ST. JUDE MISSION STATEMENT

We, the community of St. Jude, commit ourselves to Jesus Christ our Savior, His teachings and the Tradition of the Roman Catholic Church. With the guidance of the Holy Spirit, we embrace and nurture our culturally diverse community through worship, evangelization, renewal and service.

St. Jude Catholic Church Give Electronically Checking/Savings ♦ Credit/Debit Card Participate Today

Electronic Giving is a convenient way to provide consistent financial support to our church. Please contact the church office to learn how you can participate. Or sign up online: visit our parish website at www.stjudehawaii.org and click on the "Online Giving" button on the right panel.

For your convenience, volunteers will be available 15 minutes before and after Mass to process donations on the weekends.

To further enhance our services, we also have the attached barcode. Just scan this barcode-like QR code image with a smartphone's QR decoder, and it will instantly connect you to the mobile version of your web page, providing you a quick and easy access to your web page.

9/29/25 – 10/05/25 Weekly Financial Report¹

Total Weekly Collection: $20,907.90

Breakdown:

5 p.m. Vigil (Saturday):	$2,409.16
7 a.m. Sunday:	$3,194.50
9 a.m. Sunday:	$3,027.00
11 a.m. Sunday:	$2,375.10
5 p.m. Sunday:	$1,834.00
Online Giving:	$6012.61
Daily Masses:	$1280.53
Miscellaneous ² :	$775.00

Benchmarks:³

Weekly Goal⁴: $20,400.00

Fiscal Year-to-date Receipts / Budgeted:

$280K / $286K

Mortgage Capital Reserve⁵:

$3,945,830 / $10M

Moving Monthly Mortgage Allocation⁶:

$27K / $64K

- 1 Format subject to change in the interest of communicating relevant financial information weekly, balancing clarity with simplicity; the Parish Finance Council reviews parish finances in more detail at a minimum of each fiscal quarter, and advises the pastor on all financial matters.
- 2 Including Mass intentions, sacramental offerings, blessings, outreach & candles, etc.
- 3 Benchmarks include new categories of Mortgage Capital Reserve and Moving Monthly Mortgage Allocation; both goal amounts must be met in order for the design and construction of a new Church building and campus to be considered feasible at the future site of St. Jude Parish (at the Leihano property).
- 4 Proposed Updated Budget divided by 52 weeks; weekly collection amounts can vary according to season and celebration (e.g. Christmas collection, Easter Collection, etc.).
- 5 Capital funds reserved for design/construction of new Church building/campus; consider this akin to a mortgage deposit that is required in order to secure a loan for the remaining balance; these funds are not assessable (i.e. “taxable”) by the Diocese of Honolulu; the goal amount is ½ the estimated construction amount, subject to change and based on latest estimates. Adjusted for schematic design payment.
- 6 Shared for informational purposes only, updated annually, and subject to change; the $27K is the monthly mortgage amount that St. Jude can currently afford based on present financial situation and mortgage assumptions; the $64K is the goal amount required to afford a $10M loan, which is a rough estimate of the loan amount necessary in order to complete building a new Church building/campus at the Leihano property; $27K will be allocated each month into the Mortgage Capital Reserve for Fiscal Year beginning on July 1, 2025 and ending on June 30, 2026; this amount may increase or decrease in the next fiscal year.

TWENTY-EIGHTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“Has none but this foreigner returned to give thanks to God?” —Luke 17:18

Many of us Most of us live relatively “easy” lives. We have food, shelter, clothing, and money. We go on vacation every year and own a car or two. Most of us take this all for granted. Did you ever notice that people with the least amount of possessions are usually the most grateful? Shouldn’t this be the other way around? Take time every day and thank God for all He has given you and discern how He is calling you to live Stewardship by sharing your gifts.

To be like God, have a sense of humor

By Fr. Ron Rolheiser

Does God have a sense of humor? This may seem a frivolous or impious question, however, it's anything but that. It's an important question and a reverent one as well.

Why? Because healthy humor and playful banter help bring joy, lightness of heart into our lives. Can we imagine all that wonderful lightness of heart having no connection to God?

Does God have a sense of humor? For sure! Without a doubt! Jesus teaches that God is the author of all good things. Humor, playfulness and healthy banter are good things. They can have their ultimate origin only in God.

Why are they good things? What positive role do they play in our lives?

Freud once suggested that sometimes we can understand things more clearly by looking at their opposites. What are the opposites of humor, playfulness and banter? We see their opposite in three things: over-seriousness, needless irritation and pomposity (none of which are healthy).

Consider this example: I have lived almost my entire adult life within a religious community of men, and by and large it has been positive and life-giving. But among the (literally) hundreds of men with whom I have shared community over more than 50 years, there have sometimes been associates who were over-serious and their presence in the community room or at table could effectively rob the room of joy.

I recall one such incident at table where someone shared a rather earthy joke (spicy, though not in bad taste). Most of us responded with a hearty laugh, but as soon as the laughter died down, one of our associates, in a heavy and overly pious tone, asked: "Would you tell a joke like that in front of the Blessed Sacrament? That not only ended the laughter in the room and injected a certain heaviness into our gathering, it also effectively drained the oxygen out of the room.

Over-seriousness, while not a moral deficiency, can leave us too raw before the demands of family and community to which we can never perfectly measure up. On the other hand, playfulness, humor and banter, when healthy, can provide some important "grease" for family and community life.

For example, when you join a religious congregation, you take a vow to live within a community (of men, in my case) for the rest of your life. You don't get to choose with whom you get to live. You are simply assigned to a community, which invariably will include some members whose temperament is different from yours and with whom you would not normally choose to live.

I have lived in this type of religious community for nearly 60 years and, with few exceptions, it has been life-giving and enjoyable; mostly because I have been blessed nearly always to live in a community where part of our very ethos has been the daily exchange of humor, playfulness and banter.

Prayer adds a common mission of course have been the main glue that held us together, but humor, playfulness and banter have helped to keep petty tensions and the occupational hazard of pomposity at bay. It's interesting to note that the classical Greek philosophers understood love as having six components: "eros," infatuation and attraction; "mania," obsession; "asteismos," polite mockery; "sorge," care; "philia," friendship; and "agape," altruism. When we define love we generally make room for most of those components, except asteismos, playfulness and banter. We pay a price for that.

God has a sense of humor, a sense of playfulness and a talent for banter far beyond that of our best comedians. How could it be otherwise? Can you imagine spending eternity in heaven without laughter and playfulness? Can you imagine God who is perfect love, but with whom you would be afraid to joke and banter?

Is the laugh before we die to be our last laugh forever? No. God has a sense of humor which will without doubt be a delightful surprise.

"God's Sense of Humor," published on June 5, 2022, on his website, ronrolheiser.com.
