An Invitation to See and Believe

The Shroud of Turin is a linen cloth bearing the full-body image of a man believed by many to be Jesus of Nazareth. This exhibit features a full-size replica of the Shroud and presents what scientists, historians, and scholars have discovered through decades of research. The Shroud challenges us to look with both reason and faith, inviting a deeper encounter with the mystery of Christ's Passion, Death, and Resurrection.

Parish Presentations on the Shroud

Presentations will be made by Pam McCue, Shroud Educator, at each of the parishes. The dates, times and places are as follows:

St. Gregory the Great Church (lower-level) – March 23, 7:00 PM
Our Lady of Sorrows Church (Lower-level Church Hall)– March 24, 7:00 PM
St Raphael Church – March 25, 6:30 PM

Free-will offering.

All are welcome.
