SFA Potty Training Policy Checklist

For your child to be enrolled in the SFA preschool program, they need to be fully potty trained. For your child to be fully potty-trained, they need to be able to do everything listed below. If your child does not meet ALL the below expectations, the following actions are at the discretion of Mrs. Hamilton and your child's teacher.

- Can verbalize to any adult that they need to go to the bathroom.
- They can pull their underwear and pants up and down independently.
- Can place themselves on the potty independently.
- Can wipe themselves to their best ability.
- Boys are familiar with the urinal and know how to use it correctly.
- Can take a nap without having any accidents.
- Can wash their hands with soap and water to the best of their ability.
