Message from the Pastor

Welcome to Saint Ambrose—we are happy to have you join us today to celebrate The Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time.

Today's readings recount three theophanies, or particular manifestations of God's presence. The prophet Isaiah is caught up in a dramatic scene of heavenly worship, with a royal throne, burning embers, and seraphim singing, "Holy, holy, holy." Isaiah is overwhelmed. In the responsorial psalm, the assembly adds its own worship to that of the seraphim: "In the sight of the angels, I will sing your praises, Lord" (Psalm 138:1).

Paul reminds the Corinthians of his own experience of a post-Resurrection appearance of the Lord, making him an apostle, but one "born abnormally" (1 Corinthians 15:8), since he had no acquaintance with the earthly Jesus. The first of those who did know the earthly Jesus were surprised by fishing advice from the teacher who had commandeered Simon's boat, resulting in an extraordinary catch. Although less colorful than those of Isaiah or Paul, this theophany was just as overwhelming.

Have a great week—Stay safe and well and enjoy the gifts and blessings God has given us, May God bless you always,

Fr. Michele Burke

Pastor's Musing

A little boy was attending his first wedding. After the service, his cousin asked him, "How many women can a man marry?" "Sixteen," the boy responded. His cousin was amazed that he had an answer so quickly. "How do you know that?" he asked. "Easy," the little boy said. "All you have to do is add it up, like the pastor said: four better, four worse, four richer, four poorer."

Spiritual Communion

As you temporarily participate at Mass in this different way, you and you families are encouraged to make a daily Spiritual Communion by praying:

Spiritual Communion Prayer

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the most Blessed Sacrament. I love You above all things and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot now receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there, and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Lectionary: 75

Reading I

Is 6:1-2a, 3-8

In the year King Uzziah died,
I saw the Lord seated on a high and lofty throne,
with the train of his garment filling the temple.
Seraphim were stationed above.

They cried one to the other,
"Holy, holy, holy is the LORD of hosts!
All the earth is filled with his glory!"
At the sound of that cry, the frame of the door shook and the house was filled with smoke.

Then I said, "Woe is me, I am doomed!
For I am a man of unclean lips,
living among a people of unclean lips;
yet my eyes have seen the King, the LORD of hosts!"
Then one of the seraphim flew to me, holding an ember that he had taken with tongs from the altar.

He touched my mouth with it, and said,
"See, now that this has touched your lips,
your wickedness is removed, your sin purged."

Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying,
"Whom shall I send? Who will go for us?"
"Here I am," I said; "send me!"

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 138:1-2, 2-3, 4-5, 7-8

R. In the sight of the angels I will sing your praises, Lord.

I will give thanks to you, O LORD, with all my heart,
for you have heard the words of my mouth;
in the presence of the angels I will sing your praise;
I will worship at your holy temple
and give thanks to your name.

R. In the sight of the angels I will sing your praises, Lord.

Because of your kindness and your truth;
for you have made great above all things
your name and your promise.
When I called, you answered me;
you built up strength within me.

R. In the sight of the angels I will sing your praises, Lord.

All the kings of the earth shall give thanks to you, O LORD,
when they hear the words of your mouth;
and they shall sing of the ways of the LORD:
"Great is the glory of the LORD."

R. In the sight of the angels I will sing your praises, Lord.

Your right hand saves me.
The LORD will complete what he has done for me;
your kindness, O LORD, endures forever;
forsake not the work of your hands.

R. In the sight of the angels I will sing your praises, Lord.

Reading II

1 Cor 15:3-8, 11

Brothers and sisters,
I handed on to you as of first importance what I also received:
that Christ died for our sins
in accordance with the Scriptures;
that he was buried;
that he was raised on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures;
that he appeared to Cephas, then to the Twelve.
After that, he appeared to more than five hundred brothers at once,
most of whom are still living,
though some have fallen asleep.
After that he appeared to James,
then to all the apostles.
Last of all, as to one abnormally born,
he appeared to me.
Therefore, whether it be I or they,
so we preach and so you believed.

Alleluia

Mt 4:19

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Come after me
and I will make you fishers of men.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel

Lk 5:1-11

While the crowd was pressing in on Jesus and listening to the word of God, he was standing by the Lake of Gennesaret.
He saw two boats there alongside the lake;
the fishermen had disembarked and were washing their nets.
Getting into one of the boats, the one belonging to Simon,
he asked him to put out a short distance from the shore.
Then he sat down and taught the crowds from the boat.
After he had finished speaking, he said to Simon,
"Put out into deep water and lower your nets for a catch."
Simon said in reply,
"Master, we have worked hard all night and have caught nothing, but at your command I will lower the nets."
When they had done this, they caught a great number of fish and their nets were tearing.
They signaled to their partners in the other boat
to come to help them.
They came and filled both boats
so that the boats were in danger of sinking.
When Simon Peter saw this, he fell at the knees of Jesus and said,
"Depart from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man."
For astonishment at the catch of fish they had made seized him
and all those with him,
and likewise James and John, the sons of Zebedee,
who were partners of Simon.
Jesus said to Simon, "Do not be afraid;
from now on you will be catching men."
When they brought their boats to the shore,
they left everything and followed him.

Archdiocese of Miami updates mask requirements for Mass and church gatherings Effective Jan. 4, 2022, the Archdiocese of Miami (ADOM) announced that everyone, regardless of vaccination status, attending Mass and/or church gatherings, will be required to use masks. Proper social distancing should also be maintained to help mitigate the risk of infection. The update comes as COVID-19 Omicron variant rapidly spreads throughout South Florida.

St Ambrose Mission Circle – A Full Circle Blessing

ABCD IS CHARITY.

ABCD supports the many ministries of the Catholic Church in the three counties of our Archdiocese – these ministries represent concrete ways in which we perform what are called the spiritual and corporal works of mercy. Through your support of the ABCD you help our Catholic Church here in South Florida reach out to those brothers and sisters Jesus speaks about in the Gospel. ABCD is our Catholic Charities, our religious education programs, our Catholic schools. ABCD is the support of our seminarians and priests. ABCD is in our marriage preparation programs, and our lay ministries that form people to minister to the bereaved, the homebound. ABCD exists because of the generosity of people like yourselves, people who in good times and in bad times keep their support of the Church on their list of major priorities.

The Confirmation students had a great time at the Confirmation Retreat held on January 22nd.

The Passion Play in the Bavarian town of Oberammergau has been rescheduled for 2022 and we have confirmed with them that it is a go and tickets are selling. Father Dariusz would love to have parishioners join him on this memorable experience from August 22 through August 31, 2022. We have a block of rooms on hold at the Aloft Hotel in the heart of the tourist area in Munich for these dates. We also have tour guides arranged for the following highlights:

- Visit Neuschwanstein Castle of King Ludwig and famous wooded church Wieskirche.
- Explore Munich with its famous mechanical clock featuring life size dancing figures, Old Town, Cathedral, Olympic Village and summer palace of Bavarian rulers.
- Enjoy Salzburg, Austria seeing the birthplace of Mozart, Hellbrunn Palace, Mirabell Gardens, and settings of the Sound of Music.
- Experience Nuremberg including the famous WWII Reich sites plus famous courtroom for war crimes as well as Old Town with its castle, city walls, and Cathedral.
- Immerse yourself in a bygone era traveling the Romantic Road through medieval villages, towns, and castles to Rothenburg with its classic and famous medieval Old Town.

After boat cruise on the Danube River, tour Weltenburg Abbey, the oldest wheat brewery in the world and lovely Benedictine Monastery.

The trip is departing August 22 to August 31, at the anticipated cost of $4,000 with air for double occupancy hotel room, Additional $700 for a single room. Included is group round trip air from Miami, 9 night stay at Aloft Hotel in Munich Center, Bus transportation for transfers and tours, famous Passion Play, daily breakfast and some dinners, and entrance fees for scheduled daily tours.

If interested please call Lynn Zaremba at 561-213-1670 or email lynzn317@aol.com.

A $500 deposit will secure a spot. If you are scheduling your own air or not staying with the group for the entire 9 nights it is critical that we know that before contracts are signed so please advise with your reservation.

Hope you will be able to join us on this wonderful experience.

Yours in Christ, Carolyn Zaremba— lynzn317@aol.com
