

Holy Family Church GEMS

Solemnity of Pentecost Sunday Sunday, May 28, 2023

On the evening of that first day of the week, when the doors were locked, where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in their midst and said to them, "Peace be with you." When he had said this, he showed them his hands and his side. The disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you." And when he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained."

KEEPING IN TOUCH

It is hard to believe that we have come to the end of the Easter season with the celebration of Pentecost. When we celebrate Pentecost, we celebrate not only the descent of the Holy Spirit, but the birth of the Church. As we give thanks for the gifts of the Spirit, we also give thanks for the gift of the Church. So we pray that the Church will continue to grow and to proclaim the message of the good news.

It is also hard for me to believe that it is time once again to go to the monastery where I am the Extraordinary Confessor. I will leave on Sunday afternoon to travel to the monastery and will hear confessions all day Monday and part of Tuesday and will be home Tuesday night. Please pray for me that the trip will be safe and that my time at the monastery ministering to the monks will be a blessed time.

Blessings,

Fr. Joseph M. Arsenault, SSA

WITH APPRECIATION

Thank you to parishioners Steve Carey and his grandson, Cooper Low, for putting in a new light in the ceiling of the church and for removing the old speaker ball in the ceiling.

This was no easy task. Cooper had to climb the built -in wooden ladder located on the choir loft and walk across the long corridor of the ceiling attic. He lowered the speaker down using a rope. Cooper, an electrician by trade, repaired and replaced the ceiling light in the church, as well.

In Flanders Fields

****

by JOHN MCCRAE

In Flanders fields the poppies blow Between the crosses, row on row, That mark our place; and in the sky The larks, still bravely singing, fly Scarce heard amid the guns below.

We are the Dead. Short days ago We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow, Loved and were loved, and now we lie, In Flanders fields.

Take up our quarrel with the foe: To you from failing hands we throw The torch; be yours to hold it high. If ye break faith with us who die We shall not sleep, though poppies grow In Flanders fields.
