welcoming their homes, let squat in open fields, and business establishments provided food, clothing, shelter AND vital monetary assistance to the displaced inhabitants who have now unexpectedly become of equal unfortunate economic status. One way or another, we have all been affected, mobilized to bestow their share. And from those who were unable to offer financial sustenance, their flood of prayers and devotions was palpable. In the wake of adversity, humanity unleashed a spiritual renewal, the one act that Our Lord has constantly implored from His followers. “But if anyone has the world’s goods and sees his brother in need, yet closes his heart against him, how does God’s love abide in him?” (1 John 3:17) BLESS you and THANK you!

CALLED TO BE FAITHFUL

Somewhere in every life, along its twisting curving path, we find ourselves wondering if we would not be better off somewhere else doing different, as if with the flip of the channel we could live a parallel life. Except that changing life always is never that simple. And so we live on with our foibles and our insecurities. We make do for one more day in a job that is less than satisfying, or a relationship that is worn and fraying, or caring for aging parents as we juggle the needs of two households. In every niche of life, we may find ourselves dealing with difficult people, listening to other's woes, wondering if anyone cares. Like the prophet Jeremiah, we can feel we've been duped by the Lord God.

Whoever wishes to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake will find it.
—Matthew 16:25

We don't need to go looking for crosses. They come our way. And it is our crosses that allow us to save our lives by losing our lives. It is these very same lives from which we wish we could escape that brings us to holiness, if for no other reason than that we do struggle not to have our own way all the time. Spirituality has been defined as an inner set of values by which we live an outer set of circumstances. As people of faith, we try to do just that: to live in the style of Jesus. Somehow, it seems that God brings us to places we should be.

Reflect

What does it mean to be faithful in the circumstances of your life?

— Fr. Joseph Juknialis

Dear Padre

Are we supposed to pray a specific prayer after we genuflect and keel in the pew before we take our seats? What about after Communion?

There is no particular prayer to say when we genuflect, enter the pew, and kneel for a while. Genuflecting and kneeling are powerful expressions and prayers in themselves—we kneel only to God. But these gestures can become mere routine unless we accompany them with a moment of awareness and recollection and maybe a prayer like, "I adore you, O Christ, and I bless you, because by your holy cross you have redeemed the world."

Neither are there required prayers to say in the moments after holy Communion as we return to the pew. But this is a most special time. "Holy souls endeavor to remain as long as possible in prayer after Communion," wrote St. Alphonsus Liguori in The Holy Eucharist. "There is no prayer more agreeable to God, or more profitable to the soul, than that which is made during the thanksgiving after Communion." Eucharist is from the Greek eukharistia, which means "thanksgiving," and this is a time for giving thanks. We remain silently focused on the astonishing passion and affection of our Lord in giving Himself to us to eat and make part of ourselves. So much depends on awareness; so much depends on gratitude. Prayer books may help us enter a time of thanksgiving. But we can also say simply, "Jesus, I love you."

How can I avoid gossiping?

Q & A

Chatting with friends can become gossip—unfairly disclosing another's faults or sins without a valid reason, to people who don't know them (Catechism of the Catholic Church, #2477). Try these ideas when chatting becomes gossip:

Name it: A gentle reminder between friends is an act of kindness. Try, "I think we're edging into gossip; or "Oh, that's not kind!" It's better to risk speaking up than silently allowing sin.

Redirect the conversation: Highlight good qualities of the person about whom others are gossiping. Refocus on inspiring news, a good book you read—anything else that is "honorable...just...pure...pleasing (Philippians 4:8).

Leave: If nothing else works, excuse yourself and leave the conversation. You'll avoid becoming complicit to sin and wordlessly communicate that you find gossip unacceptable.

Pray: Sins of the tongue (gossip, slander, calumny, detraction) are serious and require grace to resist. Invoke the Holy Spirit for yourself, for those who engage in gossip, and especially for those harmed by it.
