

HOLY FAMILY CHURCH ~ Gems

Twenty-Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time
September 17, 2022

KEEPING IN TOUCH

This past week has been a full week. I began the week by being out of town for two days at the Monastery in Oklahoma where I am the extraordinary confessor. It is always good to be there, but I am all day in the confessional. In addition to hearing confessions, I also assist someone in the area with canonical matters and so before leaving, I met with them. While it was good to return home what awaited me for the remainder of the week was meetings, office work and a funeral. Part of the office work that awaited me was the transition of a computer program that I use in my office at the Chancery. My experience over the years is that no matter how much they tell you the transition will go smoothly there is always bumps. This transition certainly has its bumps, but I am excited for the new capabilities that it allows us. Now coming to the end of the week, I am pleased with what has been accomplished and I look forward to what awaits me next week.

Blessings,

Fr. Joseph
