Lent's Challenges

We started our Lenten journey with the smudge of ash on our forehead this past Wednesday. We had our first Stations of the Cross of the Lenten season this past Friday and our first fish fry. We have now started our Lenten journey.

We start off the first Sunday of Lent with Jesus being thrown into the desert, where He is tempted and tested. Temptation is something all of us have to deal with in our lives of faith in one form or another. Doesn't it seem like we are tempted in a special way during Lent?

We can give up something like chocolate during Lent, and during other times of the year, we can go for weeks and weeks without eating chocolate or thinking about it, but then Lent comes around, and it seems like what we give up is everywhere we turn, calling our name and leading us into temptation.

Mark's Gospel tells us that God's spirit drives Jesus into the desert where He is tempted by Satan. Yet, we know that Jesus is not alone in the desert wilderness. Wild beasts are there, threatening to destroy Him. However, the angels are also there, ministering to Him. We all have wild beasts or demons in our lives that threaten to destroy us, but we also have angels who help us and minister to us. Although we have to deal with temptation during Lent just as Jesus dealt with temptation in the desert, Lent is also a time of transformation and renewal.

We all need patience in our Lenten journey. We need commitment, steadfastness and courage on these 40 days. We may need to purge, change, and transform a lot in our lives in order to become the person God calls us to become. We may need to take a lot of radical steps to become that best version of ourselves. Carmelite nun Therese of Lisieux, who died at the age of 24 at her monastery in France from tuberculosis wrote this: "Jesus does not demand great action from us, but simply surrender and gratitude." In the midst of our challenges, in the midst of the ups and downs of our journey, we are to discern and follow the will of God and to give thanks in all things.

REGISTRATION CLOSED! CLASSES ALREADY ONGOING.

ST. JUDE MISSION STATEMENT

We, the community of St. Jude, commit ourselves to Jesus Christ our Savior, His teachings and the Tradition of the Roman Catholic Church. With the guidance of the Holy Spirit, we embrace and nurture our culturally diverse community through worship, evangelization, renewal and service.

2024 LENTEN REGULATIONS

FASTING

Catholics aged 18 through 59 are bound to fast on both Ash Wednesday (Feb. 14) and Good Friday (March 29th). To fast means to consume one full meal a day at most, although taking other smaller quantities of food at the other customer mealtime is permitted. Food and drink between meals (excepting water and medicine) is not permitted on days of fasting.

ABSTINENCE FROM MEAT

Catholics aged 14 and up are to abstain from meat on Ash Wednesday, all Fridays of Lent, and Good Friday. To abstain means refraining from eating beef, veal, pork, or poultry at least, although eggs and milk products are acceptable. The consumption of fish and shellfish is permitted, though the penitential character of the abstinence should be kept in mind.

—Diocese of Honolulu

God has given us 2 hands,

one to receive with & the other to give with.

First Sunday of Lent

"After John had been arrested, Jesus came to Galilee proclaiming the gospel of God..."

—Mark 1:14

Have you ever thought about how difficult it must have been for Jesus to go to Galilee, knowing that John had just been arrested for teaching the same message that He was proclaiming. It took great love and trust for Jesus to do what the Father had sent Him here on earth to do. In the same way, living a Stewardship lifestyle takes great love and trust from us. We must be willing to surrender completely to God, trusting that He will always give us all that we need to fulfill His plans for us.

A Roman Catholic priest is on his way to Rome when he runs into an old childhood friend.

"Goodness, Mary. How have you been?"

"Could be better. My husband, Robert and I, have been trying to have children for 15 years but we are barren."

"So sorry to hear that. I'm on a pilgrimage to Rome and I promise to light a candle for you."

Five years later, while eating dinner, the priest has a surprise visit from Mary's husband.

"So glad I found you! Remember that candle you lit for Mary years ago? Well, I now have 2 sets of twins and a set of triplets—and I just found out we are expecting quadruplets!"

Robert hands the priest an all-expenses paid ticket to Rome.

"Oh my", says the surprised priest, "your joy is my joy. You need not give me such a thank you gift."

"Oh no, it's not a thank you," says Robert. "It's so you can blow out that damn candle."

LET'S TAKE A MOMENT... By Tere Hunt

Edition #7

As we move away from the Christmas season and embark on a more serious Lenten period, we will now be vulnerable to trickeries that Satan has been anticipating to entrap us with. Like a mad scientist eager to deploy his potions, he launches temptation! We battle and struggle with temptation daily, some more than others. Satan is deceitful and will do everything in his power to destroy us emotionally, physically, mentally, and spiritually. Sometimes we are not even aware we are being tempted until we have already sunken into the sin. It's so easy to slip deeper into temptation and brokenness. When this happens, our goodwill is stolen depriving us of the blessings of God. While temptation may display itself in the form of desire, it may also appear as trials. There will be times when God subjects us to trials that can expose us to the enemy's attacks for His purpose. Yet there will always be a way out. Jesus Himself triumphed over the devil's persistent temptations. What a magnificent reminder that we too, will not be tested beyond our abilities. He has the power to save us from temptation. How? God wields the Holy Spirit—God's power in action! Summoning the Holy Spirit to guide us, we can accomplish the will of God. What's essential is that we surrender ourselves to God's will. "No temptation has overtaken you except what is common to mankind. And God is faithful; He will not let you be tempted beyond what you can bear" (Corinthians 10:13). No matter what temptation we face, whether we ask God to spare us from sin or a difficult trial, the goal should always be to be delivered from evil. We must break free from temptation's shackles and trust the bigger plan God has for our lives. God's nature is not to tempt us to sin. We have the greatest weapon to use against Satan. We have Jesus, who is always, constantly, permanently, at all times on our side. There is no temptation He can't help us through. So have a grateful Lent!

A TREK IN THE DESERT

Deserts come in all shapes and sizes. For Noah, it turned out to be a desert of water, an endless, dreary expanse. For Jesus, it was also without end, one of rocks and sand; it was a harsh existence. In our lives, deserts might be a debilitating illness, a dried-up marriage, grief over lost love, a job that seems to tax our sanity, or a childhood scarred by abuse. Not long ago, the world found itself in a pandemic desert. For many, it was one of cabin fever that isolated us from family and friends. Deserts are not alluring places. They are places from which we tend to run.

Some people deal with the inevitable deserts of life by becoming angry; others grow bitter and turn inward; others blame God and walk away from faith. Yet deserts can also be the very forces that reshape lives. With nothing else to distract us, in the desert we come face to face with ourselves, with who we really are and whose voice it is that we follow. There we take a stand on life, as Jesus did. It was the Spirit that drove Jesus into the desert, and it was there that He realized the future to which He was being called. So also with us. Deserts become places where we discover what God is asking of us and where we need to go, all discoveries that may otherwise never have occurred. In some strange and curious way, then, deserts may be blessings in our lives. .

Dear Padre

We're in the middle of home renovations, and the season of Lent is beginning. Everything is in total disarray. Any ideas to help me "keep my religion" at this time?

"There is...a time to tear down, and a time to build" (Ecclesiastes 3:1,3). During the season of Lent—a word meaning "spring"—we are called to pull away from the "dead" deeds of winter. It's a time of spiritual "spring cleaning" for the individual and for the faith community. As nature renews herself every spring, so do we. The change of season may even prompt a renovation project—the kind you are now undertaking. The structural changes to a home afford many spiritual parallels—the redoing of your physical home can be a challenge to realign your spiritual home during Lent.

In the Genesis story, God is pleased with the handiwork of His creation. Likewise, our stamina, perseverance, and patience to see a work through to its completion are cause for great satisfaction and celebration. This would remind us that we are made in the same image of God, who took delight in His own work. Lent also can become a time of delighting in ourselves as God's special and ongoing creation.

When your home improvement project is completed, arrange for a blessing of your home. Enthroned a special cross or icon to venerate, light a devotional candle, and use holy in the area of the home that was improved. At that time, remind yourself again that you and your home belong to the Lord—renewed during the spring cleaning of Lent!

SAY "Amen!"

The proper form when receiving Communion is to reply "Amen" AFTER the Eucharistic minister raises the Host or Chalice and pronounces it, "The Body (or Blood) of Christ." By responding this way, you openly state your belief in the presence of Christ in the Eucharistic bread and wine as well as in His Body, the Church.

♦ St. Jude's 25th Anniversary on Sunday, Feb. 25th from 12 noon to 3:30pm.

♦ You are welcome to bring desserts and case(s) of bottled water on that day!

♦ Pick-up of Souvenir Anniversary shirts on Sat/Sun -Feb. 17-18 at all Masses.

♦ One-time briefing for all volunteers for set-up, clean-up & servers on Thursday, Feb. 22nd from 6-7pm at MPR.
