THE TENTH SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY AUGUST 20, 2017

DIVINE WORSHIP ORDER OF HOLY MASS

Low Mass 8:00 am, Sung Mass 10:30am, Low Mass 6:00 pm

See Mass card or Missalette

Collect

Let thy merciful ears, O Lord, be open to the prayers of thy humble servants: and that they may obtain their petitions, make them to ask such things as shall please thee; through Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord, who liveth and reigneth, with thee, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

First Reading

Isaiah 56:1,6-7

Thus says the LORD: "Keep justice, and do righteousness, for soon my salvation will come, and my deliverance be revealed. And the foreigners who join themselves to the LORD, to minister to him, to love the name of the LORD, and to be his servants, every one who keeps the Sabbath, and does not profane it, and holds fast my covenant—these I will bring to my holy mountain, and make them joyful in my house of prayer; their burnt offerings and their sacrifices will be accepted on my altar; for my house shall be called a house of prayer for all peoples."

8:00 am & 6:00 pm Masses only

Responsorial Psalm

67:1-2, 4-5, 7

R/. Let the peoples praise you, O God;
let all the peoples praise you!

May God be gracious to us and bless us
and make his face to shine upon us,
that your way may be known upon earth,
your saving power among all nations. R/.

Let the nations be glad and sing for joy,
for you judge the peoples with equity and guide the nations upon earth. R/.

Let the peoples praise you, O God;
let all the peoples praise you!
God has blessed us;
let all the ends of the earth fear him! R/.

Chanted by the choir at the 10:30 am Mass

Gradual

Psalm 17:8,2

O Lord our Governor:
how excellent is thy Name in all the world.
V. Thou hast set thy glory: above the heavens.

Second Reading

Romans 11:13-15, 29-32

Brethren: I am speaking to you Gentiles. Inasmuch then as I am an apostle to the Gentiles, I magnify my ministry in order to make my fellow Jews jealous, and thus save some of them. For if their rejection means the reconciliation of the world, what will their acceptance mean but life from the dead? For the gifts and the call of God are irrevocable. Just as you were once disobedient to God but now have received mercy because of their disobedience, so they have now been disobedient in order that by the mercy shown to you they also may receive mercy. For God has consigned all men to disobedience, they he may have mercy upon all.

8:00 am & 6:00 pm Masses only

Alleluia. Alleluia.

V/. Jesus was preaching the Gospel of the kingdom and healing every infirmity among the people.

Alleluia.

Chanted by the Choir at 10:30 am Mass

Alleluia.

Alleluia. Alleluia.

Thou, O God, art praised in Sion:
and unto thee shall the vow be performed in Jerusalem.
Alleluia.

The Holy Gospel

Matthew 15:21-28

At that time: Jesus went away and withdrew to the district of Tyre and Sidon. And behold, a Canaanite woman from that region came out and cried, "Have mercy on me, O Lord, Son of David; my daughter is severely possessed by a demon." But he did not answer her a word. And his disciples came and begged him, saying, "Send her away, for she is crying after us." He answered, "I was sent only to the lost sheep of the house of Israel." But she came and knelt before him, saying, "Lord, help me." And he answered, "It is not fair to take the children's bread and throw it to the dogs." She said, "Yes, Lord, yet even the dogs eat the crumbs that fall from their masters' table." Then Jesus answered her, "O woman, great is your faith! Let it be done for you as you desire." And her daughter was healed instantly.

PARISH NEWS AND NEEDS

HELP! We are in need of a replacement money counter for the Monday after the 4th Sunday of each month. This job takes only about 2 hours a month and exact time of counting can be arranged with the other counter on the team. If you have some free time during the day, please consider this easy way to help the parish. Contact the parish office if you would like to volunteer.

Would you like a task that you could do for the parish that you could do completely at home? Do you have an iron and ironing board? We are looking for some folks who would like to pick up altar linens on Sundays, then wash and iron them, returning them the next Sunday. Training would be provided. It's an easy task that can be done at your own convenience during the week. All we request is that they be ready to go the following Sunday. If you would consider doing this small but important job, please contact the parish office.

The SMV Bazaar is Saturday, October 28!
Registration forms available in the Parish Hall, or email Jacqui Payne to receive one electronically

Join Dr. Ron Ledek as his class continues discussing the historian and philosopher Etienne Gilson's book, The Spirit of Medieval Philosophy. We will meet in the seminar room at SMV on Tuesdays 7:45pm-9:15pm from September 5 - December 5. "Gilson's style remains relaxed and conversational, graciously avoiding the labyrinthine twists of syntax and logic that often accompany the topic of metaphysics. . . . [The book] is a text of tremendous value—perhaps most especially so in our own particular period in the history of philosophy. Gilson's book does more than merely overturn a few erroneous notions about mediaeval thinking; it works to remind its reader what it means to think and live within the structure of a metaphysical world-view." — Faith and Culture

Rachel's Corner

"The retreat process helped me to lay all my brokenness at the feet of Christ. I was able to ask Christ and my children for forgiveness."

TO THE PARISHIONERS OF SMV

We are continuing to look at Archbishop Chaput's book, Strangers in a Strange Land. I find it helpful to have other eyes look upon the various indicators, trends and scenarios of today's social and cultural landscape and make sure that what I see happening is indeed so. It is in that way we may better understand how to propose ways to offer a response to this rapidly changing landscape.

One of the things he notes is the idea of the pendulum of politics swinging back and forth, and waiting until "things will return to normal" is misleading, because loyalties change, and who we thought would stand a particular way is no longer doing so. "Traditionally, nations depend on the continuity of generations to transmit memories and belief across time and thus sustain their identity. At least for the United States, that pattern is now smashed. Discontinuity, more and more, drives today's American life."

"Little things, too, can have big consequences. The transistor, perfected in 1947...transformed the field of electronics" and "the advent of the birth control pill for public use in 1960." "Half a century after the sixties, many American young people are more committedly pro-life than their parents and even their grandparents. This seems ironic, but it shouldn't surprise. They've seen what abortion does. They lived with the fact that they could have been aborted. The humanity of the unborn child is obvious on any ultrasound machine. The bad news is that many of these same young adults are less interested in marrying than their parents were...they're also much more casual in pursuing active sexual lives, with or without the baggage of long-term commitment." "All of this underscores a simple fact: the surest way to transform a culture is from the inside out. And the surest path to doing it isn't through reasoned debate (too tedious) or violence (too costly) but by colonizing and reshaping the culture's appetites and behaviors."

One of the appetites that is killing (my word) civilization from the inside out is pornography. It changes brain chemistry, destroys marriages, breaks families and exploits people as objects in so many ways. Ask any priest, he will tell you the same. Why the people you would think would be so opposed to the exploitation of females are almost silent on this issue is chilling and a major indicator that everything is upside down.

The Archbishop quotes a Notre Dame study from 2011. "Emerging adults are oblivious to spiritual truth, service to the well-being of others...focusing almost exclusively on materialistic consumption and financial security...and where addictions and intoxications of all sorts are a central part of emerging adult culture...They do not know the moral landscape of the real world...they've had withheld from them something that every person deserves to have a chance to learn: how to think, speak, act well on matters of good and bad, right and wrong." And who did the withholding? "Adults and the adult world are almost always complicit in the troubles..."

"But the example of parents remains a key factor – often the key factor – in shaping young adult lives. The family is the main transmitter of religious convictions. Disrupting the family disrupts an entire cultural ecology."

And I would add, as we know the family is the first building block of society; and the first cell of the Church; all of which is under assault and well on the way to being destroyed. All of which was foretold by Our Lady of Fatima. Which makes what we see going on around and within us a spiritual battle; a battle with the prince of lies: the devil.
