Message from the Pastor

What are you thankful for? It's a simple question to ask. The words roll off the tongue like a worn-out cliché. People may ask in regular conversation. Countless social media posts with this question will weave in and out of timelines and feeds.

There will be many different answers to this question. Some will give deep philosophical or theological answers about life and God. Others will give seemingly more simple answers like family and friends. There will also be those who won't be able to give an answer.

For many, giving thanks doesn't come naturally. In fact, it can be a very difficult task. This doesn't mean life is bad. Some simply find it hard to think of good things.

When a challenge or a problem comes up in our lives, we focus most of our attention and energy on it. That's not necessarily a bad thing. This can help us overcome difficulties better and quicker. The problem is we don't always have much energy left to focus on the good things. So they often pass by us unnoticed.

Naming things we are thankful for, or counting our blessings, can help counteract this effect in our lives. When we intentionally show gratitude, we feel better about our lives and about the world around us. Showing gratitude helps us to readjust the lenses we look at life through and see a better, more accurate, reflection of reality.

Take some time this Thanksgiving to express exactly what you're thankful for. You can tell your friends and family on social media. It will help them and it will help you. You might even want to write a few gratitude letters to people who you're grateful for. You'll feel a lot better if you do. How do you think it would make someone else feel to receive a letter like that?

As we celebrate Thanksgiving Day, I would like to say a heartfelt thank you to Priests, Teachers, Lay Ministers—in school and C.C.D., to Parish and School Staff, Workers Volunteers, and indeed to all who contribute in any way to the well-being of our parish family, be it by their encouragement, their concern, their time, talent, treasure or their prayers.

And last but not least, I thank God for all of you. May the Good Lord bless you and your families on this Thanksgiving Day and may the spirit of giving and sharing that first made this day possible ever remain alive in our midst.

Have a wonderful week and a blessed Thanksgiving. I hope to see you at our special Thanksgiving Day Mass at 11 am.

Fr. Darin Burke

As you temporarily participate at Mass in this different way, you and you families are encouraged to make a daily Spiritual Communion by praying:

Spiritual Communion Prayer

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the most Blessed Sacrament. I love You above all things and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot now receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there, and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

Pastor's Musing

Three ladies were discussing the travails of getting older. One said "Sometimes I catch myself with a jar of mayonnaise in my hand, while standing in front of the refrigerator, and I can't remember whether I need to put it away, or start making a sandwich." The second lady chimed in with, "Yes, sometimes I find myself on the landing of the stairs and can't remember whether I was on my way up or on my way down." The third one responded, "Well, ladies, I'm glad I don't have that problem. Knock on wood," as she rapped her knuckles on the table, and then said, "That must be the door, I'll get it!"

Lectionary: 161

Reading I

Dn 7:13-14

As the visions during the night continued, I saw one like a Son of man coming,
 on the clouds of heaven;
 when he reached the Ancient One
 and was presented before him,
 the one like a Son of man received dominion, glory,
 and kingship;
 all peoples, nations, and languages serve him.
 His dominion is an everlasting dominion
 that shall not be taken away,
 his kingship shall not be destroyed.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 93:1, 1-2, 5

R. The Lord is king; he is robed in majesty.

The LORD is king, in splendor robed;
 robed is the LORD and girt about with strength.

R. The Lord is king; he is robed in majesty.

And he has made the world firm,
 not to be moved.

Your throne stands firm from of old;
 from everlasting you are, O LORD.

R. The Lord is king; he is robed in majesty.

Your decrees are worthy of trust indeed;
 holiness befits your house,
 O LORD, for length of days.

R. The Lord is king; he is robed in majesty.

Reading II

Rv 1:5-8

Jesus Christ is the faithful witness,
 the firstborn of the dead and ruler of the kings of the earth.
 To him who loves us and has freed us from our sins by his blood,
 who has made us into a kingdom, priests for his God and Father,
 to him be glory and power forever and ever. Amen.
 Behold, he is coming amid the clouds,
 and every eye will see him,
 even those who pierced him.
 All the peoples of the earth will lament him.
 Yes. Amen.
 "I am the Alpha and the Omega," says the Lord God,
 "the one who is and who was and who is to come, the almighty."

Alleluia

Mk 11:9, 10

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord!

Blessed is the kingdom of our father David that is to come! ^[SEP]

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel

Jn 18:33b-37

Pilate said to Jesus,
 "Are you the King of the Jews?"
 Jesus answered, "Do you say this on your own or have others told you about me?"
 Pilate answered, "I am not a Jew, am I?
 Your own nation and the chief priests handed you over to me.
 What have you done?"
 Jesus answered, "My kingdom does not belong to this world.
 If my kingdom did belong to this world,
 my attendants would be fighting
 to keep me from being handed over to the Jews.
 But as it is, my kingdom is not here."
 So Pilate said to him, "Then you are a king?"
 Jesus answered, "You say I am a king.
 For this I was born and for this I came into the world,
 to testify to the truth.
 Everyone who belongs to the truth listens to my voice."

Thank You!!!

We thank you for your spectacular generosity.
 Your generous support of our Parish and your help with the needs of our community through your ongoing

TRUE GRATITUDE

Let us remember that, as much has been given us,
 much will be expected from us, and that true homage comes from the heart as well as from the lips, and shows itself in deeds.

On behalf of the students, faculty and myself, we wish you a blessed and safe Thanksgiving. Thank you for all you do for our school. It is truly appreciated.

St Ambrose School had their very first fundraiser this year selling Papa Johns cards. Our third grade class achieved the highest sales and received a pizza party on November 10th. We raised $5392.00 and our third grade class took the picture with our big check. Thank you Miss Kelsey for all your hard work.

Hurricane

A Prayer for Hurricane Season

O God, Master of this world, hear the humble voices of your children. The Sea of Galilee obeyed your order and returned calm to the seas. We live in the shadow of danger over which we have no control. During this hurricane season, we turn to You, O loving Father. Spare us from all storms that may harm us or our loved ones. O Virgin, Star of the Sea, Our Beloved mother, we ask you to watch over and protect us until we walk in the footsteps of Your divine Son and reach the heavenly Jerusalem where a storm-less eternity awaits us. Amen.

Archdiocese of Miami

Office of the Archbishop

Given the improvement in the positivity rates in the three counties of our Archdiocese, we are making some changes in our protocols. Hopefully, further relaxation will occur in future weeks; however, if the numbers go in the opposite direction, we may have to reinstate some of these protocols.

Effective the weekend of November 6/7, the following adaptations of our COVID protocols for Mass are approved.

- Mask usage: we ask that the unvaccinated still wear their masks; for the vaccinated, masks are optional.
- Social distance (minimum 6 feet between households will continue to be practiced –at least, for the time being.
- Holy water fonts should remain empty.
- No invitation to exchange "the Sign of Peace".
- Use of hand sanitizer should continue to be made available. Priests and others who distribute Holy Communion should sanitize their hands.
- Use of worship aids (song sheets, missalettes, hymnals) is permitted.
- Choirs: unvaccinated should continue to wear masks; optional for those vaccinated. Choirs should carefully practice required social distancing when rehearsing or singing in Church
- Bulletin or pulpit announcement or signage should encourage use of masks for the unvaccinated; however, no checking of vaccination status is needed or advised.
- The above applies to the COVID regulations in church only.

Parish meetings and religious education classes should continue to use masks and social distance for the time being.

Proposed changes in schools will be provided separately once all vaccination data is received from the schools.

We continue to encourage all to be vaccinated as this offers the best way of putting this pandemic behind us.
