TWENTY-FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

FATHER DAVE R. IRELAND

My dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

This Sunday we remember the fateful attack on our country in 2001. It was then that terrorists attacked the twin towers and the Pentagon. Everything changed. Do you remember where you were when it was announced? I remember how many people came to Church to pray for our nation and for those who had lost their lives.

Let us continue to pray for our nation and the First Responders who risk their lives each and every day to protect us. Our prayers go out for the Police and Firefighters in our communities. Let us always be thankful for the many sacrifices they make for our society. Please be sure to thank them for their service when you see them.

September 29th is the Feast of the Archangels. Traditionally it is the Feast of St. Michael the Archangel, the Patron Saint of Police Officers.

I will be taking some pies to the Police Station to thank them for all they do for our community.

*May God's Blessings be yours this week,
Father Ireland*

Greetings and Salutations to all of our Families and friends of Corpus Christi Academy

We, the Eagles of Corpus Christi Academy, have spent the last six years building a strong community and an amazing school environment. As we begin year seven, we have truly hit our stride: enrollment is up over 20%; we recently achieved our first full accreditation; and we are emerging from a pandemic with optimism and excitement that is, excuse the pun, infectious. But THIS WEEKEND, and ESPECIALLY at this time, it is important to remember: to remember all of the people, the first responders, the families, and our country as we continue to pray for and support those who suffered as a result of the events of 9.11.

The support of those around us is very important in all aspects of life and death; and though it pales in comparison to the aforementioned, we are truly and profoundly thankful for the support of our parishes. So we say THANK YOU, and we pray for you on this day of remembrance.

Peace!

THE MISSION

Over the next three years, every Catholic Diocese parish, school, apostolate, and family is invited to be a part of "Renewing the Church" by enkindling a living relationship with the Lord Jesus Christ in the Holy Eucharist.

Year of Diocesan Revival (June 19, 2022 – July 11, 2023)

This first year of the Revival invites diocesan staff, bishops, and priests to respond to the Lord's personal invitation and equips them to share this love with the faithful through Eucharistic Congresses and events.
