KEEPING IN TOUCH

This week has been a full one. On Sunday evening we had the fund raiser for Resurrection Catholic School. It went very well. It was great to see people from our parishes there as well as people who are connected to our parishes. Catholic education is so important today so I am filled with great gratitude for the prayers and support that we received for our School.

On Monday morning I finished packing and jumped in the car for my 7.5 or so hour drive to La Crosse. The trip went very well and I was glad for a comfortable room in the hotel that night. The next morning we began our meetings. They were great and the questions that came from the talks were very insightful. Not only were the presentations great, but it was good to connect with fellow canonist and civil lawyers who I have not seen since last year. We had some great conversations in the evenings as we got caught up with one another.

As I write this I am preparing to drive home. I am grateful for your prayers and know that they will carry me home safely. Be assured you were in mine this past week. I am looking forward to getting home and look forward to what the coming week will hold ... I sure it will be full!

Blessings,

Fr. Joseph

FORGIVENESS 101 - FREE WORKSHOPS

In partnership with Forgiveness Institute KC, the Office of Evangelization will be hosting Forgiveness 101 workshops in Topeka and Johnson County in September. Chuck Jansen (founder) will be offering these workshops for pastors and parish leaders interested in learning more about the process of forgiveness. Pastors/parish leaders that attend will be equipped with training and materials to share this content at their parishes with other small groups. Many pastors share with us the pain of broken relationships experienced within their parish communities. This brokenness can be a deep wound that affects our lives, communities and our relationships with Christ.

These workshops (and this program) are being offered as part of the diocesan year of preparation in support of parish life through the Revival: Eucharist Amazement initiative.
