

Holy Family Church GEMS

The Dedication of the Lateran Basilica

November 9, 2025

John 2, 13-22

Since the Passover of the Jews was near, Jesus went up to Jerusalem. He found in the temple area those who sold oxen, sheep, and doves, as well as the money-changers seated there. He made a whip out of cords and drove them all out of the temple area, with the sheep and oxen, and spilled the coins of the money-changers and overturned their tables, and to those who sold doves he said, "Take these out of here, and stop making my Father's house a marketplace." His disciples recalled the words of Scripture, Zeal for your house will consume me. At this the Jews answered and said to him, "What sign can you show us for doing this?" Jesus answered and said to them, "Destroy this temple and in three days I will raise it up." - John 2:13-22

KEEPING IN TOUCH

This past week was my week for Resurrection Catholic School. On Tuesday morning I heard confessions for the school, on Wednesday morning I celebrated mass for the school and on Thursday morning I visited the eighth grade students. It is always a joy to be around the children and to see the good things that Catholic education is providing them.

We are very blessed to be able to provide this great gift of quality education and faith formation. It is not always easy to do this because as we know nothing in this world is free. To that end I was also very blessed to be in attendance last Saturday night at the Gaudeamus. This is a yearly event that raises money to provide tuition financial assistance/scholarships to families where without it Catholic education would not be possible. It was a great event and it raised a significant amount for the support of our students many of which would be unable to attend Resurrection School. As we give thanks for Catholic education we also give thanks for the generosity of so many who are investing not only in Catholic education, but indeed in the future of the church.

Blessings!

Fr. Joseph M. Arsenault, SSA
Pastor
