in the donation box. As much as we would like to provide fresh foods, the CC office does not have a way to adequately store those things.

Per Don Brignac, who faithfully delivers our donations, about 75-80% of the food on the pantry shelves comes from the parishioners of St. Mary's.

Convivencia

The final meeting of Convivencia until the fall will be held on Saturday, May 25th at 3:30 p.m. in the parish hall.

For those couples with children and those who may not have children in the home and who seek time to share together amidst the many distractions of life, and who would like the opportunity to share with other parents of all ages — Convivencia is for YOU!

The children are also invited and are provided with an opportunity to grow in virtue through fun, supervised activities and lessons with their peers.

Convivencia provides an opportunity for couples to discuss the beautiful and timeless teachings of the Church in regard to marriage and family life with other married couples of the parish. The events conclude with a potluck dinner.

E-mail Blast List

The parish office occasionally sends out information to its parishioners via e-mail. If you'd like

Prayer for Vocations

Priest: Please kneel for our prayer for vocations. Let us ask God to give worthy priests, brothers and sisters to His Holy Church.

All: O God, / we earnestly beseech Thee / to bless this Ordinariate / with many priests, / brothers / and sisters, / who will love Thee with their whole strength / and gladly spend their entire lives / to serve Thy Church / and to make Thee known and loved.

Priest: Bless our families. / Bless our children.

All: Choose from our homes / those who are needed for Thy work.

Priest: Mary Queen of the Clergy!

All: Pray for us. Pray for our priests and religious. Obtain for us many more. Amen.

Fr. Prentice Dean, Pastor

Fr. Thomas Kennedy, Parochial Vicar

Welcome to The Catholic Church of St. Mary the Virgin. We are a parish of the Personal Ordinariate of the Chair of Saint Peter authorized by Pope Benedict XVI in 2012 for Anglicans seeking to become Catholic. Ordinariate parishes are fully Catholic, while retaining elements of their Anglican heritage and embracing the roots of the Catholic faith's rich tradition through reverent liturgy and historical music. All Catholics are invited to participate in our Divine Worship liturgy and receive communion by kneeling (if able) at the altar rail and receiving our Lord on the tongue.

Sacrament of Marriage

Please contact the parish for details regarding the preparation program. Under Ordinariate policy, couples should contact a member of the parish clergy at least six months prior to their proposed wedding date.

Collect

Almighty God, who alone makest the minds of the faithful to be of one will: grant unto thy people, that they may love the thing which thou commandest, and desire that which thou dost promise; that so, among the sundry and manifold changes of the world, our hearts may surely there be fixed, where true joys are to be found; through Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, ever one God, world without end. Amen

Scripture of the Mass

First Reading

The Acts of the Apostles 14:21b-27

In those days: Paul and Barnabas returned to Lystra and to Iconium and to Antioch, strengthening the souls of the disciples, exhorting them to continue in the faith, and saying that through many tribulations we must enter the kingdom of God. And when they had appointed elders for them in every Church, they committed them to the Lord in whom they believed.

Then they passed through Pisidia, and came to Pamphlia. And when they had spoken the word in Perga, they went down to Attalia; and from there they sailed to Antioch, where they had been commended to the grace of God for the work which they had fulfilled. And when they arrived, they gathered the Church together and declared all that God had done with them, and how he had opened a door of faith to the Gen-

8:00 a.m. & 6:00 p.m. Masses said by lector and people after the First Reading. Chanted by the choir at the 10:30 a.m. Mass.

Alleluia

Alleluia. Alleluia.

The right hand of the Lord hath the pre-eminence: the right hand of the Lord bringeth mighty things to pass.
Alleluia.

Second Reading

Revelation 21:1-5a

John, saw a new heaven and a new earth; for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and the sea was no more. And a saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband; and I heard a great voice from the throne saying, "Behold, the dwelling of God is with men. He will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself will be with them; he will wipe away every tear from their eyes, and death shall be no more, neither shall there be mourning nor crying nor pain any more, for the former things have passed away."

And he who sat upon the throne said, "Behold, I make all things new."

*8:00 a.m. & 6:00 p.m. Masses chanted by priest and people.
Chanted by the choir at the 10:30 a.m. Mass.*

Alleluia

Alleluia. Alleluia.

Christ, being raised from the dead, dieth no more: death hath no more dominion over him.
Alleluia.

The Holy Gospel

John 13:31-33a, 34-35

When Judas had gone out [from the upper room,] Jesus said, "Now is the Son of man glorified, and in him God is glorified; if God is glorified in him, God will also glorify him in himself, and glorify him at once. Little children yet a little while I am with you.

A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another even as I have loved you, that you also love one another. By this all men will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another."
