Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

KEEPING IN TOUCH

As we hear in the Gospel this week Jesus says, "Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest." This invitation from the Lord brings great joy to my heart.

This past year has been a very busy year for me and with the words of Jesus ringing in my ear, I will be heading off for vacation with my family for the next two weeks. While I am away, several priests have graciously agreed to say the masses. Please welcome them, as I know you will, and please pray for me that this time with my family will be restful and blessed and that my travel be safe. Also be assured that I carry all of you in my thoughts and prayers. See you soon!

Blessings,
Fr. Joseph M. Arsenault, SSA

At the time Jesus exclaimed: "I give praise to you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, for although you have hidden these things from the wise and the learned you have revealed them to little ones. Yes, Father, such has been your gracious will. All things have been handed over to me by my Father. No one knows the Son except the Father, and no one knows the Father except the Son and anyone to whom the Son wishes to reveal him.

"Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am meek and humble of heart; and you will find rest for yourselves. For my yoke is easy, and my burden light."
