Fr. Christopher Stainbrook, Pastor

Welcome to The Catholic Church of St. Mary the Virgin. We are a parish of the Personal Ordinariate of the Chair of Saint Peter authorized by Pope Benedict XVI in 2012 for Anglicans seeking to become Catholic. Ordinariate parishes are fully Catholic, while retaining elements of their Anglican heritage and embracing the roots of the Catholic faith's rich tradition through reverent liturgy and historical music. All Catholics are invited to participate in our Divine Worship liturgy and receive communion by kneeling (if able) at the altar rail and receiving our Lord on the tongue.

Sacrament of Marriage

Please contact the parish for details regarding the preparation program. Under Ordinariate policy, couples should contact a member of the parish clergy at least six months prior to their proposed wedding date.

Collect

O Lord, who never failest to help and govern them whom thou dost bring up in thy steadfast fear and love: keep us, we beseech thee, under the protection of good providence; and make us to have a perpetual fear and love of thy holy Name; through Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with the Father, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

Scripture of the Mass

First Reading

Exodus 19:2-6a

In those days: When the people of Israel came into the wilderness of Sinai, they encamped in the wilderness; and there Israel encamped before the mountain. And Moses went up to God and the Lord called to him out of the mountain, saying, "Thus you shall say to the houses of Jacob, and tell the sons of Israel: You have seen what I did to the Egyptians and how I bore you on eagles' wings and brought you to myself. Now therefore, if you will obey my voice and keep my covenant you shall be my own possession among all peoples; for all the earth is mine., and you shall be to me a kingdom of priests and a holy nation."

Gradual

When I was in trouble, I called upon the Lord:
and he heard me.

V. Deliver my soul, O Lord, from lying lips:
and from a deceitful tongue

Second Reading

Romans 5:6-11

Brethren: While we were yet helpless, at the right time Christ died for the ungodly. Why, one will hardly die for a righteous man—though perhaps for a good man one will dare even to die. But God shows his love for us in that while we were yet sinners Christ died for us. Since, therefore, we are now justified by his blood, much more shall we be saved by him from the wrath of God. For if while we were enemies we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son, much more, now that we are reconciled, shall we be saved by his life. Not only so, but we also rejoice in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have now received our reconciliation.

Alleluia

Alleluia. Alleluia.

O Lord my God, in thee have I put my trust: save me from all them that persecute me, and deliver me.

Alleluia.

The Holy Gospel

Matthew 19:36-10:8

At that time: When Jesus saw the crowds, he had compassion for them, because they were harassed and helpless, like sheep without a shepherd. Then he said to his disciples, "The harvest is plentiful, but the laborers are few; pray therefore the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into his harvest."

And he called to him his twelve disciples and gave them authority over unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to heal every disease and every infirmity. The names of the twelve apostles are these: first, Simon, who is called Peter, and Andrew his brother; James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother; Philip and Bartholomew; Thomas and Matthew the tax collector; James the son of Alphaeus, and Thaddaeus; Simon the Cananaean, and Judas Iscariot, who betrayed him.

These Twelve Jesus sent out, charging them, "Go nowhere among the Gentiles, and enter no town of the Samaritans, but go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel. And preach as you go, saying, 'The Kingdom of heaven is at hand.' Heal the sick, raise the dead, cleanse lepers, cast out demons. You received without pay, give without pay."

Summertime Dress

As mentioned in the Pastor's letter, there is no 'dress code' at our church. However, in order to show respect to Our Blessed Lord, we do suggest that men wear collared shirts (no tee shirts with graphics, etc.) and long pants with appropriate footwear. Ladies are requested to wear clothing reflecting an awareness of this sacred space (no halters, crop tops, tee shirts, shorts, etc.) A good barometer for church wear is to picture what you would choose to wear

San Lorenzo's Kitchen

Our Meal Train ministry is receiving a n overhaul and a new name.. Please keep an eye out for an email that will explain the changes. We hope to recruit many volunteers for this important ministry and encourage more use of it in the future.. It can be such a blessing and we'd like to extend that to many more of our families who could use a hand—and a meal!

Dear Friends in Christ:

With the return of summer, it's time for another edition of "Ordinariate Observances" - helpful reminders that I like to share a few times a year.

Please put your cellphone on "silent" mode when at church. Most phones will vibrate when in this mode, and all phones will keep a record of missed calls. Having a cellphone go off (no matter how popular the tune or ringtone may be) almost always serves as a (big) distraction at mass.

Please do not block the driveways of our neighbors. Public streets are just that, public, and you are free to park on them; but blocking a driveway is discourteous at best, and irksome at worst, if the offended neighbor calls the police to tow the vehicle.

Please do not applaud in church. While our organist and choir are (often) deserving of this affirmation, it is inappropriate because they sing not just to edify and inspire the congregation, but to give glory to God. In that vein, at the 10:30am and 1:00pm Masses, please stay when you can, and listen to the postlude after the final hymn. Our organist praises God with this musical ending, and it is a good way to leave the church on a happy note... (I couldn't resist) Please do not park in the handicapped spaces in the parking lot without a special license plate or hanging placard. Respecting handicapped and disabled people in this way is not just the Christian thing to do, it's also the law.

There is an announcement about appropriate dress (especially in summer) elsewhere in this bulletin. For my letter, then, I will just quote Cardinal Timothy Dolan, the Archbishop of New York who tweeted last Saturday: "When we go to Mass, we should dress appropriately. I'm not talking about tuxedos, but we should clean up and have presentable dress. Let's restore, revive, and maintain our reverence in the Most Holy Eucharist." Clear words from the Senior Shepherd of the Catholic Church in the USA.

Please remember to accompany your children to the restrooms. Since these are in the parish hall, it really is the most prudent practice for parents.

By following these simple "Ordinariate Observances" we show greater honor to Our Blessed Lord, respect and charity to each other.

Faithfully,
Your Friend and Pastor,
Fr. Christopher C. Stainbrook
