Bible Study - Who was Peter?

A poor fisherman? An impetuous student? A bungling disciple? A coward who became the "rock" of the Church? Find out the answers during our next Bible study using Lectio: Peter, the Cornerstone of Catholicism. Ten fascinating sessions explore the life of Peter and his relevance to our lives. Presented by Dr. Tim Gray who is renowned for using the Bible, History & Sacred Tradition and Art to present a fresh perspective on the Catholic Faith.

We will begin this study on Sunday, September 9. The Bible Study Group meets Sunday evenings at 6:30 pm in the Social Hall. We would love to have new members join us. We will use the video presentations, group discussion and personal reflection to dive deeper into knowing the life of Peter. There is no pressure to be there every week as you can access videos online when you are unable to attend.

Fr. Steve's Prayer for Consideration:

This weekend, I thought I would change things up a little bit. I want to take a brief break from my bulletin article series on the collect (opening prayer) at Sunday's Mass, and share with you a portion of an awesome homily that our Holy Father, Pope Francis, gave at this year's Feast of Corpus Christi. He gave this homily just this past June 3rd. He was speaking about our Lord telling His disciples before He celebrated the Last Supper with them that He would go to Heaven to prepare a place for them, and that one day He would take them with Him to where He is. Enjoy!

"Jesus, then, prepares for us. What does Jesus prepare for us? He prepares a place and a meal. A place much more worthy than the "large furnished room" of the Gospel. It is our spacious and vast home here below, the Church, where there is, and must be, room for everyone. But he has also reserved a place for us on high, in heaven, so that we can be with him and with one another forever. In addition to a place, he prepares a meal, the Bread in which he gives himself: "Take; this is my body" (Mk 14:22). These two gifts, a place and a meal, are what we need to live. They are our ultimate "room and board". Both are bestowed upon us in the Eucharist. A place and a meal.

Jesus prepares a place for us here below, because the Eucharist is the beating heart of the Church. It gives her birth and rebirth; it gathers her together and gives her strength. But the Eucharist also prepares for us a place on high, in eternity, for it is the Bread of heaven. It comes down from heaven – it is the only matter on earth that savors of eternity. It is the bread of things to come; even now, it grants us a foretaste of a future infinitely greater than all we can hope for or imagine. It is the bread that sates our greatest expectations and feeds our finest dreams. It is, in a word, the pledge of eternal life – not simply a promise but a pledge, a concrete anticipation of what awaits us there. The Eucharist is our "reservation" for the heavenly banquet; it is Jesus himself, as food for our journey towards eternal life and happiness.

In the consecrated host, together with a place, Jesus prepares for us a meal, food for our nourishment. In life, we constantly need to be fed: nourished not only with food, but also with plans and affection, hopes and desires. We hunger to be loved. But the most pleasing compliments, the finest gifts and the most advanced technologies are not enough; they never completely satisfy us. The Eucharist is simple food, like bread, yet it is the only food that satisfies, for there is no greater love. There we encounter Jesus really; we share his life and we feel his love. There you can realize that his death and resurrection are for you. And when you worship Jesus in the Eucharist, you receive from him the Holy Spirit and you find peace and joy. Dear brothers and sisters, let us choose this food of life! Let us make Mass our priority! Let us rediscover Eucharistic adoration in our communities! Let us implore the grace to hunger for God, with an insatiable desire to receive what he has prepared for us."

-Pope Francis

Cassi's Corner—Holy Days of Opportunity

On Wednesday we celebrate the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary which is a Holy Day of Obligation. That means that this day has been set aside by the Church as a day equal in importance to a Sunday. Often times, I think, we can look at these Holy Days as burdens the Church is placing on us, however, as with most things, if we try to think slightly differently, it doesn't seem so bad. First, let me give a quick refresher: Holy Days of Obligation are remembrances of important events in the lives of Jesus or Mary. In the United States, there are eight, two of which are celebrated on Sundays in our diocese. On Holy Days of Obligation we are to attend Mass just like we should on Sundays.

Now for a new perspective: Holy Days, like Sundays, are meant to be days of rest. We are invited on these days to come to Mass where we give thanks to God and in return for our thanks we are given the Bread of Life! Yes, it's an extra step in our day to go to Mass, and yes, most of us still have to go to work, but the rest of our day we are free to—even obligated to—relax. Let me say that again; Holy Days of Obligation are days that we are not only given permission, but are encouraged to rejuvenate and receive Christ. Sounds to me like it should be called a Holy Day of Opportunity!
