SAINTS PETER & PAUL, APOSTLES

"I have competed well; I have finished the race; I have kept the faith."

—2 Timothy 4:7

How many of us can say this? St. Theresa of Calcutta said, "God doesn't call us to be successful, He calls us to be faithful." How many times have we been blinded by the success of the world at the expense of our faith? Matthew Kelly says, "Take one minute each day to live Stewardship reminding yourself that you are just passing through this life and will die one day; you will live more intentionally with a passion and purpose."

LET'S TAKE A MOMENT... By Tere Hunt

Edition #25

More than ever, children need to learn the importance of honesty, keeping their word, telling the truth, and being trustworthy. Speaking the truth can become difficult because it may get them into trouble. Cheating, stealing, manipulating information, or concealing the truth are signs of dishonesty; and even telling a "white lie" can become a bad habit that it can escalate into bigger untruths which could harm others and lead to their downfall, defeat or absolute ruin. Children are expected to take responsibility for their actions. And as adults, we need to be their example. Showing that we uphold the truth by abiding to simple work ethics—i.e., being honest with your work hours, executing your duties and responsibilities, and being accountable to your mistakes. The same goes at play where you have to play fairly—don't pad your scores! There is not a perfect child but you can create a trusted individual who can practice being honest from an impressionable age, and can demonstrate the upright behavior you wish to see. Kids copy their parents. Children can also exhibit parental hypocrisy. Take away privileges if they erred, but have them earn it back so they learn to live up to yours and their expectations. Hold yourself to a higher standard of honesty. It will teach them that although practicing honesty is difficult, they should not be afraid of it. When you cheat, you betray the trust of others, you lose whatever integrity you have remaining, and although it may work to your advantage, lying about it exacerbates the injury. You fall prey to being deceitful easily. Be forgiving when negative consequences emerge, but praise them for their efforts to be truthful. Then again, distinguish dangerous lying (cheating on a test) from brutal hurtful truth-telling ("Oh my, you look ugly!").

"Blah-de-Blah.... Come on, get to the good stuff!"

INTERESTED IN ALTAR SERVING?

The Altar Server Ministry is a very special privilege offered to young people in our parish who have answered God's call to ministry. As an Altar Server, you have an important role during the Mass or other liturgical services to assist the priest at the altar and help the church community worship in the best possible way. We invite all youths to become an active altar server at St. Jude. On Saturday, July 12, we will have a training for any youths who are interested in becoming an Altar Server. Training will be held at the Worship Area from 10–11am. Altar Servers must have a strong desire to serve, have made their First Communion and regularly attend mass. Altar serving isn't a volunteer role. You are responding to the call of God on your heart to serve the community as ministers. Please consider becoming a part of this great team! For more information, call the office at (808) 672-8669.

Sts. Peter & Paul, Apostles Stewardship in Action

Born in the Philippines, Marina Pascual graduated from Far Eastern University with a degree in BS Nursing in 1975. In 1993, while still working as a Registered Nurse in one of the hospitals in Manila, a couple she was friends with, introduced her to Leo Digos, who was vacationing in Manila. They got engaged, and made plans of starting a new life together in the U.S. In 1994, she arrived in Hawaii, got married at St. Joseph Church, Waipahu (St. Jude not constructed yet), and settled in his home already situated in Kapolei. The same year she passed the Hawaii Licensing Exam for registered nurses, worked at various facilities as a nurse until she found permanent employment with Leahi Hospital/Hale Mohalu Hospital by Diamond Head.

In 2001, their 7-year marriage was abruptly cut short when her husband experienced cardiac arrest while playing basketball. Such was his passion, a past time he enjoyed, but this time proved fatal. Marina was on duty when she received a call from a good friend and delivered the shattering news. She collapsed amid tending to her patients with a foreboding premonition. Upon arrival at Kuakini ER, she found him unresponsive—didn't even have a chance to say goodbye...

Suddenly widowed, Marina endured such a traumatic experience from the loss of her husband. Despite her sisters from Canada and So. Carolina who came to assist her, life was a blur.* She even thought of returning permanently to the Philippines. She felt devastated, alone, and helpless—traits which would exemplify her future ministries.

Marina persevered as a long-term registered nurse for 17 years then retired in 2015. She also remarried in 2015! She did not have any plans of remarrying, but felt it was God's plan that she found her present husband, Dennis Takahashi, who was introduced to her by Lucy Pascual. We now know her as Marina Digos Takahashi!

Marina had a desire to work with the most vulnerable, the elderly, most especially those who were lonely and alone. Her compassion for helping these marginalized made her feel accomplished. So for most weekends for the next 10 years, she and her troop of friends drove all the way to Waikiki, feeding the homeless and evangelizing, even accomplishing for the homeless to pray the rosary and the Divine Mercy Chaplet. But then in 2020, COVID ceased their activity and everything was put on lockdown.

Still wanting to continue serving the Lord, it was at St. Jude that Deacon Will Friese was recruiting for the prison ministry. She joined it, serving the prisoners at the Federal Prison and Waiawa Correctional Facility for 5 years while still feeding the homeless in Waikiki, but stepped down in 2020 due to the dreaded COVID.

She attended seminar classes at the Diocese's Peacemaker Program geared towards training for a more effective homebound ministry. Sadly the program ended short of graduation but this was fortuitous for her because she immersed herself in perfecting this ministry until today.

In July 18, 2018, Marina joined St. Jude's Legion of Mary Praesidium (LOM) when it first started. This was where LOM significantly provided additional source for her to meet those elderly and needy confined at Kapunawai Ola and Leihano assisted living facilities. She remained actively involved with LOM members in bringing Mary Pilgrim to homes, promoting and propagating the rosary and devotion to our Blessed Virgin Mary.

The Homebound Ministry became more personal to her and Marina exceptionally embraced the responsibilities. When the need for homebound visits arose, she became the distinguished on-call person, and with each name that Fr. Khanh gave her that needed Communion, she tackled her duties without grief, spanning through COVID years!

Asked what some of the encounters that stood out to her and she shared about a patient that was dying, but the family contrived COVID. 7 days of quarantine passed but they had no inkling if the patient had acquired COVID or if the household were already cured. On another instance, they visited a patient who just got out of the hospital after being confined for COVID. They continued their homebound duties, yet all of them were spared. God was looking out for His stewards! She eventually contracted COVID, but not from doing any home visits.

Fast forward to the present, as member of the FCC, she is devoted to feeding the homeless, visiting them at their most dismal environment, providing food, comfort, care and fellowship. As a homebound minister, she has gone the distance to visit the homes and administer Communion; joining fellow LOM members in prayer for those who have passed and in need of prayers.

"Nene," as she is fondly called, has emerged a fresh and rewarding chapter in her life, where her faith has given her the impetus to accomplish the ministries she has undertaken, and has even paved for her husband Dennis, to afford his time to the church, performing cash counting and financial projects. She is grateful God steered her uncertain past towards nurturing ministries that comforts the disassociated and neglected, rendering them the dignity and support deserving of God's children too!

* With the help of supportive friends especially Veo & Cora Roces, she was able to see the light at the end

In this pose, Nene insisted that the Traveling Jubilee Cross be given more recognition than her!
