Parishioners of Sacred Heart of Jesus

Servers Needed for 4:00 p.m. Saturday Mass!

Did you serve Mass as a youth? Join us!
Contact Deacon Chordas by calling the parish office. The more adults who volunteer, the less you will be on call.

Serve monthly or weekly.
Get closer to our Lord.

We will be wearing cassocks and surpluses provided by the parish.

Thank you.

From the desk of the senior priest-retired

From this weekend's reading from the SECOND BOOK of KINGS we read that the prophet Elijah fed a hundred people with only twenty barley loaves. (A barely loaf of that era of Elijah and later Jesus would be similar in size to an average hamburger bun today.) In our gospel passage St John, the Evangelist mentions "men...about five thousand in number," whom Jesus fed with "five barley loaves and two fish." Jesus blessed these men (were there also any women and children who were fed?) with such an abundance of that "fragments left over...filled twelve wicker baskets."

As I reflect on my own abundance of food here in the rectory, I thank you dear parishioners for your support and God's support of you to enable you to be generous. Both parish priests and parishioners are challenged by Jesus' admonition elsewhere in the gospel concerning judgement time: "I was hungry, and you gave me food." (Matt. 25:35).

Perhaps enough time has passed since the horrible assassination attempt on Mr. Trump to see a little humor. The presidential candidate and I now have a corporeal connection. He lost a piece of his right ear as a result of that evil act. Over a year ago I wrote here that I lost a chunk of my left ear in surgery to remove a squamous cell carcinoma from my ear's rim. At the Second Coming of Christ with the Resurrection of the Body, both Mr. Trump and I may be delayed acquiring replacement ear parts.

Fr. Winkel
Senior Priest-Retired

Catholic Men's Fellowship Changes Lives!

Attend a couple of twice-monthly meetings to see if Catholic Men's Fellowship inspires changes in your life!

Eucharistic Revival Diocese of Cleveland

Eucharistic Miracles Display

Sunday, September 8, 10 a.m. - Saturday, September 21, 10 a.m.

is a traveling museum-like exhibition featuring Eucharistic Miracles chronicled by Blessed Carlo Acutis (1991-2006).

Blessed Carlo was a teenager from Italy who developed a website dedicated to the documented and scientifically scrutinized occasions when the Holy Eucharist changed in its physical appearance, reminding us that the bread and wine of the Mass truly become the Body and Blood of our Lord Jesus Christ.

We are grateful to the faith community of SS. Cosmas and Damian Parish for generously investing their time, treasure and talent into creating this exhibition.
