The Case for Christ is a 2017 American Christian drama film directed by Jon Gunn and written by Brian Bird, based on a true story and inspired by the 1998 book of the same name by Lee Strobel. The film stars Mike Vogel, Erika Christensen, Faye Dunaway and Robert Forster, and follows an atheist journalist who looks to disprove his wife's Christian faith.

Children age 4 through 5th Grade

Registration Deadline is June 20th

Join a local Give 5 class to connect with other active retirees, learn more about your community, and decide where your unique talents and experience can be utilized to help others in our area.

Q: What is Give 5 Branson?

A: Give 5 is a program that matches active retirees with nonprofits that utilize volunteer time and talent to serve the critical needs of the Branson/Tri-Lakes area.

Q: Who gives five of what?

A: First, Give 5 class participants learn about several local agencies and nonprofits, tour their facilities, meet their teams, and understand how they utilize volunteers to fulfill their missions. After four classes, participants are invited to choose a cause they want to support with five hours per month of their volunteer time and talent.

Q: Are the nonprofits local agencies?

A: Yes! Retirees who join a class in Taney or Stone County will visit nonprofits in Taney and Stone Counties.

Q: What are the requirements to join a Give 5 session in our area?

A: A willingness to learn and help is all that's required. Register in advance for a session when you can attend at least three of the four, all-day classes. Thanks to the generosity of our sponsors, this program is 100% free for any resident of Stone or Taney County.

Q: How do I register for a session?

A: Use the QR code to the right, go online to OLLBranson.com/Give5, call 417-334-2928, or email MikeRivera@OLLBranson.com...and bring a friend!

Prayer for our Clergy and Religious

Dear Heavenly Father,

We pray your blessings today on our Bishop, Priests, Sisters, religious workers, and members of the clergy who spread the good news of Your love.

We thank You particularly for those whom we know personally who are near and dear to our hearts for giving us their time and care to help us know You better.

We are grateful that our Bishop, Priests, Sisters, and religious workers obeyed the call to ministry by answering “yes” to service in our world.

Continue to grant them the quality time they need to study Your Word in the Bible as they seek to remind us of Your truths and teachings.

Grant them wisdom and love during the hours they spend counseling the hurting, visiting the sick, guiding the Church and praying for the needs of many.

Arm them with the gift of discernment to challenge the unhealthy values of our culture.

Empower them to speak your healing, life-giving words against despair and hopelessness.

Provide our clergy times of rest and spiritual refreshment. Help us to be sensitive to the impossible time demands we and our congregations place on them.

May we graciously grant our Bishop, Priests, Sisters the freedom to say “no” to the things that might diminish their ability to minister well.

Set firm boundaries of respect in us about their need for time for privacy and for rest.

Make us slow to criticize, quick to love and encourage.

We ask that You protect our Bishop, Priests, Sisters, religious workers, and members of the clergy from the evil forces that oppose Your Kingdom.

Give them the shield of faith and the sword of the Spirit. Protect their health, their families, their reputations, their finances, and their moral resolve.

When they are tempted, be their refuge and help. And when they give in to temptation, lead them into forgiveness and restoration that will better equip them to comprehend and share the depth of Christ’s redeeming love.

We join many in commending our clergy members to you as we echo Your words, “Well done, good and faithful servant! You have been faithful with a few things: I will put you in charge of many things. Come and share your master’s happiness!*

Amen.

"St. Boney-face."

St. Boniface is known as the apostle of the Germans. By the grace of God, he converted many of the pagans in Germany to Christianity. Furthermore, St. Boniface reminded the disobedient clergy of Germany to listen to the instructions of their bishops, and especially the Holy Father in Rome.

CATHOLIC TRIVIA ~ JUST FOR FUN

Question: What is a conopaeum veil used to cover?

Answer: The tabernacle.

©LPi

In the Catholic tradition, the tabernacle veil, or conopaeum, signifies the sacred and holy presence of Jesus in the Eucharist, mirroring the Old Testament veil separating the Holy of Holies from the rest of the Temple.

Dear Padre,

What does the Catholic Church teach about miracles?

Miracles are extraordinary occurrences without natural explanation that manifest the presence and power of God. We believe in miracles “because of the authority of God himself who reveals them, who can neither deceive nor be deceived” (Catechism of the Catholic Church, 156).

Christ’s multiplication of the loaves is the only miracle recorded by all four evangelists. He performed many other natural miracles—calming the storm, walking on water—and numerous healings as well—curing the deaf and mute, the woman with a hemorrhage. These signs attest that the Father sent Jesus and “they invite belief in him” (CCC, 548). Moreover, Jesus’ miracles “also confirm that the kingdom has already arrived on earth...” (“Dogmatic Constitution on the Church,” 5).

Today, God still manifests his presence in the Church through miracles. For example, potential medical healings are rigorously investigated by the Vatican for sainthood causes. Other supernatural occurrences—such as apparitions and eucharistic phenomena—are likewise thoroughly and prudently investigated with caution to maintain the Church’s credibility and prevent confusion among the faithful.

To that end, in May 2024, the Vatican updated its guidelines for assessing apparitions, visions, and alleged revelations, and reaffirmed that a bishop cannot rule on the validity of a particular case before the pope formally deems it to be “supernatural” for pastoral value. (Search “Norms for Proceeding in the Discernment of Alleged Supernatural Phenomena” at Vatican.va.) ●

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

The famous 20th century St. Padre Pio said once that he would wait outside the gates of heaven until the people in his life had entered. I'm not sure that I, or frankly many people I know, would say that and mean it. Yet that is precisely the kind of attitude we see in Jesus as he prays for us in the Gospel today. Having celebrated the Ascension of the Lord just a few days ago, we now hear the Son of God at the Last Supper pray to his Father “that they may be brought to perfection as one” (John 17:23). What does this mean for us?

I'd wager that we are not surprised that Jesus wants to make us perfect — that is, happy, whole, and healed. The shocker is that he desires this for us collectively and not just individually. Perfection is a team sport. We need each other to be perfect. Jesus is like a mother longing for her adult children to learn how to be in loving support of one another. He wants the perfection of his disciples to be not some individualistic plan of moral uprightness, but a loving communion of brothers and sisters.

Let's apply this practically. Do I see my participation at Mass as something I do merely for my own peace and edification, or as something I do with and for the people around me? Do I see my ongoing need for forgiveness as something that simply makes me feel better, or as a task that heals those around me, too? Is my dearest hope to individually get to heaven when I die, or is it to be part of the great procession of souls, together marching towards the heavenly Jerusalem? Do I want to be in heaven with people I currently find difficult? How would my life change if I did?

— Father John Muir

Weekly Prayer

Sunday's Readings

First Reading:

Stephen, filled with the Holy Spirit, looked up intently to heaven and saw the glory of God. (Acts 7:55)

Psalm:

The Lord is king, the most high over all the earth. (Ps 97)
Or: Alleluia.

Second Reading:

"I am the Alpha and the Omega, the first and the last,
the beginning and the end." (Rv 22:13)

Gospel:

"Father, they are your gift to me.
I wish that where I am they also may be with me,
that they may see my glory that you gave me,
because you loved me before the foundation of the world."
(Jn 17:24)

Live The Liturgy Inspiration of the Week

"Father, they are your gift to me." This is what Christ says of his disciples. It is what he says of us. "I wish that where I am, they also may be with me." Do we have the courage to be where Christ is? Can we be the gift?

Observances for the week of June 1, 2025

- Sunday: The Ascension of the Lord; 7th Sunday of Easter; World Communications Day
- Monday: Sts. Marcellinus and Peter, Martyrs
- Tuesday: St. Charles Lwanga and Companions, Martyrs
- Thursday: St. Boniface, Bishop and Martyr
- Friday: St. Norbert, Bishop
- Next Sunday: Pentecost Sunday

Devotions, Explained!

Though it is a less common practice in the modern world, early Church fathers like Tertullian and St. Jerome extolled the importance of praying after a meal, an action meant to inspire an attitude of thanksgiving and an acknowledgment of our dependence on God.

Prayer of Christian Unity

Help us to be one, Lord Jesus, as you prayed to the Father.
Gather us all to you, diverse in culture, gift, call, way of life, and perspective.
May the love we have for you overflow into the love we have for each other.
Amen.
