KEEPING IN TOUCH

Greetings from the airport in Orlando! As I write this I am awaiting to get on a plane heading home. The Convention this week was very good and it was great seeing people I have not seen in a year. There was also some sadness in that a person that I always looked forward to catching up with and spending time with during the Convention died this past year. I missed her presence and pray for eternal rest having served the Lord faithfully. On another note you may remember that I am in charge of liturgies for our Convention. I am happy to say that they went well and everyone seemed to be happy with them (yes priests, Sisters and lay canonists do complain for one reason or another ... Liturgy went too long and breakfast was almost all gone by the time we got there ...etc ...). Free of complaints this year I make some notes to prepare for next year. With the convention over I look forward to being home and seeing you all!

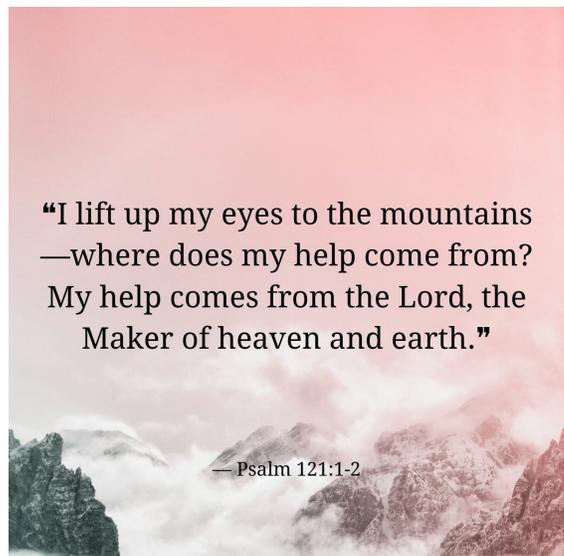

Blessings!

Fr. Joseph M. Arsenault, SSA
Pastor

"I lift up my eyes to the mountains
—where does my help come from?
My help comes from the Lord, the Maker of heaven and earth."

—Psalm 121:1-2
