Ordinariate parishes are fully Catholic, while retaining elements of their Anglican heritage and embracing the roots of the Catholic faith's rich tradition through reverent liturgy and historical music. All Catholics are invited to participate in our Divine Worship liturgy and receive communion by kneeling (if able) at the altar rail and receiving our Lord on the tongue.

Scripture of the Mass

First Reading

Jeremiah 17:5-8

Thus says the Lord: "Cursed is the man who trusts in man and makes flesh his arm, whose heart turns away from the Lord. He is like a shrub in the desert, and shall not see any good come. He shall dwell in the parched places of the wilderness, in an uninhabited salt land. "Blessed is the man who trusts in the Lord, whose trust is the Lord. He is like a tree planted by water, that sends out its roots by the stream, and does not fear when heat comes, for its leaves remain green, and is not anxious in the year of drought, for it does not cease to bear fruit."

Gradual

The Lord will be a refuge in the time of trouble; and they that know thy Name will put their trust in thee: for thou, Lord, hast never failed them that seek thee.

V. For the poor shall not always be forgotten; the patient abiding of the meek shall not perish for ever: up, Lord, and let not man have the upper hand

Second Reading

I Corinthians 15:12, 16-20

Brethren: If Christ is preached as raised from the dead, how can some of you say that there is no resurrection of the dead? For if the dead are not raised, then Christ has not been raised. If Christ has not been raised, your faith is futile and you are still in your sins. Then those also who have fallen asleep in Christ have perished. If for this life only we have hoped in Christ, we are of all men most to be pitied. But in fact Christ has been raised from the dead, the first fruits of those who have fallen asleep.

Tract

Out of the deep have I called unto thee, O Lord: Lord, hear my voice.

V, O let thine ears consider well: the voice of my complaint.

V. If thou, Lord, wilt be extreme to mark what is done amiss: O Lord, who may abide it?

V. For there is mercy with thee: therefore shalt thou be feared.

The Holy Gospel

Luke 6:17, 20-26

At that time: Jesus came down with the Twelve and stood on a level place, with a great crowd of his disciples and a great multitude of people from all Judea and Jerusalem and the seacoast of Tyre and Sidon, who came to hear him and to be healed of their diseases. And he lifted up his eyes on his disciples and said: "Blessed are you poor, for yours is the kingdom of God. "Blessed are you that hunger now, for you shall be satisfied. "Blessed are you that weep now, for you shall laugh. "Blessed are you when men hate you, and when they exclude you and revile you, and cast out your name as evil, on account of the Son of man! Rejoice in that day, and leap for joy, for behold, your reward is great in heaven; for so their fathers did to the prophets. "But woe to you that are rich, for you have received your consolation. "Woe to you that are full now, for you shall hunger. "Woe to you that laugh now, for you shall mourn and weep. "Woe to you, when all men speak well of you, for so their fathers did to the false prophets."

Your participation is essential to the success of the Ordinariate. Please join other Catholics from throughout the Ordinariate in supporting this very important appeal next week. Thank you for your support.

Dear Friends in Christ:

Septuagesima, Sexagesima and Quinquagesima

Dear Friends in Christ:+

Today is the first Sunday of Gesimatide – the Sundays of Septuagesima, (today), Sexagesima, next week, and Quinquagesima, (one of my all-time favorite ecclesiastical words to say!) in two weeks. Every year as I prepare for this “mini season” in the Liturgical Calendar, I am grateful that in the Ordinate because we can keep many elements of the old calendar. I have always loved these old “Gesima” Sundays - which form this pre-Lenten season that served as a bridge between Epiphany tide and the great Forty Days of Lent”.

But what do these odd Latin words mean? Septuagesima is simply another word for Seventy Days, that’s all. The modern English word is derived from Middle English in turn from Old French in turn from the actual Late Latin word septuagesima meaning seventieth day.

The septua- part is the same prefix for seven or multiples by ten of seven seen in other English words — “septet”, an ensemble of seven; “septuagenarian”, someone in his 70s; the Septuagint, the translation into Greek of the Hebrew Scriptures by seventy scholars — and the - gesima part derives from the Latin for days, dies. Seventieth day from Easter, no more complicated than that! So, Septuagesima is 70 Days, Sexagesima is 60 Days, Quinquagesima is 50 Days. Simple.

During Gesimatide, the white vestments of Christmastime joy now give way to the sombre purple or violet of repentance; the “Gloria” is not used at Sunday Mass, or the Alleluia as in any other mass. We will sing the simpler, but much beloved, Healey Willan Mass Setting, “Missa De Sancta Maria Magdalena” at the 10:30 High Mass. You may note that the readings these next few weeks will tend to follow this notion: A Change is coming.

These Gesima Sundays, then, are a time-tested way to assist us to get ready for Lent, and I invite all to experience them in this way.

Faithfully,

Your friend and Pastor,

Fr. Christopher C. Stainbrook
