ST. JUDE MISSION STATEMENT

We, the community of St. Jude, commit ourselves to Jesus Christ our Savior, His teachings and the Tradition of the Roman Catholic Church. With the guidance of the Holy Spirit, we embrace and nurture our culturally diverse community through worship, evangelization, renewal and service.

St. Jude Catholic Church now accepts electronic donations Give Electronically

Checking/Savings & Credit/Debit Card

Participate Today

Electronic Giving is a convenient way to provide consistent financial support to our church. Please contact the church office to learn how you can participate. Or sign up online: visit our parish website at www.stjudehawaii.org and click on the "Online Giving" button on the right panel.

For your convenience, volunteers will be available 15 minutes before and after Mass to process donations on the weekends.

To further enhance our services, we also have the attached barcode. Just scan this barcode-like QR code image with a smartphone's QR decoder, and it will instantly connect you to the mobile version of your web page, providing you a quick and easy access to your web page, without having to type out a long web address in order to locate your link.

AMPLIFY ALOHA with Foodland's Give Aloha Program

Support St. Jude Parish (Code 77277)

September 1 – 30, 2025

How it works:

1. Donate up to $249 at checkout at any Foodland, Sack N Save, or Foodland Farms.
2. Use Code: 77277 for St. Jude Parish.
3. Foodland will add a matching gift to your donation!

Example: A $100 gift may receive about $25 extra from Foodland (estimate) = $125 for St. Jude!

☞ Must be a Maika'i member (sign up at checkout if needed).

☞ Your gift + Foodland's gift = Amplified Aloha! Mahalo in advance for your generosity. ☞

*Make sure to ask for a duplicate copy of your receipt for your tax purpose as donations will not be reflected on St. Jude Annual Statement.

Everything we have is on loan from God, entrusted to us to use in serving Him.

8/25/25 – 8/31/25 Weekly Financial Report¹

Total Weekly Collection: $16,100.63

Breakdown:

5 p.m. Vigil (Saturday):	$2,096.30
7 a.m. Sunday:	$3,140.00
9 a.m. Sunday:	$2,954.00
11 a.m. Sunday:	$2,334.00
5 p.m. Sunday:	$1,565.00
Online Giving:	$3,196.33
Miscellaneous ² :	$815.00

Benchmarks:³

Weekly Goal⁴: $20,400.00
Fiscal Year-to-date Receipts / Budgeted:
$161K / $184K
Mortgage Capital Reserve⁵:
$3,174,006 / $10M
Moving Monthly Mortgage Allocation⁶:
$27K / $64K

² Including Mass intentions, sacramental offerings, blessings, outreach & candles, etc.

⁴ Proposed Updated Budget divided by 52 weeks; weekly collection amounts can vary according to season and celebration (e.g. Christmas collection, Easter Collection, etc.).

⁶ Shared for informational purposes only, updated annually, and subject to change; the $27K is the monthly mortgage amount that St. Jude can currently afford based on present financial situation and mortgage assumptions; the $64K is the goal amount required to afford a $10M loan, which is a rough estimate of the loan amount necessary in order to complete building a new Church building/campus at the Leihano property; $27K will be allocated each month into the Mortgage Capital Reserve for Fiscal Year beginning on July 1, 2025 and ending on June 30, 2026; this amount may increase or decrease in the next fiscal year.

TWENTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"Every one of you who does not renounce all his possessions cannot be my disciple."

— Luke 14:33

When we first hear this statement, it seems that Jesus is making an unrealistic demand upon us. How can we renounce all of our possessions? We need them to live. However, what we must renounce is the belief that they belong to us. Everything that we have belongs to God alone. All of our resources are entrusted to us not only for our own use, but also so that we in Stewardship can help others. Once we renounce the idea that we possess or are entitled to anything, it is much easier to share the many gifts that God has given us. Then we truly are His Disciples.

LET'S TAKE A MOMENT... By Tere Hunt

Edition #35

Last weekend, we had the opportunity to host the return of the Little Bethlehem Christian Group (LBCG), led by Sihan Al Sahouri, whose family founded and continued the tradition of selling olive wood carvings of religious items to Catholic parishes in the U.S. St. Jude obliged Sihan to share the plight of the surviving families remaining in the Holy Land economically decimated by the ongoing war in the Middle East. Sihan's family outreach of introducing their unique wares to our churches has significantly bolstered these marginalized populace to remain afloat. Consider visiting Jesus' birthplace, Bethlehem; then Jerusalem where our Lord dwelt and died, locations where you dream to experience the prosperity of Christianity, yet to be surrounded by constant armed conflicts and demoralizing conditions, safe travel is a huge risk. Indeed, our awesome parishioners came through and contributed their share of support, bringing fragments of Bible history to their homes. Imagine the hands of these aging artisans methodically fashioning those tiny swirls on the rosaries or bracelets, shaping intricate indentations on wooden sculptures, or even carving such exquisite versions of saints or the Holy Family, would you be able to design what you bought? I assure many of you were impressed by the craftsmanship and ingenuity of these unsung artists. May I call out and applaud those who did not purchase items, but readily bestowed monetary donations, your kindness is wholly appreciated. Such generosity has encouraged Sihan. To witness our church recognize LBCG and accept their creations into our lives is a humble indication as to why we are all connected to one another. As Sihan quoted from one of our hymns, "We are many parts, we are all one body," adding "and the gifts we have we are given to share..." Let us continue to be caring stewards of our severed neighbors who only want what we all utterly wish for—Peace! Pray that our prominent leaders discern their roles and encourage de-escalation of turmoil and upheaval in our world PLEASE!

Groaning Beyond Words—Our Deeper Way of Praying

“When we no longer know how to pray, the Spirit, in groans too deep for words, pray through us.”

—By Fr. Ron Rolheiser *

Saint Paul wrote those words and they contain both a stunning revelation and a wonderful consolation, namely, there is deep prayer happening inside us beyond our conscious awareness and independent of our deliberate efforts. What is this unconscious prayer? It is our deep innate desire, relentlessly on fire, forever somewhat frustrated, making itself felt through the groaning of our bodies and souls, silently begging the very energies of the universe, not least God Himself, to let it come to consummation.

Allow me an analogy: Some years ago, a friend of mine bought a house that had sat empty and abandoned for a number of years. The surface of the driveway was cracked and a bamboo plant, now several feet high, had grown up through the pavement. My friend cut down the bamboo tree, chopped down several feet into its roots to try to destroy them, poured a chemical poison into the root system in hopes of killing whatever was left, packed some gravel over the spot, and paved over the top with a thick layer of concrete. But the little tree was not so easily thwarted. Two years later, the pavement began to heave as the bamboo plant again began to assert itself. Its powerful life force was still blindly pushing outward and upward, cement blockage notwithstanding.

Life, all life, has powerful inner pressures and is not easily thwarted. It pushes relentlessly and blindly towards its own ends, irrespective of resistance. Sometimes resistance does kill it. There are, as the saying goes, storms we cannot weather. But we do weather most of what life throws at us and our deep life-principle remains strong and robust, even as on the surface the frustrations we have experienced and the dreams in us that have been shamed slowly muzzle us into a mute despair so that our prayer-lives begin to express less and less of what we are actually feeling.

But it is through that very frustration that the Spirit prays, darkly, silently, in groans too deep for words (cf Romans 8:22). In our striving, our yearning, our broken dreams, our tears, in the daydreams we escape into, and even in our sexual desire, the Spirit of God prays through us, as does our soul, our life-principle. Like the life forces innate in that bamboo plant, powerful forces are blindly working inside us too, pushing us outward and upward to eventually throw off whatever cement lies on top of us. This is true, of course, also of our joys. The Spirit also prays through our gratitude, both when we express consciously it and even when we only sense it unconsciously.

Our deepest prayers are mostly not those we express in our churches and private oratories. Our deepest prayers are spoken in our silent gratitude and silent tears. The person praising God’s name ecstatically and the person bitterly cursing God’s name in anger are, in different ways, in radically different ways of groaning, both praying.

Our frustrations, bitterness, jealousies, lusts, curses, sloth, and quiet despair are usually understood to be the very antithesis of prayer. There are many lessons to be drawn from this. First, from this we can learn to forgive life a little more for its frustrations and we can learn to give ourselves permission to be more patient with life and with ourselves. Who of us does not lament that the pressures and frustrations of life keep us from fully enjoying life’s pleasures, from smelling the flowers, from being more present to family, from celebrating with friends, from peaceful solitude, and from deeper prayer? So we are forever making resolutions to slow down, to find a quiet space inside our pressured lives in which to pray.

But, after failing over and over again, we eventually despair of finding a quiet, contemplative space for prayer in our lives. Although we need to continue to search for that, we can already live with the consolation that, deep down, our very frustration in not being able to find that quiet space is already a prayer. In the groans of our inadequacy the Spirit is already praying through our bodies and souls in a way deeper than words.

One of the oldest, classical definitions of prayer defines it this way: prayer is lifting mind and heart to God. Too often in our efforts to pray formally, both communally and privately, we fail to do that, namely, to actually lift our hearts and minds to God. Why? Because what is really in our hearts and minds, alongside our gratitude and more gracious thoughts, is not something we generally connect with prayer at all. Our frustrations, bitterness, jealousies, lusts, curses, sloth, and quiet despair are usually understood to be the very antithesis of prayer, something to be overcome in order to pray.

But a deeper thing is happening under the surface: our frustration, longing, lust, jealousy, and escapist daydreams, things we are ashamed to take to prayer, are in fact already lifting our hearts and minds to God in more honest ways that we ever do consciously.

OUR LADY OF SORROWS

September 15th

Then he said to the disciple, “Behold, your mother.” And from that hour the disciple took her into his home. (John 19:27).

Let us follow the example of the beloved disciple, John, and listen to Jesus by taking the Blessed Virgin Mary into our hearts and homes, as our own mother, through praying the Novena to Our Lady of Sorrows from Sept. 6—14th.

Note: There will be a slight overlap which will concurrently run with the Blessed Virgin Mary’s Nativity Novena on Sept. 6-7, which will start 5 minutes earlier before the Masses. |

THE CATHOLIC UNIVERSITY OF AMERICA

This weekend, the diocese will take up the National Collection for the Catholic University of America. Catholic University is a national research university with over 5,700 undergraduate and graduate students in more than 250 academic programs. By giving to the collection, you are supporting future Catholic leaders, both religious and lay, who are being formed by an exceptional, faith-rooted education. The University's various research and training initiatives support dioceses and parishes in responding to the most pressing needs of their faithful. The Catholic Project, an initiative that brings together clergy and laity to address the challenges that the Catholic Church faces in the U.S. by contributing education, formation, research, events, and media; a master's program in Ecclesiastical Administration and Management; and a credentialing program that prepares recent graduates to serve as campus ministers. Please give generously.
