March 6, 2022 – 1st Sunday of Lent

Dear St. John Vianney parishioners,

Lent has begun! I pray this Lent is life-changing for you. Please remember that abstinence means no meat (beef, pork, or chicken but not fish) on Fridays during Lent (March 4, 11, 18, 25, April 1 and 8) and we also practice abstinence and fasting on Good Friday (April 15). Fasting normally means one regular meal and two other meals that equal one meal. If you are unable to fast due to serious health concerns, then the obligation no longer applies. It also is highly recommended that you go to Confession during Lent. The purpose of Lent is to grow in holiness, grow closer to God, and prepare ourselves to receive Jesus into our lives more deeply at Easter.

Lenten Practices: You will notice that the statues in our Church are now covered. This indicates that something is different, and we are preparing ourselves and getting ready for Easter Sunday. Covering our statues heightens our senses to the fact that something is missing. In a similar way the suppression of the Alleluia during Lent reminds us that we are exiled from our true home, where angels sing Alleluia without ceasing.

Soup and Stations: Stations of the Cross at 5:30pm followed by Soup will be offered each Friday during Lent (March 4, 11, 18, 25, April 1 and 8). I hope you can join us!

Lenten Videos: I am going to be releasing a series of videos at 2:30pm (Facebook live and then Youtube) on the Tuesdays of Lent. There will be two short (2-3 minute) videos one on Practical Advice on how to overcome Sin and another on Basic Healing Principles. You also can find these videos on the weekly update.

Healing Mass: Friday, March 14 at 3:00pm is our next healing mass at the Chapel of the Holy Cross. I hope you can join us! If you plan on coming, then I encourage you to come early, or you may not have a seat.

Birthday: My birthday is today (March 6, 1977) and it just so happens that my father Zig Mazanowski and my sister Kristin Loboda are in town. I am thankful for the gift of life and for the gift of being able to live out my life here at St. John Vianney Parish.

God bless you – Father Ignatius Mazanowski, Administrator of St. John Vianney Parish

6 de Marzo de 2022 – 1er Domingo de Cuaresma

Estimados feligreses de San Juan Vianney,

¡La Cuaresma ha comenzado! Ruego que esta Cuaresma te cambie la vida. Recuerde que la abstinencia significa no comer carne (res, cerdo o pollo, pero no pescado) los Viernes de Cuaresma (4, 11, 18, 25 de Marzo, 1 y 8 de Abril) y también practicamos la abstinencia y el ayuno el Viernes Santo (15 de Abril).). El ayuno normalmente significa una comida regular y otras dos comidas que equivalen a una comida. Si no puede ayunar debido a problemas de salud graves, la obligación ya no se aplica. También es muy recomendable que vayas a la Confesión durante la Cuaresma. El propósito de la Cuaresma es crecer en santidad, acercarnos más a Dios y prepararnos para recibir a Jesús en nuestras vidas más profundamente en la Pascua.

Prácticas de Cuaresma: Notará que las estatuas en nuestra Iglesia ahora están cubiertas. Esto indica que algo es diferente, y nos estamos preparando y alistando para el Domingo de Resurrección. Cubrir nuestras estatuas agudiza nuestro sentido al hecho de que falta algo. De manera similar, la supresión del Aleluya durante la Cuaresma nos recuerda que estamos exiliados de nuestro verdadero hogar, donde los ángeles cantan Aleluya sin cesar.

Viacrusis y Sopa: Las Estaciones de la Cruz a las 5:30 pm seguidas de Sopa se ofrecerán todos los viernes durante la Cuaresma (4, 11, 18, 25 de Marzo, 1 y 8 de Abril). ¡Espero que te puedas unir a nosotros!

Videos de Cuaresma: Voy a lanzar una serie de videos a las 2:30 p. m. (Facebook live y luego Youtube) los martes de Cuaresma. Habrá dos videos cortos (2-3 minutos), uno sobre consejos prácticos sobre cómo vencer el pecado y otro sobre principios básicos de curación. También puede encontrar estos videos en la actualización semanal.

Misa de Sanación: El Viernes 14 de Marzo a las 3:00 pm es nuestra próxima misa de sanación en la Capilla de la Santa Cruz. ¡Espero que te puedas unir a nosotros! Si planeas venir, te aconsejo que vengas temprano, o es posible que no encuentres asiento.

Cumpleaños: Mi cumpleaños es hoy (6 de marzo de 1977) y da la casualidad de que mi padre Zig Mazanowski y mi hermana Kristin Loboda están visitandome. Estoy agradecido por el regalo de la vida y por el regalo de poder vivir mi vida aquí en la Parroquia de San Juan Vianney.

Dios les bendiga – Padre Ignatius Mazanowski, Administrador de la Parroquia de San Juan Vianney

Why do we veil images?

The Catholic Church has this great custom of veiling of the crucifix and statues during lent, which goes back to 9th century in Germany. All Catholic Churches veiled their crucifix and all the statues until after the Vatican II Council. The Catholic Church did away with it and let the Bishops of the country decide on it. In the Roman Missal we find the instruction, “In the Dioceses of the United States, the practice of covering crosses and images throughout the church from [the fifth] Sunday [of Lent] may be observed. Crosses remain covered until the end of the Celebration of the Lord’s Passion on Good Friday, but images remain covered until the beginning of the Easter Vigil.”

Father Ignatius has decided that in the Church of St John Vianney our crucifix and our statues will be covered from the beginning of lent to after Good Friday Service. This is when the Church shifts her focus from Christ in the desert (the Gospel for the First Sunday of Lent) to Christ during His Passion.

The practice of veiling images alerts us that something is different, it can be startling at first, but Lent is a time of immediate preparation for the celebration of the Sacred Triduum. The veils are hard to miss and they serve as a reminder to get ready!

The veiled images build within us a longing for Easter Sunday. The veils seem out of place, and even counterintuitive. It can seem strange that the crucifix is covered up during Passiontide. Through this absence of images, our senses are heightened and we become more aware of what is missing. Similarly, the suppression of the Alleluia during Lent effectively demonstrates that we are in exile from our true Home, where the angels sing Alleluia without ceasing.

When images are unveiled before the Easter Vigil, we are reminded that we, in a sense, live in a veiled world. It is through our own death that we are able to see our true home, and the veil is lifted. Christ lifts the veil through His Resurrection.

Jesus told her, “I am the resurrection and the life; whoever believes in me, even if he dies, will live, and everyone who lives and believes in me will never die. John 11:25-26
