Fr. Christopher Stainbrook, Pastor
Fr. Thomas Kennedy, Parochial Vicar

Welcome to The Catholic Church of St. Mary the Virgin. We are a parish of the Personal Ordinariate of the Chair of Saint Peter authorized by Pope Benedict XVI in 2012 for Anglicans seeking to become Catholic. Ordinariate parishes are fully Catholic, while retaining elements of their Anglican heritage and embracing the roots of the Catholic faith's rich tradition through reverent liturgy and historical music. All Catholics are invited to participate in our Divine Worship liturgy and receive communion by kneeling (if able) at the altar rail and receiving our Lord on the tongue.

Sacrament of Marriage

Please contact the parish for details regarding the preparation program. Under Ordinariate policy, couples should contact a member of the parish clergy at least six months prior to their proposed wedding date.

Collect

Let thy merciful ears, O Lord, be open to the prayers of thy humble servants, and that they may obtain their petitions, make them to ask such things as shall please thee; through Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

Scripture of the Mass

First Reading

Isaiah 66:18-21

Thus says the Lord: "I know their works and their thoughts, and I am coming to gather all nations and tongues; and they shall come and shall see my glory, and I will set a sign among them. And from them I will send survivors to the nations, to Tarshish, Put, and Lud, who draw the bow, to Tubal and Javan, to the islands afar off, that have not heard my fame or seen my glory; and they shall declare my glory among the nations. And they shall bring all your brethren from all the nations as an offering to the Lord, upon horses, and in chariots, and in litters, and upon mules, and upon dromedaries, to my holy mountain Jerusalem, says the Lord, just as the sons of Israel bring their cereal offering in a clean vessel to the house of the Lord. And some of them also I will take for priests and for Levites, says the Lord."

Gradual

Keep me, O Lord, as the apple of an eye:
hide me under the shadow of thy wings.

V. Let my sentence come forth from thy presence: and let thine eyes look upon the thing that is equal.

Second Reading

Hebrews 12:5-7, 11-13

Brethren: Have you forgotten the exhortation which addresses you as sons?-- "My son, do not regard lightly the discipline of the Lord, nor lose courage when you are punished by him. For the Lord disciplines him whom he loves, and chastises every son whom he receives."

It is for discipline that you have to endure. God is treating you as sons; for what son is there whom his father does not discipline? For the moment all discipline seems painful rather than pleasant; later it yields the peaceful fruit of righteousness to those who have been trained by it.

Therefore lift your drooping hands and strengthen your weak knees, and make straight paths for your feet, so that what is lame may not be put out of joint but rather be healed.

Alleluia

Alleluia. Alleluia

Thou, O God, art praised in Sion: and unto thee shall the vow be performed in Jerusalem.

Alleluia

The Holy Gospel

Luke 13:22-30

At that time: Jesus went on his way through towns and villages, teaching, and journeying toward Jerusalem. And some one said to him, "Lord, will those who are saved be few?"

And he said to them, "Strive to enter by the narrow door; for many, I tell you, will seek to enter and will not be able. When once the householder has risen up and shut the door, you will begin to stand outside and to knock at the door, saying, 'Lord, open to us.' He will answer you, 'I do not know where you come from.' Then you will begin to say, 'We ate and drank in your presence, and you taught in our streets.' But he will say, 'I tell you, I do not know where you come from; depart from me, all you workers of iniquity!'

There you will weep and gnash your teeth, when you see Abraham and Isaac and Jacob and all the prophets in the kingdom of God and you yourselves thrust out.

And men will come from east and west, and from north and south, and sit at table in the kingdom of God. And behold, some are last who will be first, and some are first who will be last."

The intention of this mass is to help the healing process for parents who have lost children through miscarriage, still birth or abortion. We encourage others to attend in order to support those families who are grieving this difficult loss. Individual roses will be provided for parents who wish to place them on the Virgin Mary’s altar, in memory of their children.

Registration for Fall Sunday School Classes

The SMV Religious Education Classes for this Fall will begin on September 11, the first weekend after the Labor Day, and go through the end of May as we had it last year.

The registration forms will be available at the Narthex, in the parish hall and outside the RE office. The filled forms can be returned to the parish office or dropped in the gray box outside the RE office.

You can also register online at <https://stmarythevirgin.org/re-registration-22-23>

Dear Friends in Christ:

Some of you may have seen me when I preached the homily at the 7 PM Assumption Mass on Monday, or saw me celebrate the 6 PM Mass on Tuesday, or perhaps made a confession to me while I was in the confessional on Wednesday. God be praised, my strength and lab numbers have improved, and the doctors have released me to return to my beloved duties here at the Catholic Church of St. Mary the Virgin. The Bishop, my doctors, my Parish Council, and my loyal staff have all cautioned me to try to take it somewhat slowly and ease gradually back into full-time parish ministry.

parish is integrating back into our full Fall schedule.

Our parish is a special one to belong to. And we welcome back all who were away this summer, all our regular parishioners, and our newcomers.

Again, I thank each and every one from the bottom of my heart, for all your support of me as your pastor during my hospitalization and recuperation this summer.

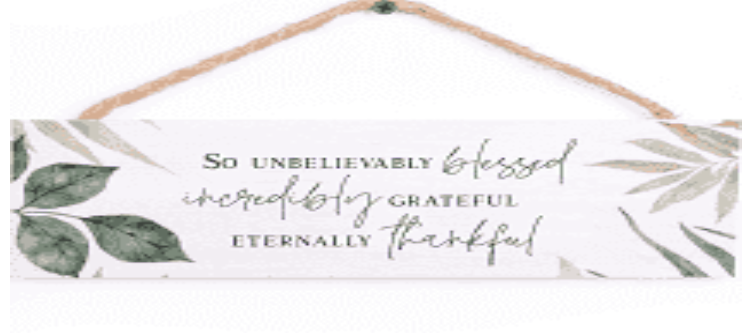

Faithfully, your grateful Friend and Pastor,
Fr. Christopher C. Stainbrook.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank the many parishioners who sent cards and letters, who offered spiritual bouquets, and who participated in the Meal Train by bringing me delicious meals throughout my recovery! Our parish is truly a special one, where we do practice the Corporal Works of Mercy, at least for your Pastor!

I met with the Staff on Wednesday, and I am very excited that two new ministries will begin this fall. Our young adult ministry will begin on Friday August 26th with a fun outing, (see their announcement in the bulletin). Also, we are starting a Youth Group for children aged 12-18, which will be beginning very soon as well! Christian Education for all ages will begin on Sunday, September 11th, the week after Labor Day, as is our tradition.

So, as your Pastor is integrating back into his role, our

Prayer for Vocations

Priest: Please kneel for our prayer for vocations. / Let us ask God to give worthy priests, brothers and sisters to His Holy Church.

All: O God, / we earnestly beseech Thee / to bless this Ordinariate / with many priests, / brothers / and sisters, / who will love Thee with their whole strength / and gladly spend their entire lives / to serve Thy Church / and to make Thee known and loved.

Priest: Bless our families. / Bless our children.

All: Choose from our homes / those who are needed for Thy work.

Priest: Mary Queen of the Clergy!

All: Pray for us. / Pray for our priests and religious. / Obtain for us many more. Amen.
