*Come Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of Thy faithful

Traditional Latin Mass (also known as the Extraordinary Form, 1962 Missal).

In the words of our founding pastor, Msgr. Marino Priori:

“The church is the temple of the Lord, the gate of heaven. Come after a week of earthly cares, after so much toil, after so many sorrows, after so much pain. Rest your limbs. Regenerate your spirit at the sources of grace. Raise your mind to God; thank Him for the benefits received through His creation and in daily life; ask for strength so you can win all of life’s struggles, and be able to possess the fruits of redemption.”

Intentions that cannot be offered here within a year of reception are, at the pastor's discretion, subject to being sent to the archdiocesan Mission Office. Except in the year of an individual's death, no more than 12 Saturday evening/Sunday Masses may be requested or offered for the repose of his/her soul in a calendar year. Make checks payable to Holy Rosary Church.

Announcements

- We will take up a second collection next week for the Santo Rosario Conference of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul. All funds collected for SVdP will be used to support the poor and needy of our parish and local community.
- The parish office will be closed Monday, May 24, for Memorial Day. Our only Mass will be at 9 a.m.
- Young people from our parish are scheduled to be confirmed Wednesday May 27, at 7 p.m. at the Cathedral of SS. Peter & Paul. Please keep them in your prayers.
- The Italian Street Festival is June 12-13 — less than three weeks away — and we require 200 volunteers to make it work. Nearly a third of the parish's operating budget depends on the success of our festival. Many volunteer positions need to be filled to help set up the grounds and prepare food during the days leading up to the actual festival — and there are plenty of openings to work at food booths and in the kitchen during the event. See Page 6 for details on how to volunteer, or look for festival representatives after weekend Masses.

• The parish would like to recognize in the bulletin parishioners who are graduating from high school this year. To have your graduate included contact David Walden in the parish office, david@holynosaryindy.org or 317-636-4478.

'These events must not be forgotten!'

Pope Benedict XVI delivered the following Angelus address July 22, 2007, in the central piazza of Lorenzago di Cadore where he was spending his summer vacation.

In these days of rest which thanks to God I am spending here in Cadore, I feel even more acutely the sorrowful impact of the news I am receiving about the bloodshed from conflicts and the episodes of violence happening in so many parts of the world. This prompts me to reflect once again today on the drama of human freedom in the world.

The beauty of nature reminds us that we have been appointed by God to “tend and care for” this “garden” which is the earth, and I see that you truly tend and take care of this beautiful garden of God, a true paradise. So, when people live in peace with God and one another, the earth truly resembles a “paradise.”

Unfortunately, sin ruins ever anew this divine project, causing division and introducing death into the world. Thus, humanity succumbs to the temptations of the Evil One and wages war against itself. Patches of “hell” are consequently also created in this marvelous “garden” which is the world. In the midst of this beauty, we must never forget the situations in which our brothers and sisters at times find themselves.

War, with its aftermath of bereavement and destruction, has always been deemed a disaster in opposition to the plan of God, who created all things for existence and particularly wants to make the human race one family.

I cannot avoid here calling to mind a significant date: 1 August 1917 ... on which my venerable Predecessor, Pope Benedict XV, addressed his famous Note to the Heads of Belligerent Peoples, calling for an end to the First World War. While that inhuman conflict was raging, the Pope had the courage to call it a “senseless slaughter.” His words are engraved in history. They were justified in the actual situation of that summer of 1917, especially on this Venetian front.

But these words, “senseless slaughter,” also contain a broader, more prophetic value and can be applied to many other conflicts that have struck down countless human lives. These very regions where we are, which themselves speak of peace, harmony and the Creator’s goodness, were the theater of the First World War, as so many testimonies and several moving Alpine songs still recall. These events must not be forgotten! We must remember the negative experiences our forebears unfortunately suffered in order not to repeat them.

Pope Benedict XV’s Note was not limited to con-

PRAYER FOR MEMORIAL DAY

God of power and mercy,
you destroy war and put down earthly pride.
Banish violence from our midst and wipe away our tears,
that we may all deserve to be called your sons and daughters.
Keep in your mercy those men and women who have died in the cause of freedom and bring them safely into your kingdom of justice and peace.
We ask this though Jesus Christ our Lord.
R. Amen.

demning the war; it also pointed out in a juridical perspective ways to build a just and lasting peace: the moral force of law, balanced and controlled disarmament, arbitration in disputes, the freedom of the seas, reciprocal amnesty for the costs of war, the restitution of occupied territories and fair negotiations to settle problems.

The Holy See’s proposal was oriented to the future of Europe and the world. It complied with a project that was Christian in inspiration but could be shared by all since it was based on the rights of peoples. This was the same structure to which the Servants of God Paul VI and John Paul II adhered in their memorable Discourses to the United Nations Assembly, repeating on the Church’s behalf: “War never again!”

From this place of peace, where one is even more vividly aware of how unacceptable the horrors of “senseless slaughters” are, I renew my appeal to adhere tenaciously to the path of law, to consistently ban the arms race and, more generally, to reject the temptation to tackle new situations with old systems.

With these thoughts and hopes in my heart that this may always be, as it is now thanks be to God, a place of peace and hospitality, let us now raise a special prayer for peace in the world, entrusting it to Mary Most Holy, Queen of Peace. I wish you all a good Sunday and good vacation. Thank you for everything!

Gabriel Project in urgent need of donations to assist pregnant mothers

Donations to the Gabriel Project for the first quarter of 2026 were significantly down compared to last year. They were just enough to pay for significant plumbing and septic issues they experienced at the Gabriel Project/1st Choice for Women Center.

The resource center continues to be busy providing women and children with baby essentials, and they continue to provide rental and utilities assistance at an increasing rate. See the insert in today's bulletin for details on the work they do.

They rely on the generosity of individual donors. If you can help them with a one-time or recurring gift, please send checks to Great Lakes Gabriel Project, P.O. Box 291, Greenwood, IN 46142, or donate online at <https://goangels.org/give>.

Gabriel Project Angel Training

You can help pregnant women in need by becoming a Gabriel Angel. The next training session will be Saturday, June 6, from 9 a.m. to noon at the Theodore Guérin Room of St. Jude Catholic Church, 5353 McFarland Road.

Through a parish's Gabriel Project Ministry, trained volunteers called "angels" support pregnant mothers' choice for life through emotional and spiritual assistance and accompaniment.

Light breakfast will be served. RSVP by May 31 to Barb Winningham at 317-432-6357 or barbwinningham@gmail.com, or to Lourdes Padilla, 317-213-4778 or gabriel@goangels.org.

Tell the FDA to end chemical abortions

Urgent action is required to get the Food and Drug Administration to protect women and unborn children from the chemical abortion drug, mifepristone. One out of every 10 women who use the drug experiences a serious adverse event such as hemorrhaging, infection or sepsis.

Minor girls can obtain these mail-order drugs from out of state without ever seeing a doctor — even in states that require parental involvement for an abortion.

The U.S. Supreme Court is currently deliberating on whether to temporarily block the mail-order distribution of mifepristone, but the FDA can and should act now. Make your voice heard at <https://votervoice.net/NCHLA/campaigns/137297/respond>.

— Holy Rosary Pro-Life Ministry

The Spirit ... is the Gift that opens our lives to love. His presence breaks down our hardness of heart, our narrowness of mind, our selfishness, the fears that enchain us and the narcissism that makes us think only of ourselves. The Holy Spirit comes to challenge us, to make us confront the possibility that our lives are shriveling up, trapped in the vortex of individualism. Sadly, oddly enough, in a world of burgeoning "social" media, we risk being ever more alone. Constantly connected, yet incapable of "networking." Always immersed in a crowd, yet confused and solitary travelers.
