

Saint Barnabas' Story

Barnabas, a Jew of Cyprus, comes as close as anyone outside the Twelve to being a full-fledged apostle. He was closely associated with Saint Paul—he introduced Paul to Peter and the other apostles—and served as a kind of mediator between the former persecutor and the still suspicious Jewish Christians.

When a Christian community developed at Antioch, Barnabas was sent as the official representative of the church of Jerusalem to incorporate them into the fold. He and Paul instructed in Antioch for a year, after which they took relief contributions to Jerusalem.

Later Paul and Barnabas, now clearly seen as charismatic leaders, were sent by Antioch officials to preach to the gentiles. Enormous success crowned their efforts. After a miracle at Lystra, the people wanted to offer sacrifice to them as gods—Barnabas being Zeus, and Paul, Hermes—but the two said, "We are of the same nature as you, human beings. We proclaim to you good news that you should turn from these idols to the living God" (see Acts 14:8-18).

But all was not peaceful. They were expelled from one town, they had to go to Jerusalem to clear up the ever-recurring controversy about circumcision, and even the best of friends can have differences. When Paul wanted to revisit the places they had evangelized, Barnabas wanted to take along his cousin John Mark, author of the Gospel, but Paul insisted that since Mark had deserted them once, he was not fit to take along now. The disagreement that followed was so sharp that Barnabas and Paul separated: Barnabas taking Mark to Cyprus, Paul taking Silas to Syria. Later they were reconciled—Paul, Barnabas and Mark.

When Paul stood up to Peter for not eating with gentiles for fear of his Jewish friends, we learn that "even Barnabas was carried away by their hypocrisy" (see Galatians 2:1-13).

Ordinary Time begins on June 6th

During the week we are back to green. That means it's the "growing time". I imagine that after your Lenten sacrifices and your Paschal joys of the last 50 days, things might have started growing the wrong way. Now is the time to turn back to that spiritual growth. Get out the Bible, your rosary...go to confession, go pray in front of the Blessed Sacrament.

Ya estamos en el tiempo liturgico del Ordinario. El tiempo del crecimiento. Abren sus Biblias. Sacen sus rosarios. Arripiéntense de sus pecados. Visiten nuestro Señor en el Santísimo Sacramento.

Corpus Christi

The feast of the Body and Blood of Christ! If you haven't noticed the world has lost its love and reverence or even understanding of the true and real presence of Jesus' Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity in the Holy Eucharist. Across the USA we are starting a "Eucharistic Revival". A time to refocus on this great gift given to us each and everytime we come to Holy Mass.

In our churches we are going to start having monthly Holy Hours or some places even weekly. Please take advantage of such opportunities to worship and adore our Lord. Times will be announced each month.

Con la fiesta del Corpus Christi, todas las iglesias en los Estados Unidos van a empezar una jornada de 3 años para reinvigorar nuestro amor y conocimiento de la Eucaristía. Es muy triste que la mayoría de los católicos no creen en the verdadera presencia de Jesucristo in la Eucaristía. Para participar en esta jornada, vamos a tener una Hora Santa en cada iglesia cada mes.

Sacred Heart of Jesus, June 24th

Consecrate your hearts and homes to the Sacred Heart of Jesus. This is an ancient tradition called the enthronement of the Sacred Heart. Take an image or statue of the Sacred Heart of Jesus and place it in a prominent place in your home where you can be constantly reminded of the need to draw closer to Him!

Para la fiesta del Sagrado Corazón de Jesús es una buena tradición de entronizar una imagen el Sagrado Corazón en su Casa.
