KEEPING IN TOUCH

This past week was what I might refer to as a normal week. I was especially grateful for this having just returned from the Canon Law Convention. As things began to settle and I began to think back over the past little while, I immediately began to think about the wonderful celebration from my 25th Anniversary. As I said that night I am filled with gratitude.

I also want to take this opportunity in a general way to thank once again all those who attended, all those who sent greetings who could not attend, and all those who gave gifts in many and varied ways. My deep gratitude for all your love and kindness towards me is a gift that I will always hold dear to my heart. Again, thank you!

Blessings!
