"...I tell you, Peter, before the cock crows this day, you will deny three times that you know me."

—Luke 22:34

How many times have you heard someone make a disparaging comment about God or our Catholic faith? How did you react? Do you remain quiet so not to cause a disturbance? Or, because you don't want people to think negatively about you? Or, because you don't think you know enough about the Catholic faith? Pray for the courage to speak up in Stewardship and enter into a respectful conversation when the opportunity to talk about our faith arises. Joyfully share your faith with others.

LET'S TAKE A MOMENT... By Tere Hunt

Edition #14

When you look up at the sky and catch a rainbow, you spontaneously smile and marvel at its beauty, perhaps rushing to capture its splendor with a camera, admiring the spectacle as much as you can before it slowly fades in the atmosphere, obscured by the clouds and then totally vanish. The moment you witness this, you are filled with awe and calmness, quite a soothing experience. But what if you caught a double rainbow? If you pay close attention, the appearance of the second band shows the reverse colors of the other. Such sightings are rare occurrences; the most notably recorded events were when they appeared during the 22nd anniversary of 9/11, or after the death of Queen Elizabeth II. Most prominent in the Bible is the double rainbow's appearance when God promised Noah never to destroy the earth again with a great flood. There may have been other unrecorded instances but no matter the extent of their grandeur, we cannot help but be captivated and possess that feeling of wonder-lust. God shows His immeasurable magnificence everyday. From tumultuous storms and fiery volcanic eruptions, to the whisper of the breeze and the lull of the ocean's waves. God can wake your senses and change your perception of the world around you in an instant, by simply reflecting these phenomenal rainbows! Recognizing these stunning arches that stain the skies, one has to believe we are swathed in God's glory. God releases such brilliance to remind us of His amazing kindness to creation, His unlimited faithfulness to loving us. God can only be righteous, holy and utterly beautiful. When you're down on your luck and you gaze up and are greeted by those radiant bands, isn't it a sign that He sees you? That you're special. That there is hope. God afforded us a way to be saved, to be healed and comforted, to find the solace and reassurance through the Son who constantly extends Himself to us. Behold the heavens and rejoice in the presence of such exceptional beauty!

RICE BOWLS on Holy Thursday!

Throughout Lent, we are called to repentance and deeper communion with God and neighbor through prayer, fasting and almsgiving. In a special way, Lenten almsgiving enables us to grow in generosity, actively participate in the body of Christ and respond to God's call to love and care for others. Mahalo for making a global difference for millions experiencing the greatest need!

The 2nd Collection for the Holy Land on Good Friday is a special collection taken up by parishes around the world, to help Christians in the land where Jesus was born, lived, died, and was resurrected.

Funds collected make up the main source of material support for Christian life in the Holy Land. Terrorism and a massive military response are threatening the lives of Christians in the Holy Land who ensure that the places associated with the life, death and resurrection of Jesus are not simply museums, but witness to a living faith in Him. The collection is used to support pastoral, charitable, educational, and social works which the Church supports in the Holy Land for the welfare of their Christian brethren and of the local communities. Catholics should not forget the "tears, despair and destruction everywhere" they have seen in images from the Middle East.

My name is Ann Judilla and I am the outgoing Pastoral Council Chair as of June 2025.

It has been a privilege for me to serve in this position for 2 terms. If you want a fulfilling volunteer work, I highly recommend being in the Pastoral Council either as a member or Pastoral Council chair as appointed by the Pastor.

The definition of Pastoral Council is a consultative body within the Catholic Church, at both the diocesan and parish levels, that advises the Pastor or Bishop on pastoral matters, helping to ensure the church's life and activities align with the Gospel.

My History:

I came to Hawaii back in 1995 from Illinois where I grew up since I was 12 years old (1975) coming from Cebu, Philippines. My father was a Mechanical Engineer who applied to be an immigrant to the U.S. I grew up in the suburb of Chicago (in Gurnee and Waukegan, IL). I was baptized Catholic since birth and went to an all girl school ran by Franciscan missionaries of Mary in Cebu. When I came to the U.S., my dad wanted me to attend a Catholic high school, but I declined because I wanted to know about boys! I was never exposed to them in school. After attending a public high school, I attended a Jesuit Catholic University at Marquette University in Milwaukee, WI. I studied pre-medicine and went on to receive my Masters Degree in Public Administration and Management. I decided to go into research and worked in pharmaceutical companies notably, Abbott Labs, Merck and I retired at Novartis Pharmaceuticals. I worked in cardiovascular and oncology research. It was challenging but rewarding work especially when the drugs I worked on received approval from the FDA and were marketed for use by patients and hospitals. My life was hectic due to my job and I needed a voluntary work that could give me a life/work balance so I chose to participate in church volunteer work to give me that spiritual and human balance in my life.

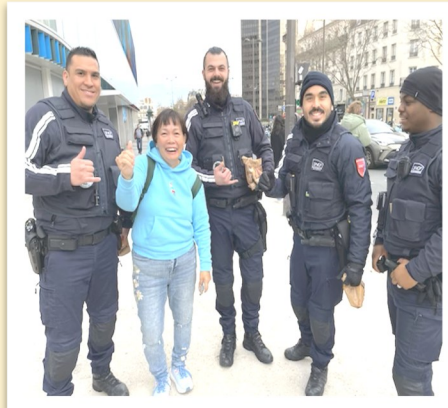

I have been a member of the St. Jude Parish since my arrival from Illinois in April 1995. I first served as a Pastoral Council member back in 1997. I also served as a Religious Education teacher for 2nd graders from 1997 to 2003. I have been a lector since 1996. I coordinated fundraising activities for St. Jude such as bake sales and white elephant sales as part of fundraising efforts to build the current location of our St. Jude Church.

I have enjoyed being a part of this parish as a church member and being part of various committees. If I am needed I never say no to any request from our pastors past and present and I hope to continue working with Fr. Rheo in whatever role he needs me to volunteer.

I hope our church community will continue to help in stewardship and building our community. Our Pastor cannot stand alone. He needs help and cooperation from all of us in order to continue our programs and services so he can continue to provide also for our spiritual needs. I highly encourage everyone to volunteer through our various ministries.

If you need more information regarding the ministries here at St. Jude Church, there are pamphlets available providing background information in the back of the church. There is a lot of expectations to make St. Jude Church a mega-church for the Leeward side so my hope is for everyone to come together and volunteer and become good stewards! We want to build a legacy for our children and future members.

Thank you all so much for your kindness, guidance, appreciation and friendship.

New Church Project, Schematic Design for Pricing at 100%:

We have exciting news to share! Our design architect, Barduson Architects, has completed the design drawings necessary to estimate the cost of developing the Leihano parcel and building our new Church. Our next step involves selecting a General Contractor to price the project.

We are also establishing a Project Oversight Committee, consisting of select members from our Parish Planning and Building Committee, Finance Council, Pastoral Council, and more. In particular, to round out our team, we are hoping to recruit volunteers from among our parishioners who may have professional experience in the areas of project management, engineering, fundraising and development, public relations, and marketing. If your background includes any of these vital areas, and would like to learn more about what this commitment may entail, please contact our pastor, Fr. Rheo Ofalsa, at rofalsa@rcchawaii.org by Wednesday, April 30, 2025.
