PASTOR'S NOTES

A D-I-Y Study on this Sunday's Readings

Our Sunday gospels have been giving us strong and personal challenges lately, while this week Christ's words are more encouraging. The apostles express the weakness of their faith, and rather than just trying harder they do what we all must do: turn to Jesus to fill in where we are deficient. How is your faith or another aspect of your life weak? How can you pray for help?

"The apostles said to the Lord, 'Increase our faith.'" This request from the apostles comes immediately after Christ spoke to them about forgiveness. "Even if [your brother or sister] sin against you seven times in a day and seven times come back to you saying, 'I repent,' you must forgive them." Those are challenging words that could make us feel indignant and stubborn or remind us that we need God's help. Gladly, the apostles responded with the latter. Faith is a gift from God. We turn to God for help because he helps us turn to him! Where have you come up against some of your inadequacies? How can you turn that frustrating experience into prayer?

"If you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you would say to (this) mulberry tree, 'Be uprooted and planted in the sea,' and it would obey you." The image on the front of this bulletin is a mulberry tree. It is a large tree with an extensive root system. It would be difficult to uproot this tree, and basically impossible to grow it in seawater. Jesus uses a bit of a ridiculous example to tell his apostles that genuine faith, that is, surrender, can bring about quite unexpected results. Surrender is at the root of the 12 Step programs that have helped many achieve sobriety in their lives. Surrender can free us from the many anxieties we carry too often. What are you trying to keep control of in your life, even though it is clearly not working? Speak to God about that now.

"We are unprofitable servants. We have done what we were obliged to do." It seems strange that Jesus makes this point about working hard right after telling his apostles about the necessity of faith. There are two sides to being a disciple: with faith we can do anything, but we must continue to labor until the end. The labor flows out of our faith that God will work out his perfect plan. Laziness that masks itself as faith is rooted in no trust at all. How can you approach your work with greater trust?

POPE FRANCIS' PRAYER INTENTIONS FOR

OCTOBER: We pray that the Church may be a community of solidarity, fraternity and welcome, faithful and courageous in preaching the Gospel.

Please pray for the following people: PRAYERS DO WORK! Karyn Holen, Fr. Michael Parrotta, Brad Nogosek, Tod Nogosek, Carl Pierson, Jana Michels & her family, Renae Kerr, Lori Dally, Helen Seefeldt, Tim Robideau, Sarah Smith, Stanley Wald, Cecilia Teske, Angie Werner, Rhonda Anderson, Fran Roehrich. If you would like to add another person's name to our list, please ask their permission, first. Names are included for one month. If you would like yourself or a loved one to be listed for additional weeks, please contact the office!

STEWARDSHIP MOMENTS: 27th Sunday in Ordinary Time "For God did not give us a spirit of cowardice but rather of power and love and self-control." - 2 TIMOTHY 1:7 Many of us compartmentalize our faith; we bring it out only when we attend Mass or when we attend a parish event. Being a good steward requires discipline and striving to put God first in everything - all the time. The next time you are at a neighborhood party or at work or out shopping, would your words and actions signal to others that you are a good and faithful servant of our Lord?

DEANERY MEETING Tuesday Oct. 4 at 7:00pm at Holy Rosary Parish Center. Parish reps from Holy Rosary (LaMoure), Assumption (Dickey), St. Raphael (Verona), Transfiguration (Edgeley), Holy Spirit (Nortonville), St. Helena (Ellendale), & St. Patrick (Fullerton) are asked to attend.

ST FRANCIS CEMETERY IN MARION The board for St Francis Cemetery has been considering merging themselves with Lakewood Cemetery alongside of it. We will have a brief meeting at Assumption Church after Mass on Saturday, October 15 to discuss this. If you have thoughts but cannot attend the meeting, please connect with Fr Haman before the meeting!

SAINT GIANNA'S MATERNITY HOME

You are not alone. We care about you and your baby.

Saint Gianna's is a Catholic Home for pregnant women who do not have the support or resources they need to give birth to and care for their children. Our job is to welcome women into our home and our hearts, to provide them with resources and strategies for pregnancy and parenting, and show them a loving home in the midst of the world.

One mother. One baby. One family at a time.
