Farewell letter from Fr. Jaime Hernandez

Starting July 7, 2021, I will be at St. Gabriel Catholic Church in Washington, D.C. to be their new pastor.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank my staff and my brother Priests, Monsignor John Brady and Fr. Charles McCann, and other Priests who came for years to say masses in this church, our Deacons, the MCST Sisters, the school staff members, our church organizations and ministries, volunteers who have unselfishly dedicated their talents, services and ministries for the community. I thank all our parishioners who have been so warm and kind to me, their financial support for the church and love offerings to me during my ten years as pastor of this vibrant and spirit filled church. Let us continue to pray for each other for God's continued love and providence.

St. John's Pantry: Food Offers

Thirteenth Sunday of Ordinary Time

Taking her by the hand he said to her, "Tal'itha cu'mi"; which means, "Little girl, I say to you, arise." And immediately the girl got up and walked (she was twelve years of age), and they were immediately overcome with amazement. And he strictly charged them that no one should know this, and told them to give her something to eat (Mk 5:41-42).

The Gospels give us only some of the many miracles our Lord worked. They give them to prove that he was what he claimed to be — the Son of God and the long-expected Savior; and also to prove his compassionate understanding and sympathy for suffering humanity.

We must not forget, however, that the meaning of his miracles and his mission was lost on thousands of his contemporaries in Palestine, small though the country was. While great throngs followed our Lord and listened to his message and were interested in his mission, still great throngs remained at home, stolidly immersed in their worldly tasks and thoughts. They heard rumors about the man from Nazareth who was said to be the Messiah, and was supposed to be able to work miracles, but they were too practical, too sensible to listen to such rumors. Anyway they had no interest in the Messiah, or in silly spiritual things, they were fully occupied with their financial and worldly interests.

Today, let us say a fervent prayer of thanksgiving to God for the gift of active faith which he has given us and beg of him to keep that faith ever alive in our breasts. Let us think, too, of our fellowmen, our brothers in Christ, who are so busy with their worldly occupations and pleasures that they cannot find time to listen to his message. They are spiritually anemic and almost spiritually dead, but cannot push their way toward Christ through the throngs of earthly, worldly barricades which they have built about themselves. Our sincere prayers can help them to overcome these obstacles; frequently and fervently let us ask God to send them his efficacious grace so that these brothers in Christ will also be with him in heaven.

Jesús Calms the Storm

35 That day when evening came, he said to his disciples, "Let us go over to the other side." 36 Leaving the crowd behind, they took him along, just as he was, in the boat. There were also other boats with him. 37 A furious squall came up, and the waves broke over the boat, so that it was nearly swamped. 38 Jesus was in the stern, sleeping on a cushion. The disciples woke him and said to him, "Teacher, don't you care if we drown?" 39 He got up, rebuked the wind and said to the waves, "Quiet! Be still!" Then the wind died down and it was completely calm. 40 He said to his disciples, "Why are you so afraid? Do you still have no faith?" 41 They were terrified and asked each other, "Who is this? Even the wind and the waves obey him!"

Reflexión del Evangelio: Domingo XII del Tiempo Ordinario

La barca en la que van Jesús y sus discípulos se ve atrapada por una de aquellas tormentas imprevistas y furiosas que se levantan en el lago de Galilea al atardecer de algunos días de verano. Marcos describe el episodio para despertar la fe de las comunidades cristianas que viven momentos difíciles.

El relato no es una historia tranquilizante para consolarnos a los cristianos de hoy con la promesa de una protección divina que permita a la Iglesia pasear tranquila a través de la historia. Es la llamada decisiva de Jesús para hacer con él la travesía en tiempos difíciles: "¿Por qué sois tan cobardes? ¿Aún no tenéis fe?"

Marcos prepara la escena desde el principio. Nos dice que "era al atardecer". Pronto caerán las tinieblas de la noche sobre el lago. Es Jesús quien toma la iniciativa de aquella extraña travesía: "Vamos a la otra orilla". La expresión no es nada inocente. Les invita a pasar juntos, en la misma barca, hacia otro mundo, más allá de lo conocido: la región pagana de la Decápolis.

De pronto se levanta un fuerte huracán y las olas rompen contra la frágil embarcación inundándola de agua. La escena es patética: en la parte delantera, los discípulos luchando impotentes contra la tempestad; a popa, en un lugar algo más elevado, Jesús durmiendo tranquilamente sobre un cojín.

Aterrorizados, los discípulos despiertan a Jesús. No captan la confianza de Jesús en el Padre. Lo único que ven en él es una increíble falta de interés por ellos. Se les ve llenos de miedo y nerviosismo: "Maestro, ¿no te importa que nos hundamos?"

Jesús no se justifica. Se pone de pie y pronuncia una especie de exorcismo: el viento cesa de rugir y se hace una gran calma. Jesús aprovecha esa paz y silencio grandes para hacerles dos preguntas que hoy llegan hasta nosotros: "¿Por qué sois tan cobardes? ¿Aún no tenéis fe?"

¿Qué nos está sucediendo a los cristianos? ¿Por qué son tantos nuestros miedos para afrontar estos tiempos cruciales, y tan poca nuestra confianza en Jesús? ¿No es el miedo a hundirnos el que nos está bloqueando?

¿No es la búsqueda ciega de seguridad la que nos impide hacer una lectura lúcida, responsable y confiada de estos tiempos? ¿Por qué nos resistimos a ver que Dios está conduciendo a la Iglesia hacia un futuro más fiel a Jesús y su Evangelio?

¿Por qué buscamos seguridad en lo conocido y establecido en el pasado, y no escuchamos la llamada de Jesús a "pasar a la otra orilla" para sembrar humildemente su Buena Noticia en un mundo indiferente a Dios, pero tan necesitado de esperanza?
