ADULT BIBLE STUDY

Thursdays at 7:00pm

Today's Gospel Reflection

First Reading: Sirach 27:30-28:7

Second Reading: Romans 14:7-9

Gospel: Matthew 18:21-35

Love and Forgiveness

In the Gospel, Peter wants to know how many times he has to forgive someone who sins against him. What is the number of times, Peter wants to know, that he has to forgive that sinner? But this question is confused. There is no such number as the one Peter is looking for. There is no limit on the number of times we have to forgive someone who has sinned against us.

We are able to understand the point of this Gospel story if we see the connection between love and forgiveness. Refusing to forgive is refusing to love, and it is never acceptable not to love. That is why it is never right to withhold forgiveness either.

The relation between love and forgiveness also helps us see the difference between forgiving a wrongdoer and enabling him to continue in his wrongdoing. Love wants the good for the beloved. A person who forgives a sinner loves that sinner; and because she loves him, she has a heart for his good. A wife who continues to live with a husband who beats her isn't forgiving him. She's helping him to get worse. There is nothing loving or forgiving about enabling a person to get worse. For her to forgive her husband is for her to want his good, even in the face of his bad treatment of her. But his good requires, first of all, that he stop hurting her, and then that he repent his terrible treatment of her.

If he is unrepentant, if he rejects goodness and love, then she can want the good in him anyway. But her forgiveness of him will be like a gift that can't be given because he won't receive it. Then the best she can do for him is to keep a distance from him, so that he doesn't get worse by continuing to hurt her.

God's love is like this, too. God's forgiveness is always there, and so is God's love. Because God loves every person, God offers the good to everyone too, no matter what that person's sins may be. God does not keep a careful distance from us when we sin. What stands between us and God is only our own unwillingness to receive the gift God is offering.

FORGIVE..

The students and teachers of Maili Elementary and Waimalu Elementary were extremely grateful for our generosity and support!

We collected: 75 jackets, 40 pairs of slippers, 600 boxes of crayons, 1200 pencils, assorted pens, color pencils, markers, ear buds, shorts, as well as writing tablets, glue and glue sticks, and 135 backpacks.

Everything that we have is on loan from God, entrusted to us for a while to use in serving Him.

The Twenty-Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Stewardship
a way of life

“For if we live, we live for the Lord, and if die, we die for the Lord; so then, whether we live or die, we are the Lord’s.

—Romans 14:8

This is the essence of Stewardship — everything we have and everything we are is a gift from God. We aren’t “owners” of anything, we are merely “Stewards” of the gifts that God has given us, especially our very own lives. Pray to God, daily, and ask Him how He is calling you to live the life He intended for you.

LET’S TAKE A MOMENT... By Tere Hunt

Edition #35

We all want to hear God’s voice but honestly, it isn’t easy! How many times have you silenced your mind and sought Him, certain in your heart that He will hear you this time, but then sense only His silence. When God seems inaudible, it can be frustrating and unbearable. Here you are exposing your heart to Him, and yet we struggle to listen and hear His voice. So we become vulnerable to temptations. Give me a sign, Lord, you implore...but you haven’t let go off the chatter and clutter that blocks your head to enable you to engage your superior ability to discern His voice that has always been crystal clear. Listening to God is a skill that requires exceptional discipline. It involves patience, a mental capacity very few possess to none. “We do the best we can” is our normal reaction. We have the capacity to set apart the voice of God, our ego, even the devil. We truly can! Ask the Holy Spirit to fill us, strengthen, empower and direct us as we patiently await on the Lord. Pray that He grants you a hearing heart to listen and obey. Don’t make demands. This is not DoorDash! You’re not in the position to make ultimatums. Show humility and He will reveal Himself. Believe in your heart that God has only good things in store for you. Remember He loves you and wants to be in every facet of your life. Acknowledge that we care what He is thinking and trust that we accept His influence in our lives. If you can feel His presence, His voice will manifest even clearer. Even when we can’t hear His voice, God is constantly speaking and giving us directions. Can’t you see—it’s never God who is not speaking but us who simply has difficulty hearing Him all this time! Believe quietly and you shall hear.

FORGIVE AND FORGET

Terry Anderson was an American reporter in Lebanon when he was abducted by terrorists in 1985. His response? “I’m a Christian and a Catholic, and it’s really required of me that I forgive, no matter how hard that may be.”

It’s been said that forgiveness is the most difficult thing we have to do, simply because all too often we do not feel like forgiving. Nor is forgiveness about overlooking the injury as if to say, “Oh, that’s OK. Don’t worry about it.” Forgiveness may not even mean being able to be nice. Sometimes the pain may be too much. Forgiveness as Jesus lived it is a choice one makes to care about the other. It is the gift of wanting what is best for the other even at times throbs as if the wound continues to ooze and weep. Then we cannot forget. Yet it is possible to make the choice to care.

What do we do if we cannot even bring ourselves to do that much? Perhaps then we can at least ask God to bring goodness into that person’s life. And if that seems too difficult, then ask God to do what we cannot. That simple choice may very well be the seed that eventually sprouts into healing and peace in our own spirit.

—Fr. Joseph Juknialis

—Parish Community/Liguori Publications

Reflect

When have you been able to forgive even though memory of the pain lingered?

Peter...asked him, “Lord, if my brother sins against me, how often must I forgive him? As many as seven times?” —Matthew 18:21
—Matthew 18:20

Dear Padre

Why are churches doing away with the confessionals?

In many churches, when it is feasible, the traditional confessional box is modified or even replaced by a more spacious, less darkened reconciliation room. In 1974, the US Conference of Catholic Bishops decreed that “small chapels or rooms of reconciliation be provided in which penitents might choose to confess their sins through an informal face to face exchange with the priest, with the opportunity for appropriate spiritual counsel.” Later, a further elaboration recommended austere furnishings and decoration in this space, “with nothing superfluous in evidence beyond a simple cross, table and Bible. The purpose of this room is primarily for the celebration of the reconciliation liturgy; it is not a lounge, a counseling room, etc. The word ‘chapel’ more appropriately describes this space.” If a reconciliation chapel does not provide a fixed screen or grille between the penitent and confessor, it must be offered elsewhere, according to canon law. “The purpose of this norm...to afford the penitent anonymity if he or she desires and to make certain that there is no suspicion of impropriety in the confessor-penitent relationship” (Code of Canon Law, 964 commentary).

Ideally, the environment of the reconciliation chapel helps the penitent and confessor feel they are “on holy ground: (Exodus 3:5) in encountering God in this sacrament. It offers an inviting sacred space to celebrate a powerful expression of God’s mercy and unconditional love.

Twenty-Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

FINDING TIME FOR POWERFUL PRAYER

If you struggle to find time to pray, try these 3 tips:

PRIORITIZE. Much unseen good depends on prayer, and it's as critical to our souls as breathing is to the body. Jesus corrected St. Martha because she lost sight of "the one thing...needful" (Luke 10:41-42). Reserve time for daily prayer. Treat it as an important appointment—because it is.

SET BOUNDARIES. Jesus dismissed the crowd in the evening and "went up into the hills to pray" (Matthew 14:23). Give God your undivided attention in prayer for whatever time you can. Be full present, minimizing distractions. Let the world wait while you spend time with the One who loves you most.

ACTIVATE YOUR WORK. Few of us have the luxury of being able to spend all day in prayer but we can make a morning offering, giving our day to God's service. Entrust all the events, tasks, and concerns of the day to God's mercy and providence. This way, our work is made holy and can help bring souls to Christ.

A WORD FROM POPE FRANCIS

As I was celebrating Mass, I paused, touched by a phrase...from the book of Sirach..."Remember the end of your life, and cease from enmity." A beautiful phrase! Think of the end! That you will be in a coffin...and will you take hatred there? Think of the end, stop hating! Stop the resentment.

SAY "Amen!"

The proper form when receiving Communion is to reply "Amen" after the Eucharistic minister raises the Host or Chalice and pronounces it, "The Body (or Blood) of Christ." By responding this way, you openly state your belief in the presence of Christ in the Eucharistic bread and wine as well as in His Body, the Church.

Celebrate!

PRIESTHOOD SUNDAY

Priesthood Sunday is a special day set aside to honor priesthood in the U.S. It is a day to reflect upon and affirm the role of the priesthood in the life of the Church as a central one. It is celebrated next week Sept. 24th. Remember to honor priests, without whom the Mass could not be offered, and Sacraments could not be celebrated. It is essential to note that the number of priests and ordinations in the U.S. has steadily declined in the past 50 years. Meanwhile, the number of parishes without a resident priest pastor has sharply increased in the same period of time. Please express your gratitude to our priests—here's a chance to honor and honor them in your own "unique" way. You can make it as elaborate or as simple as you wish. From a special prayer service to a feast, or a spiritual bouquet to suit your own style.
