THE COMMEMORATION OF ALL THE FAITHFUL DEPARTED

“And this is the will of the one who sent me, that I should not lose anything of what he gave me, but that I should raise it on the last day. For this is the will of my Father, that everyone who sees the Son and believes in him may have eternal life, and I shall raise him up on the last day.” - Jn 6:39-40

NATIONAL Eucharistic Congress

What is Manna?

Manna is the official app of the National Eucharistic Congress— a growing hub of Eucharistic formation, prayer, and mission.

In the quiet of Ordinary Time, Fall is a great time to set aside space for spiritual growth. The National Eucharistic Congress invites you into our work of Eucharistic revival: it's the perfect time to go deeper — in prayer, in formation, in mission.

Whether you're looking to renew your prayer life, grow in understanding of the Eucharist, lead others, or simply stay connected to the Congress movement — Manna is built for you.

It's not just a video library. It's a spiritual ecosystem — right at your fingertips.

Coffee and Christ Sundays

9:15am to 10:15am
Faith Formation Room

Acclaimed author and teacher Dr. Brant Pitre digs down to the biblical roots of the Eucharist, through its foreshadowing in the miraculous events of the Old Testament, the Gospels, and Apostolic teaching.

The Lamb of God, 'The Bread of Life,' 'The Body and the Blood of Christ'... these are phrases we know from the Mass. But do we understand what they mean in the greater and deeper context of Scripture and Church teaching? We'll discover firsthand how Christ's Body and Blood are an integral and wondrous part of God's plan for our salvation.

Nov. 2

Episode 3 - Lamb of God: The Sacrifice of Isaac & the Passover Lamb

At every Mass many of us use the phrase "Lamb of God" without fully understanding what it means. Dr. Pitre examines two key instances of sacrificial lambs in the Old Testament--and why John the Baptist's disciples were quick to leave him to follow the One he proclaimed as "the Lamb of God."

Nov. 9

Episode 4 - Miracles of Exodus: Manna and Water

Jesus spoke of Himself as "the bread which comes down from heaven." What did that mean to the Jews who first heard him? And what meaning do those words have for us today in our understanding of the Eucharist?

Nov. 16

Episode 5 - Mysteries of the Tabernacle: The Bread of the Presence

When is bread more than just bread? In their pilgrimage through the desert, the people of Israel discover that God's care extends beyond meeting their physical needs to a profound and mysterious kind of relationship.

for a book study entitled,
"Come To Me: Living the Nine First Fridays"
by Sister Anne Flanagan, FSP.

We will meet in the Faith Formation room approximately 10 minutes after mass ends. If possible, please read the introduction and first chapter prior to the meeting.

Hey Deacon!

By Deacon Dan Vaughn

What do the designations in priests' titles mean and what are their responsibilities?

The formal title of a priest is Reverend, but in common speech it is customary to address a priest simply as Father. Both titles describe what a priest is, but other titles more specifically address what a priest does.

The title of Pastor, which is Latin for “shepherd,” is given to a priest to whom a parish has been entrusted. It is the responsibility of the Pastor to teach, sanctify, and govern the parishioners entrusted to his care as he seeks to lead them to heaven. He does this under the authority of the Bishop and, sometimes with the assistance of other priests. The office of teaching includes work in Catholic schools, the Order of Christian Initiation of Adults, answering questions about the faith, etc. The office of sanctifying includes the administration of the Sacraments, as well as praying for the parishioners and helping them to pray. The office of governing includes the temporal affairs of the parish (insurance, payroll, physical plant, keeping the parish archive and the Sacramental records, etc.).

A priest whose task it is to assist a pastor is called Parochial Vicar, who in a certain sense, shares the voice of the pastor. “As co-workers with the pastor and sharers in his solicitude, they are to offer service in the pastoral ministry by common counsel and effort with the pastor and under his authority” (canon 545 § 1).

The title of Parochial Administrator is given a priest who takes care of a parish for a short time, usually until a pastor is appointed. The title is often given to a priest who is in his first parish leadership role prior to being installed as pastor.

The title of Very Reverend is given to the Vicar General (the bishop’s “second in command”), Judicial Vicars (the bishop’s chief canon lawyers), and Vicar Forane (or Dean). The dean is the bishop’s representative within a diocesan territory called a “vicariate” or “deanery.” In our diocese there are seven deaneries. The dean helps coordinate the pastoral ministry within a deanery, provides support to his brother priests, and ensures proper administration is carried out. Priests retain these titles as long as they retain the office.

The title Monsignor is an honorary title given to priests in certain positions within the diocese or the Roman Curia. There are three “grades” of monsignor. From “highest” to “lowest” they are: (1) Protonotary Apostolic, (2) Prelate of Honor, and (3) Chaplain of His Holiness. The rules on who can be named a monsignor were updated by Pope Francis in 2013. Only priests working within the Roman Curia or Vatican diplomatic service are eligible for all three “ranks.” Diocesan priests are only eligible for the third (lowest) of these honors and only after age 65.

The title of Rector is given to a priest to whom the care of a particular sacred building is entrusted, such as a Shrine or a Cathedral.

More than serving to establish a ranking among priests, these titles help to describe the sacred tasks entrusted to individual priests so that the work of the Church is more fruitfully carried out.

THE BISHOP'S COLLECTION
for Catholic Charities of Southern Missouri

NOV. 22-23, 2025

During this Jubilee Year of Hope, we are reminded that the poor reveal to us the truth of the Gospel. As Pilgrims of Hope, we draw strength from Christ—the source of all hope—and are called to "Go and Do Likewise."

At Catholic Charities of Southern Missouri, we serve as the hands of hope and love—helping homeless families, pregnant mothers, veterans, and individuals with developmental disabilities. In 2024, we assisted over 2,000 people across southern Missouri.

As one Church, East to West, let us bear witness to hope, love, and mercy. Please support Catholic Charities of Southern Missouri. Be a Pilgrim of Hope: "Go and Do Likewise."

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

I lost my wallet this year. It was such an annoyance to replace everything in it. A friend, moved by sympathy, gave me a beautiful new one. One month later I lost that one, too, with all my newly replaced cards. No matter what I did, I couldn't find what I had lost. I resigned myself to never seeing either of my wallets again.

Fortunately, the Lord Jesus is not like me in this regard. In today's Gospel (John 6:37-40), he says, "This is the will of the one who sent me, that I should not lose anything of what he gave me." Jesus, unlike me, is ever vigilant with what the Father has given him. He searches for every lost soul — as the shepherd leaves the ninety-nine to pursue the one lost sheep, or the woman rejoices upon recovering a lost coin — and even descends to the depths of loss on the cross and into the realm of the dead to recover that which seems forever lost.

On All Souls' Day, as we remember our faithful departed, these words kindle a hope beyond hope in our hearts. Even the dead are not lost to Jesus, though they may seem so to us. Nothing entrusted to him by the Father is ever truly lost. So, we may hope that every soul, no matter how wandering or forgotten in life, is secure in his loving care and destined to be raised on the last day. Of what the Father gives him, he loses nothing.

— Father John Muir

Weekly Prayer

Sunday's Readings

First Reading:

Those who trust in him shall understand truth,
and the faithful shall abide with him in love. (Wis 3:9)

Psalm:

The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want. (Ps 23)
OR
Though I walk in the valley of darkness, I fear no evil, for you are with me.

Second Reading:

But God proves his love for us
in that while we were still sinners Christ died for us. (Rom 5:8)

Gospel:

"For this is the will of my Father,
that everyone who sees the Son and believes in him
may have eternal life,
and I shall raise him on the last day." (Jn 6:40)

Live The Liturgy Inspiration of the Week

To live with Christ, we must die with him.
But what does this mean? What does this look like in the ordinary life of a Christian?
We must ask God for the wisdom to see our own crosses, so that we may carry them into the newness of life.

Observances for the week of November 2, 2025

- Sunday: The Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed (All Souls' Day);
Daylight Savings Time Ends
- Monday: St. Martin de Porres, Religious
- Tuesday: St. Charles Borromeo, Bishop; Election Day
- Next Sunday: The Dedication of the Lateran Basilica

Devotions, Explained!

God is not subject to the constrictions of time as we understand them. Our prayers for the dead are, like our prayers for the living, an expression of charity and the unity which exists between all members of the Body of Christ.

Prayer during Loss

O God,
In the midst of my grief, be with me.
Cover this season with Your
comfort and consolation,
help me to know Your presence
and Your grace.
Bring comfort to my affliction,
and hope to my heart.
Amen.
