Collect

O Almighty and most merciful God: of thy bountiful goodness keep us, we beseech thee, from all things that may hurt us; that we, being ready both in body and soul, may cheerfully accomplish those things which thou commandest through Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

First Reading

2 Kings 5:14-17

In those days: Naaman the Syrian went down and dipped himself seven times in the Jordan, according to the word of Elisha the man of God; and his flesh was restored like the flesh of a little child, and he was cleansed [from his leprosy]. Then he returned to the man of God, he and all his company, and he came and stood before him; and he said, "Behold, I know that there is no God in all the earth but in Israel; so accept now a present from your servant." But he said, "As the LORD lives, whom I serve, I will receive none." And he urged him to take it, but he refused. Then Naaman said, "If not, I beg you, let there be given to your servant two mules' burden of earth; for henceforth your servant will not offer burnt offering or sacrifice to any god but the LORD."

8 am and 6 pm Masses

Responsorial Psalm

98:1-4

R/. The Lord has revealed his victory in the sight of the nations.

O sing to the LORD a new song,
for he has done marvelous things!
His right hand and his holy arm
have gotten him victory. R/.

The LORD has made known his victory,
he has revealed his vindication
in the sight of the nations.
He has remembered his mercy and faithfulness to the house of Israel. R/.

All the ends of the earth
have seen the victory of our God.
Make a joyful noise to the LORD, all the earth;
break forth into joyous song and sing praises! R/.

10:30 am Mass only

Chanted by the Choir

Gradual

Psalm 145:15,16

The eyes of all wait upon thee, O Lord:
and thou givest them their meat in due season.
V./ Thou openest thy hand:
and fillest all things living with plenteousness.

Second Reading

2 Timothy 2:8-13

Beloved: Remember Jesus Christ, risen from the dead, descended from David, as preached in my Gospel, the Gospel for which I am suffering and wearing chains like a criminal. But the word of God is not chained. Therefore I endure everything for the sake of the elect, that they also may obtain the salvation which in Christ Jesus goes with eternal glory. The saying is sure: If we have died with him, we shall also live with him; if we endure, we shall also reign with him; if we deny him, he also will deny us; if we are faithless, he remains faithful--for he cannot deny himself.

8 am and 6 pm Masses

Alleluia.

V/. O give thanks unto the Lord, and call upon his Name: tell the people what things he hath done.

Alleluia.

10:30 am Mass
Chanted by the Choir.

Alleluia. Alleluia

O God, my heart is ready, my heart is ready:
I will sing,
and give praise with the best member that I have.
Alleluia.

The Holy Gospel

Luke 17:11-19

On the way to Jerusalem Jesus was passing along between Samaria and Galilee. And as he entered a village, he was met by ten lepers, who stood at a distance and lifted up their voices and said, "Jesus, Master, have mercy on us." When he saw them he said to them, "Go and show yourselves to the priests." And as they went they were cleansed. Then one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, praising God with a loud voice; and he fell on his face at Jesus' feet, giving him thanks. Now he was a Samaritan. Then said Jesus, "Were not ten cleansed? Where are the nine? Was no one found to return and give praise to God except this foreigner?" And he said to him, "Rise and go your way; your faith has made you well."

A NOTE FROM THE PASTOR

To the Parishioners of Saint Mary the Virgin,

During these 40 Days for Life and October being the Month of the Rosary one of the ministries I encouraged in the past was a pro-life table at the county fair. One of the items that we gave away were Rosaries with pamphlets on "How to Pray the Rosary." We saw that the vast majority of people had never heard of the Rosary, and I would say an equal number had probably never seen a crucifix. In fact, one person took the Rosary and then visibly shuddered upon seeing the corpus on the cross.

Speaking at the Shrine at Lourdes in 2008, Pope Benedict XVI reminded us that we venerate the cross because this instrument of torture became a source of life, pardon, mercy, reconciliation and peace. We "give thanks to God because from a tree which brought death, life has burst out anew." We have a savior that knows our pain, knows our despair and who can be trusted to walk with us on the path to eternal salvation if only we draw near and embrace our own crosses.

As Catholics we wear our crucifixes, place them in our homes and churches to show the world and remind ourselves how much God loves every one of us – sinner and saint alike. Pope Benedict pointed out that when Our Lady of Lourdes first appeared to Saint Bernadette, Mary began the encounter by making a sign of the cross. With this simple gesture, Mary initiated Bernadette and us into the mysteries of our faith.

Pope Benedict said "The sign of the Cross is a kind of synthesis of our faith, for it tells how much God loves us; it tells us that there is a love in this world that is stronger than death, stronger than our weaknesses and sins. The power of love is stronger than the evil which threatens us."

Our world is filled with violence – from public beheadings to the very private tearing apart of budding limbs on the abortionists' table. We need the reminder that evil does not triumph, that God's love and mercy are possible for all of us who call upon his name in humility. We need the reminder that although our Lord suffers with and for our sins, that his love can conquer our selfish, willful natures that he can forgive us; indeed that he wants to forgive us. He endured the cross to show us that we must forgive ourselves, forgive others. But we never have to do this alone.
